TWO ROADS

In winter time it's straight and hard, The road to Knowledge Land, By Etudy Lane and Echoolbook Place With pencil in your hand; Your eyes must see, your ears must hear The things there are to learn, And never to the right or left Your little feet must turn. When the summer time is here, oh, then You'll find the Greenfield Way And Woodsy Path and Bunset Hill Will lend you day by day, If you will look and fisten well And read on every hand. The open books Dame Nature leaves,

To that same Knowledge Land. Neighborhood News

GEORGETOWN

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Moore, of Acton, visited in town last week. Mr. C. B. Goodwin, Dominion Apiarint, Ottawa, was the guest of Mr. Pettit,

Mrs. H. C. Behrelter, of Kitchener, spent Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore. Mr. George T. Saunders, of Edmonton, is spending a few weeks with friends in Georgelown and vicinity. Mrs. R. M. Wilson, of Calgary was called home last week owing to the attended the funeral of the late Mr. Mary Claridge, on Bunday were Mrs. Harry Elliot, Mr. Hugh Graham, Mrs. A. Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McKerrihen, Toronto; Misses Pickering, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Campbell, Moffat; Mr. A. G. Claridge, Acton.-Herald.

BURLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cofeman, Mr. Louis Jeffrice has received news Ben sighed, for he was very tired and hair was beginning to stand on end.

men's annual meeting and renew old ned to surprise his parents.

On Priday evening a Pure Milk deliv- safe, busied himself in caring for the ery truck overturned on the klippery canary. road at the corner of the Guelph line Then he hurried to the cellar, shook and Water Street, and it required a down the furnace, threw on more coal, of the ditch. The truck was only slightly open, in order to clear off the gas, Mrs. P. Grant, of Toronto, is visiting I'm through!" with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. Olansford.

wood, last week. with her brother and sister, Mr. Matthew and Miss M. Overland. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Oheeseman left for Toronto on Tuesday, where Mr. Cheeseman has taken a position. Dr. and Mrs. Hutchinson and little Mrs. H. Prankham and little daughter. to Georgetown after spending a month a minute or two before.

Mins Nellie Miller, R. N., has return- left that broom outside the storeroom, ing about the building. ed to Wallaceburg, after spending two he'd give me a lecture." Erin school recently purchased a plane his way to it. Reaching inside, he toss- "Hil" Ben shouted. "Hil" ions and National Health in Toronto the door to open it. His hand swept and the thick lips of Jim Burns. Jim Horangeman, hand a Torrie, why should was the local "bad man," and had been I not live a long time?" Toronto-Hamilton Highway bridge at cd from the outside with a snap lock! of his time in jail for various offenses. Speaking about the old Acton Sons of Oakville have all been placed in position He was a prisoner by his own careless Everyone in the village thought him utand the big crane was placed on a action, and, moreover, he did not at terly abandoned and worthless. Ben was remembers that he was elected Assistant low specially constructed truck on Tues- the present moment see how the prison- uncertain how to regard the appearance Recording Scribe, in September, 1970 day morning and removed. There has er was going to get out. been a big force of men at work all The store room was a mere closet, not stay in his prison and to take a chance as Recording Scribe, and his brother, winter and quite a number are still more than seven feet square, and shelves, with the fire. He watched the man in John Grant, as Pinancial Scribe, at the employed.-Record.

OAKVILLE

ing on his face two upper teeth were ed it before; and certainly no one had swung in. knocked out. Peter Thompson hurt his ever thut it from the inside,

MILTON

Mr. John Henderson, of Winnipeg, an that he had planned. Very likely, when "I don't know for sure," said Ben, "but young man ready to work when work old Million boy, son of the late Mr. and they went to church the next day, they I'm affaid so. Come over here and was needed to be done. On November Mrs. Thos. Henderson, has been spend- would drive directly past the place where push back this catch." ing a few days looking up old friends he was imprisoned. He had sometimes "You locked in?" in town. The old town is always glad passed Sundays at the home of one of "Yes, here in the storeroom. Hurry, its new location, it was moved by John to welcome back her sons who have his friends who lived a few miles out Jim, so that we can see to that fire! Warren, seconded by Charles Dean, "that gone out and made good in other fields. from the village, and so his family would I thought I heard it crackling once!" Pire destroyed a large barn, the year's not be surprised if they did not see him Burns ran to the storeroom, felt for up the hall foundation and fix the platcrop of grain and 00 tons of hay on at church. Therefore, unless some one the catch and quickly shoved it back. the farm of Joseph P. Broochel, near tried the unlocked door and walked in, Ben's first act, when he got out, was Milton, on Thursday night. Neighbors —a very unlikely proceeding on Sunday, to turn on the lights. As he did so, who was in trouble. I expected to have but the loss occasioned by the saw no chance of his getting out he saw Burns slip something hastly into to break in the door, not knowing it

