Tragic Ending of Elderly Man

George Dade, Who has been in III Health for Some Time. Ended His Life by Drowning

The life of George Dade was tragically ended by drowning on Saturday last. Por years he has been in poor health and suffering from a lingering illness but up to a few months ago continued at his work at the Hewetton factory. Arrangements were made a month o so ago for his care at the Old People's Home at Brampton, but on his trip to enter this institution admission was refused. He returned to his home and his wife, formerly Mrn. J. Marchment, return d again from the home with relutives see was to have had, and they were apparently fairly comfortable in their home on Wellington Street again, which they owned.

Mr. John M. Warren, Toronto, formerly of Acton, has just been elected for the fourth year a member of the High Behool Board of York Township. He has been a member ever since the Board was organized. During his term two modern High School buildings have been crected. A third, to be erected this year, will have the benefit of his expenience.

A Sleigh-riding Party The Young People's Union of the Baptist Church held an enjoyable sleighriding party to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller at the seventh line. A pleasant social evening was spent in games and contests and bounteous and dainty refreshments served. The Baptist male quartette assisted with the informal programme which was carried

"At a depth of 2,050 feet a fair flow gas was struck by oil well drillers two miles west of Acton, last week. The drilling is continuing in hope of hitting oil. Gas, unless it is a big flow, with high pressure, doesn't mean much."-Milton Champion. Thanks for the advice. We haven't had as much experience up here as you undoubtedly have with high pressure gas.

A Father and Son Banquet Invitations have been issued the past week by the U-Kum Class of Tuxis Boys of the United Church for a Pather and bordin Gibson, the Premier of the Tuxis 510,000 bushels. Boys' Parliament Other local speakers among the boys and parents will have a place on the toast list and a real gettogether of the men and boys of the congregation is anticipated.
