Ford

A Ride Will Prove All That Has Been Said--And More

A single look at the New Ford is sufficient to convince you that it is an achievement in grace, symmetry and beauty. But the most painstaking inspection tells only half the story.

For a more adequate appreciation you must know what this New Car will do. The ease with which it performs every task--its instant response to acceleration--its power on a steep hill--its smooth, positive grip of its four-wheel brakes--the quiet, easy operation of the gears--its riding comfort even on the roughest road.

The New Ford is absolutely without equal in the light car field. Drive it yourself and prove every detail of its performance. We will gladly demonstrate at your convenience.