Toronto and Acton this week. Miss Margaret Tilson, of Toronto, spent hold out fresh in such confined quarters? means of the chains, the week-end with her friend, Miss Alice | As the thoughts flashed into Ben's mind, With all the seeming unconcern that a basket of groceries, laid a ham on portation Co. brought an orchestra and Was the lock of the door as strong which he unexpectedly; found himself, wold place, where Burns turned off to thirty people here on Monday evening, as it seemed? Ben clutched at the and so deeply interested in the possible go to his own shanty among the hills. when the Torontonians surprised Mr. and door with his finger nails, but he could fire that he had no idea of injuring He was walking with unwonted erectness Mrs. Geo. Shier, at whose home they held find nothing to grasp; then he hurled anyone.

return home until early Tuesday morn- ward, scarcely quivered under his attacks, cherry red; but when Ben had given next morning. Dr. R. K. Anderson, M. P., left this in it, hoping to find a hatchet; but ed it with fine coal, all danger was "Oh, I'm so glad I didn't know about it morning for Battle Creek, Mich., where he only tool he found that could be past. he will take a rest and undergo special of the slightest-use to him was a light "It's a mercy that you heard me, Jim," him to murder, you!" treatments at the sanitarium to regain tack hammer. The heavier tools, Ben Ben repeated.

The Free Press Short Story

DOUBTFUL RESCUER

BY ROE L. HENDRICK

R. WADE was neat and methodi- the closet from above the door-frame. cal almost to the point of whim- Then he remembered that above the iscallty. As he stood in the door was a narrow transom, placed there doorway of the store, with his more for an ornament than for use, overcoat half v.n. he paused even in apparently, for he had never known it his hurried departure for a final injunc- to be opened.

"Good-by!" Ben Griswold shouted from frame, behind the grocery counter, where he was weighing half a pound of tea for with only one pair of hands to wait his body through it. death of her mother, the late Mrs. Mary But finally the last customer departed. on both villagers and country iscople. and Ben, switching off the lights from the front windows, prepared to close the > "Always sweep the last thing at night," was Mr. Wade's standing order, and one that a clerk in his employ was not likely to forget, for he repeated it al- a register. most daily, "When you do that," Mr.

from his home in England telling him still had a four mile walk before him, for At that moment the single street lamp Then hot for your brekfast, and of the death of his brother, Charile, who he was going home to remain until Sun- within his range of vision through the was accidently killed while out shooting. day night. He had told Mrs. Wade—he store windows showed a hurrying figure Mr. Stanley Coates, of Orillia, was in boarded at his employer's house in the —probably that of some belated villager Oh! it's soon with my team I'll be turnin' town last Wednesday to attend the Pire- village-not to expect him, and had plan- on his way home.

"I can get Steve up to let me in, by The Young People's Society numbering rattling his bedroom window," he said the passer-by did not hear him, for over one hundred enjoyed a skating party to himself. "If we're quiet, father and he disappeared without eevn turning his at the rink on Monday evening, follow- mother won't know I'm there till I come head. The store was so long and thickly And the furry and read. ing which they met in the Sunday down to bankfash and the first win the damaged, and the driver escaped with ran up the stairs and selzed the broom. In spite of his weariness he swept vigorously, and in half an hour had finishcd his work. "Almost midnight," he muttered, "but anyone should come near,

Mrs. H. Theobald attended the funeral started for the door; then he stopped succeeded in throwing it that far,—even old friends of over sixty years ago. of the late Mrs. A. W. Ledger, at Ingle- abruptly. Mrs. Pearcy, of Toronto, is visiting forgotten to close the drafts! It's lucky strike.

