Let every day be Mother's Day, Make roses grow along her way And leastly everywhere. Oh, never let her eyes be wet With tears of sorrow or regret, . And never cease to eare. Come grown up children, and rejoice That you can hear your mother's voice.

MOTHER'S DAY

A day for her! for you she gave Long years of love and service brave; For you her youth was spent, There was no weight of hurt or care Too heavy for her strength to bear; the followed where you went; Her courage and her love sublime You could depend on all the time.

No day or night the net apart On which to open wide her heart And welcome you within, There was no hour you would not be Pirst in her thought and memory, Though you were black as ain. Though skies were gray or skies were Not once has she forgotten you.

Let every day he Mother's Day! With love and roses strew her way, And kinlles of Joy and pride! Come, grown up children, to the knee Where long ago you used to be And never turn saids, Oh, never let her eyes grow wet With texrs, because her bubes forget.
