This and that

—We wish you a merry one.
 —Less than two weeks until Christmas.
 —Hunters on the farm of Wm. Burns, Nassagaweya, shot and killed a valuable rana.
 —Green and red, and holly and evergreens are the predominant decorations just now.
 —If Acton is to have a Community Christmas Tree it is time preparation was under way for the event.
 —Bill says: "There are some people to whom Christmas doesn't mean anything more than a sore stomach."
 —The Christmas advertising messages mean dollars in your pocket and the saving of much energy if you study them and follow their tips.
 —During the Christmas time a word of warning is issued to use care with the Christmas decorations so that fires will not be likely to result.
 —The Daily Globe hit the nail squarely on the head this morning when it said: "The best Christmas spirit is not obtainable at the corner store."
 —Dickens used to say: "It is good to be children sometimes, and never better than at Christmas, when its mighty founder was a child himself."
 —Prepare now for the colder weather to come. See that stovepipes and furnace pipes are properly protected so that they will not draw in the cold air.
 —The Farmers' Annual Ball and Dinner per drew its usual good attendance last Friday evening, and a good time is reported by those who patronized the event.
 —At the evening services of the United Church last Sunday the orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Chas. Mason, provided splendid music for the services of praise.
 —A subscription to THE FREE PRESS would make an appreciated gift to those away from the old home. They'll remember your thoughtfulness all through the year.
 —The Men's Class of the United Sunday School, Chertown, paid a formal visit to the Acton Sunday School last Sunday afternoon. Mr. McLaren, the teacher, conducted the teaching hour, skillfully leading a discussion on "The Lord's Prayer."
 —Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) Egan, of Toronto, sang with fine effect, the solo, "Jesus is Mine," at the morning service in the United Church last Sunday morning. This was the number she sang with such manifest acceptance at Massey Hall, Toronto, the previous Sunday evening.
 —A Christmas rhyme: "Give a little, live a little, try a little, sing a little, bring a little happiness to earth, Pray a little, play a little, be a little glad; rest a little, just a little, if the heart is sad. Open a little, send a little to another's door; give a little, live a little, love a little more."
 —Mrs. Geo. T. Coe died at her home in Georgetown on Tuesday, Mrs. Coe lived with her husband in Acton for a time and for many years in Elmhouse. She was for many years in Elmhouse. She was highly esteemed and useful in the fort to her bereaved husband, who is stricken with blindness.

At the Hall's Sale of the Creber furniture on Friday, December 14, a solid quarter cut oak dining room suite will be sold. Three months' credit on this item.