down in the meantime." daughter and Mr. Carter, of Brampton, draft came up through the floor at the the store would alowly cool off. rear of the dry-goods counter. As he hurried toward them. Ben tripped over "It's smother or freeze for you, I'm afraid, Old Man's' notes respecting the old Sons week's holidays with her brother and Chuckling at the thought, he forgot near the corner of the front steps. How he show where they stood in the matter of peaceful, health-giving sleep and freehis momentary irritation. The store- had got there Ben did not know, for liquor for a beverage. Those opposed dom from daily irritation—that's why Dr. Prom funds raised at various enter- room was in the corner toward which the second before the sidewalk had seem- to them said this would never do, for all Southworth's URATABS give such wontainments, the teachers and pupils of he had headed, and he quickly made ed utterly empty.

t topple over and fall. Again he chuckled. "That's not up the window. But the light missile travel- lines. to the Wade level of orderliness," he said ed scarcely half the distance; striking "But I must bring this rambling note authoress in this locality sailed from pick up the broom. He had just touch- noislessly on the counter.

along two sides still further reduced the silence for several minutes.

knee while tobogganing at the Central The young clerk paused and tried to he should adopt, and as the man stole school and Miss Hilds Smith fell while think out the situation clearly. Mrs. into the room he shouted: before breakfast time on Monday. Even ary's smothering.

of, the prevailing epidemic of colds and cd to start an investigation before noon. the floor where the cool air was rush- vayancing." His parents knew nothing of the visit ing in.

tion is estimated at $5,000.—Reformer. Of course a person could survive with- nothing.

Hurriedly throwing several bundles of "Don't forget to sweep the last thing paper and goods on the floor, he stepped to-night, Ben!" he called. "And see upon the pile and fumbled for the catch that Dickle has plenty of seed and water of the transom. The iron was so rustbefore you leave. My goodness! I've ed that he could not move it with his got just seven minutes in which to catch hands, but a few blows with the tack that train! Good-by! I'll be back on hammer loosened it; then Ben turned the 2.14, Monday, sure. Good-bye, Ben!" the little sash at right angles in the Now he no longer felt in danger of suffocating; but he was no nearer getting out of his prison than before. The It seemed to Ben that trade never had opening of the transom was so narrow been so brisk as it was between half that even if he could get the sash out! past eight and eleven o'clock that night, which was doubtful, he could not force Thrusting his face against the slit he filled his lungs with the outside air. For some reason it seemed singularly unrefreshing. Again he drew in his breath, and then, raising his hand, held it before the opening. The air was almost as warm as if it were coming through God prosper you, same as He's prosper-

He reflected that at the height-only Wade would explain, "the dust settles two feet below the celling-the air would during the night, and the next morning be much warmer than the floor; and Oh! you can take a cloth and have every- then another reason for the unnatural thing clean and bright as a new pin warmth flashed into his mind. The fur-His Honor Judge Elliot held Division in fifteen minutes. Nothing disgusts me nace, piled with coal, was drawing at court in the town hall here on Monday, more than to go into a shop in the full head, and must already be getting when a number of cases were heard and morning and see a broom stirring up red inside the asbestos filling. What if The green in the woods, and the birds dust that settles over everything in the it set fire to the building while he was daughter, Semina, and Mrs. Riches left slovenly proprietor. Sweep at pight and on Saturday by motor for Plorida, where dust in the morning, is the rule of cleanhis scalp prickle; he was sure that his

> Ben shouted wildly, and the walls of the storeroom reverberated; but evidently putting away the money and locking the have been heard in the street. There was no longer a night watchman in the village, for the trustees had MAJOR LACHLAN GRANT APPRECIabandoned that means of protection as too expensive a luxury. Ben could only service truck to get the milkman out and, leaving the drafts temporarily wide depend on chance way-farers' bringing him relief, and he doubted that another ing, for it must be after one o'clock now. However, he determined to watch and to do his best to give an alarm if He had the tack hammer, and he > forgotten to close the drafts! It's lucky strike.

>
> I remembered, or there wouldn't have Suddenly Dickie began to twitter the quilting and paring bees, or the old-plaintively and to flutter about in his fashloned raffle for turkeys, geese, ducks Bladder Weakness perhaps the building would have burned cage. He was evidently getting restless and chickens. in the heat. Ben thought the tempera-The chains that operated the front ture would raise for an hour or two long- the Iriah liked the Scotch, and the Scotch damper of the furnace and the check er. Then, if the old furnace held out, liked themselves, at least to far as liquid "Poor Dickie!" Ben said to himself.

something that leaned against the count- and I guess I'm not much better off!" of Temperance and their activities. I of Harriston, are visiting with her par- er, and nearly fell headlong. Recover- What was that? Por a second Ben wender if you know that those old staling himself, he reached down and grasp- thought he heard the crackling of fiames warts-John Speight, John Warren and all night and restrict up once from Blad-Miss Margaret Bingham has returned ed the broom that he had placed there in the cellar, and he hald his reath to chers—advocated just about what we der Weakness and Irritation.

