THE I. O. O. F. AT HOME

Spindly Crowd Assembled in Spite of the Unpropitious Weather Prevailing

The stormy night last Friday possibly somewhat decreased the attendance at the annual function, "The At Home" of Acton Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 204, but a splendid crowd attended. An excellent entertainment and social evening was, however, enjoyed by the brethren of the Lodge and their families and guests. Numbers of the public and friends of Scotch sold by Mr. Hodkin, of shortford—a second Harry Lauder, Mr. Attkinson, entertainer of Toronto; vocal solo by Louis Wilson, and selections by the orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Chas. W. Mason. Miss Jean Orr was the accompanist for the artists of the evening.

Promising the programme lunch was served and a social time spent for a couple of hours on so. Dancing, with the music supplied by Mrs. Bryn and Mrs. Randolph Spiegel and L. O. Lind, proved very popular and a splendid evening of entertainment and sociability was had.
