ACTON BULLDOG TROOP

The big Conference is over and the "Bulldogs" are certainly justified in claiming for it complete success. The programme was one of instruction and inspiration. It brought together for the first time a representative group of the juntor leadership of Occotting in our district and gave to all concerned a blgger and better understanding of the ideals hat govern our movement.

The Conference opened Priday night, ith . simper held in the Scout Hall, at sideh ... troops of Quelph, Brampton, Georgetown, Norval, Acton, Percus and Oakville were represented. Patro! Leader Arthur Lawson was chalman of the evening and filled his position very creditably. Reeve Mason made an "Address of Welcome" to the visiting Beouts and expressed his appreciation on behalf of the town for the honor done Acton in having the Conference held here. Mr. E. J. Moore of Toronto, was the speaker of the evening and in his unique style of delivery gave the boys some splendid ideas to take home with them and think over. His subject was "Leadership." Then followed a little "get-to-gether" on a few Scouting problems which, with the stighing of the National Anthem closed the Priday session.

Saturday morning was act aside for the visiting of various industries in the town and many of our guests were quite surprized at the amount of business carried on in Acton, considering its population General Interest News

On Tuesday, the 19th, the Ladles' Orvanization of the Presbyterian Church gave an afternoon tea in the Town Hall. Many ladies of the vicinity were invited and a pleasant social function was enjoyed by all present. A good programme was given of music, readings, and a comic hat display, the chief interest surrounding the buyer, who was hard to please. and who regaled the company with sharp and witty criticism, her choice finally settling on the most elaborate and expensive one on the table. After the Struck by a C. P R. freight train as programme the ladies were invited to a