In the cellar, and he hald his reath to chers—advocated just about what we der Weakness and Irritation.

Ilsten. No, the sound same from outside, have now in the Liquor Control Act, so The daily annoyance, restless nights of misery backness and peryons irritabilwith her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. "I'll forget my head next!" he cried, and probably it was only the wind, or far as personal privileges are concerned. misery, backaches and nervous irritabilin vexation. "If Mr. Wade knew I'd the footsteps of a stray dog or cat prowl- Their proposal, to be exact, that that lity that result from Bladder Troubles are Then the boy saw some one standing have a license and wear a button to which is now in the school.—Advocate. , cd the broom behind the door, and heard The figure disappeared, and Ben in

P! Chisholm in Oakville during the lat- the second, his arm came in contact pane in the front door. How long the is true, but sure. I was talking to my ter's absence for several months in Call- with the back of the door, and the face had been there before he saw it camp cook, Billie Edge, the other day. I Dr. W. E. Galile, well-known to many

Still rubbing his head, Ben set up features instantly. The rays from the four,' I think he said. 'How do you ac-Oakvilleltes has been appointed consult- the broom properly, brushed the knees street lamp, streaming across them, show- count for this great age?' I asked him. ing surgeon to the Department of Pens- of his trousers, and then reached for cd the broken nose, the low forehead 'Well,' he said, 'I ham an Hinglishman, a he remembered that there was neither released from jail loss than a fortnight The heavy iron beams to lengthen the knob nor latch on this door; it fasten- before; indeed, Burns had passed much

A. E. Earle and Misses Earle left last space in it. On those shelves were Burns had evidently heard something at the next meeting he preferred a charge week for Plorida where they will spend ranged rolls of wrapping paper, piles of and was suspicious, but he had not idenpaper sacks, a box of tools and a quan- tifled the source or nature of the sound. Article 2 of the Constitution; or, in Councillor and Mrs. Jarvis have taken lity of unmarked goods. Very seldom At last he produced a chisel or some other words, "with getting tight while ance of the winter."

At last he produced a chisel or some other words, "with getting tight while he was a Son of Temperance"?

Ell Spyder, Edward Moore, Charles upon leaving the store Mr. Wade, if he wood about the pane of glass. To steady Ell Snyder, Edward Moore, Charles Alex. McDonald, a boy of nine years, were the last to go, invariably pulled the door, the man presently clutched Dean, Benjamin Nicklin and Alex. Brown slipped on the ice at the Brantood it shut. Ben was not so particular, the handle with his other hand. His were appointed an Investigating Comschool on Wednesday afternoon and fall- He could not remember ever having clos- grasp released the latch, and the door mittee, and at the next meeting brought returning home from the high school.— Wade certainly would not expect him before Sunday night, and would not I didn't think anyone ever would hear! by Charles Symon, seconded by Lachlan Grant, that we purchase the lot next to begin seriously to wonder at his absence Set down the cage first, please; the can- Grant, that we purchase the lot next to Miss Gemmell, of the public school fy her that the store was not open, here?" the man asked. But he quickly move the Temperance Hall, for $35.00.

that length of time; but would the air when he had regulated the draft by get that, Jim." Mrs. J. King has returned to her home beginning to breathe with difficulty. A stairs; he carried himself bravely enough, count, and then pressed them upon his teacuer, who accepted the gift with singuat Westover, after spending a few days moment's reflection convinced him that but as a matter of fact he half exwith her daughter, Mrs. Pred Markle, that was merely a trick of his imagina- pected any moment to receive a blow har reluctance, although with many tion; but he realized that in several from behind. The "bad man," however, thanks. When they parted it was at a A Gray Coach of the Toronto Trans- hours he should be facing real peril. | was so surprised by the situation in point more than halfway to the Gris-

an enjoyable party. On account of the le'mielf against it two or three times. They found the door of the funrace uprightly step quite new to him. snow drifts the merry-makers did not But the stout door, which opened in and the first length of the smoke pipe | Ben told the story to his parents the Turning to the box of tools, he grop- the fire another shaking and had bank- "What, Jim Burns!" his mother cried, his health, which has been very poor now remembered, were in the back room, "I guess you would 'a' been burned up plied, smiling. "I think so much better since the time he suffered from the flu, where he had opened a box that even- if I hadn't," the man declared. "I of him than I ever did before that I'm thought I heard somebody a-yelling and going to putty up that front sash and friends will hope for a speedy and com- As the boy swung about, almost in a-yolling, but I couldn't tell where for stain it before Mr. Wade has a chance, plete recovery. He expects to be away despair, his glance fell upon a feeble the longost time. I was just going home, to look it over and draw his own confor two or three weeks.—Champion. bar of light that seemed to penetrate but I hung round to try and find out clusious." - passed away.

And yit, dead and burried, they's blos- same, soms of May Ore theyr medderland graves So, friends of my Whether truent in city or

While your past hain't despised or in' me.

And our glorious youth it departs-

As the glory's of Nachure so fare,-With the spring in the breeze, and the to, and Bro. Lachlan Grant seems to Whilse the sun shoulders up Ore the tops of ATES "THE DLD MAN" THE PARE PARES editor handed me the following note the other day from my esteemed friend of the early days, Lachie person would pass the store before morn- Grant, now of Georgetown. Lachie spent some of his very happiest days in Acton: "Tell the 'Old Man of the Big Clock resume of the life of my old and very he had sought other help. Years of dear friend, the late Alexander Waldie. Drawing on his overcoat and cap, he decided that if anyone passed he would I was well acquainted with him since using this wonderful remedy at the first Drawing on his overcoat and cap, he decided that it anyone passed in was well acquainted with him and turned off the rest of the lights and hurl it at the front window. If he 1864. The biography calls to mind many lits cost in slight, and it can be purchesit it did not break the glass,-a per-"That furnace!" he exclaimed. "I've son outside could hardly fail to hear it still linger fond memories of the evenings "Nearly all of them are gone, but there ed almost anywhere.

> "It was quite evident in those days that refreshments represented them. every man who wanted a drink should who wanted drinks under these condi- derful satisfaction. tions would either go to Dunc. Stewart's desperation hurled the hammer, toward at the corner of the second and check obtainable from your druggist for inex-Miss Maro de la Roche, well-known to himself, and he stepped inside to a pile of dress goods it dropped almost to a close. When I begin to think about No matter what your age may be or Mr. and Mrs. A. Melville Munro will his head against a shelf. The blow hurt, passed, and then he suddenly saw a face Billie Edge, John Walters, and others, cost of very first box if you are not well and he stumbled forward and bumped intently at the window. Pive minutes other really old fellows: Alex. Waldie, Deaceful, unbroken sleep, try URATABS occupy the splendid home of Mrs. C. and as he straightened up, dazed for peering in at the lower corner of the John Walters still goes about, slowly, it pleased!

> of this reacuer; he almost preferred to with his old officer, Lieut. Alex. H. Brown, same meeting. Does he remember that in a report to the effect that the charge was sustained, and the delinquent brother was expelled.

the Wesleyan Methodist Church, on teaching staff, is down with an attack she might not become sufficiently alarm- unbooked the bird cage and placed it on and that this Division pay for the con-

15, the cold weather having set in, and the hall not yet having been moved to a pocket, but he pretended to notice was unlocked; in fact, I guess I did Miss Lillian White visited friends in cut food or water for much more than "Come on down cellar," the boy said, "Well, you got me out; I'll never for-when Ben last saw him, and with a jut the time! I should have expected form in front," Luchlan promptly set to work and completed the Job assigned film, and at the next meeting, on the 22nd, fast, it was moved and seconded. "that Bro. L. Grant receive from the funds the sum of $4.20 for banking the hall and fixing 'the' platform," and Lachlan was so paid.

The Major was evidently interested b the young folks away back there in 1870, on he is now. At the sante meeting it was moved by Lachlan Grant, seconded by John Bpcight, that a public meeting. under the auspices of this Division beheld next Monday evening for the purpose of organizing a section of the Cadets of Temperance-boys of fourteen cars.and over.

This junter order was instituted and numbers of present day stalwarts among the ranks of prohibitionists of this community became members of the Cadets. which were under the supervision of the cld Division of the tions of Temperance f Acton. In those early days the Bons of Temperance had two annual public functions which appealled to the countryside. One was the strawberry festival, held or

Dominion Day-July 1-and the other i

Boffee, held some time during Christmas week. On December 6, 1870, the following resolution was carried; Moved by Bro. L. Grant, seconded by Bro. B. W. Nicklin, and resolved, that this Division hold a Grand Boireb on the evening of Monday, December 20, 1870, and that speeches, singing, and such other entertainment as will be profitable to the interests of temperance, be secured for the occasion, and that committees the admission fee was 25c for the supper, the speeches, the singing, and all the other entertainment, and the total recelpts of the evening were $51.0214. The cost of the provisions, the literary and musical entertainment and $3.03 paid to James Innis, of the Guelph Mercury for bills, totalled $20.58, leaving a ne financial gain of $22.34%.

be appointed forthwith to carry on the

But there were other entertainments ! addition to the two fixed events referred have had his finger in these as well as And the hum of the bees ev'rywhere! the others. On January 17, 1871, it was moved by Bro. L. Grant, seconded by Bro. Edward Nicklin, that we hold an anniversary gathering on Pebruary 21, to commemorate the organization of the Bons of Temperance, and that the Division supply the provisions.

The motion was carried, but a rider stipulated that the provisions for the function consist of sandwiches, bread and butter, one kind of cake, and tea. It was also provided that the members of the newly-organized Cadets of Temperance be admitted for ten cents, and that children not Cadets be admitted for 15c. The anniversary gathering was held.

be plow, and was quite successful, but I can find Christmas Bolrec. Au revolr, for another week.

ful user of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy finds it the only remedy that Fower' that I very much appreciate his will give relief though for thirteen years endless suffering may be prevented by Getting-Up-Nights Quickly Relieved!

CANADIAN Used by Doctor For Many Years BRAN SHORTS

wrecking the lives of thousands who pensive home use, have brought quick

Carroll's Creamery

BUTTER

Creamery, per lb. 45c

rendered, 3-th, parl $30

Carroll's Wrapped

BREAD

and butter Enjoy this better-baked loaf 9c

fresh-milled, 5 lba... ZJc

Garm Maal, heart of the Corn Meal, yellow gold,

Pot Barlay, best quality,

Springbank Club

Doctors prescribe it for

DRY GINGER ALE

children and grown-ups.

A fine Dry Ginger Ale at exceptional low price.

Carton of the bottles for

Corn Syrup, Bechive.

Pure Maple Syrup,

Pencake Flour, Aunt

Galdan Syrup, Lyle's Imported, 2-lb, tin 24c

Jemima, pkg 17c

In your Puddings

SUNMAID

NECTARS

The delicious grape.

like seedless raisin.

2 pkgs. 27c

Makes you love bread

Lard, finest fresh-

Crisco, 1-lb tin

Rolled Oats, finest

Freshly - churned, pas

No Doubt About this famous Cereal

High value at low cost Ideal for Winter with hot milk Proved by 34 years of growing popularity Made by The Canadian Shredded Wheat Company, Ltd.

Constant daily testing and blending of the world's choicest teas give Red Rose Tea its inimitable flavor and never-varying goodness. Every package guaranteed.

TEA"is good tea"

RED ROSE ORANGE PEKOE is extra good

J. Cadesky OF TORONTO EYESIGHT SPECIALIST

WILL BE AT A. T. BROWN'S DRUG STORE, ACTON Monday, Febuary 4 Anyone suffering from Eyestrain, Defective Vision or Headache should not miss the Treatment to constitute the ments they be made with Mr. A. T. Brown, Drugglat. CONSULTATION FREE Office Hours 9 a. m. till 4 p. m.

Agenta

for

WHEAT

POOL

Bring Your

WHEAT

OATS

BARLEY

Here - Take

FEED

Back-We

Will Truck if

Preferred

W. B. BROWNE & Co.

Millers and Grain Merchants-Norval, Ontario

NATIONAL NORVAL For Pastry KING'S CHOICE

WONDER For Bread

MIDDLINGS Chopped Wheat Barley, and Chicken Feed

At the Mill

CONSULT OUR NEAREST DEALER

New York last Thursday and will spend the handle with his extended fingers. Although he felt almost sick with distlinem, you'll be calling me an old fellow. Italy.

New York last Thursday and will spend the handle with his extended fingers. Although he felt almost sick with distlinem, you'll be calling me an old fellow. Without success, if you want to forget you have a Bladder and enjoy the rest of your have a Bladder and enjo

Boyst Girls!

FREE!

Scribbler absolutely free with every tin of

Day & Martin's English Shoe Polish One

acribbler with one tin

for life, two scribblers with two tina for 25c.

Black, tan, brown, redi-

Choicest Bulk

MACARONI

tender-cooking Maca-

rom, ready-cut, shell

3 lbs. 25c

or alphabet.

Spanish Onions, 3 lbs. 21c

Navel Oranges, Dozen 27c

Skinless Figs, Altex, Tin 17c

Grapefruit, No. 1 tin 15c

Stewing Figs, Fancy, 2 lbs. 19c

Sweet - flavored.

Scribblers

A big, five-cent, lined

Let Us Convince You

One-third of an average household trudget consumed by groceries Do you watch carefully this blg slice of expensed Is your week's grocery account a list of sorings thoughtfully planned or does each item carry of margin of unnecessary expense!

turiety or quality It simply mount buying where your dollar regularly buys the most-of Carroll's.

Saving on processes doesn't mean curtoiling on either Special-Upton's Red Plum or Greengage 40°0z. Jar

Iceberg Lettuce, 3 for 25c Schapp's Fancy Medium Shred

Seedless Grapefruit, 4 for 25c Special-Aylmer 2 battles et

Durham Corn Starch, Package 9c Lushus Jellies, 3 Packages 32c Special-CHOICE VALENCIA

Raisins 2168.23° Loganberries, No 2 tin 25c

Special-Comfort, Somme or N. P. SOAP 10 Bars 44° CODFISH Acadia Baneless, 1-16.17c GRAPES Fancy Emperors 16. 19c HONEY No. 5 61c

Business Directory

MEDICAL

DR. J. A. McNIVEN .-Physician and Surgeon Office and Residence-Corner How: Avenue and Elgin Bircet. The state of the s

______ HAROLD NASH FARMER, M. A Barrister, Solicitor, Notary Public, Conveyancer, Ele

RRYMAN BLOCK - ACTON, ONT MONEY LENT ON MORTGAGES Hours -9.30 a. m. to 5.00 p. m

F. J. SPARHAM Itarrister, Solicitor, Notary Public OFFICE-MILL STREET, ACTON Next to Baptist Church Hours-0.00 a. m. to 5.00 p. m

Dental Surgeon

PI. TE 29 DR. J. H. JOHNSON, D.D.S., L.D.S

MISCELLANEOUS

Account books of all kinds made to order. Periodicals of every description carefully bound. Ruling neatly and promptly done.

- Guelph, Ont (Over Williams' Store)

R. J. KERR

LIST YOUR PROPERTY WITH ME ACTON ONYARIO

CARD & CO.

Remember: "A Debtor is a Knocker"

COLLECTORS Persistent, Successfult Orangeville, Owen Sound, Gustple Established 1890

If you have money to invest STANDARD ROYALTIES offers one of the safest and best Dividend paying Investments.

about it enquire of H. W. DAWSON P. O. BOX 19, BRAMPTON District Representative of Mid-Continent Bond Corporation.

Underwriters

REPRESENTATIVE

Member Life Underwriters'

Association

Frederick L. Wright Residence - Main Street Phone 102J

It pays to advertise. Since the appearance of our last advertisement, considerable business has been placed

T. G. Ramshaw MILTON AND ACTON

OPTOMETRY It's Value to the Public

HOW COMMON IS

EYE STRAIN It is certain there is more of

JAS. RAMSHAW, Assistant

A. D. SAVAGE Guelph, Ontario

it than the public imagine. It is present in many cases where it is not suspected. No person makes a mistake in undergoing an examination of the eyes, whether or not they seem to need it. And if an unsuspected error of vision is revealed, its correction would be of great beneat to the patient. Our service might help you greatly. To He Continued Next Wes flaturdays--12.00 o'clock.

DR. J. M. BELL, D. D. S., L. D. OPPICE-Mill and Prederick Street

Dental Surgeon Office. Mill E'rect. In the Coope

Hlock.

TELEPHONE 45

Wyndham Street

Auctioneer and Real Estate

GUELPH, ONTARIO

Kelly & Aiken

Dividends are paid regularly every month. If you want to know

Life Insurance! Exclusively

IMPERIAL LIFE OF CANADA

Insurance !

with us Thank you very much