DEED
GIBBENS—At his home, Willow street, Acton, on Monday evening, May 27, 1929, John P. Gibbens.

IN MEMORIAM
BONNIE—In loving memory of our dear father, James Bonney, who passed away May 28, 1928.

One year has passed, but still we miss you.
Never shall your memory fade,
Loving hearts will always linger,
Telling the spot where you are laid.

Heartily mixed by
HUI WIFE and DAUGHTERS.

This and That

—June comes again on Saturday.
—Monday will be the King's birthday.
—The past week has been phenomenal growing weather.
—This is apple blossom week for this section of the province.
—A new gasoline tank is being installed this week at Gove's garage.
—May's last day was a real earnest of the good old summer time.
—This is Empire Shopping Week—for us the Empire begins in Acton.
—The June Hydro bills will be the earliest settled of any of the year.
—The first hand concert of the season will be given on Sunday evening.
—The blossoms have made the countryside beautiful the past week.
—June, the month of weddings and romances will be ushered in on Saturday.

—The May flowers are working overtime these days to keep up with the season.
—Nature's new dress is now most alluring. Spring-time garb is always pretty.
—The holiday was an usual a great day for advancing the work in the family garden.

—Just four weeks now until Acton's big celebration and home-coming of the boys and girls.

—Mr. Geo. Bennett and family are back of his lot on Mill Street.

—The Canadian National yards have been given a good coating of broken stones—a decided improvement.

—Mr. Edward Tyler has started his new transport service, which is known as Tyler's Transport Service.

—Every Peax Peax advertisement is a buy home advertisement that means big business for you.

—Mr. Wm. Norton has purchased the lot and residence on Mill Street belonging to the estate of the late Miss Annie Corrigan.

—Preparations are being made to have the leading streets in town treated to a coating of calcium, as a dust preventative.

—The Fairview nurseries have had a busy time the past few weeks supplying the demand for their Acton grown bedding plants.

—A Peax Peax advertiser found a market for a considerable quantity of his seed at Cochrane through a Peax Peax small ad.

—Empire Shopping Week means the purchasing of goods first made in Acton, second in Ontario, third in Canada, and fourth within the British Empire.

—Albert Edward McCabe, blacksmith, a resident of Bolton for the past twenty years, was found dead in his bed one day last week. After an examination by Dr. A. P. Taylor, coroner, it was found that death was ascribed to acute alcohol poisoning.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL CHEQUE ARTIST
Young Woman Victimizes Business Man in Georgetown and Acton

Georgetown and Acton people have shown themselves to be fair marks for the alleged exploits of a young woman of twenty-seven, who succeeded in having worthless cheques cashed right and left during the past month, and packing off the loot last week.

Miss Edna M. Pearen and friend, Miss Gowman, of Dundas, returned to Amherstburg to spend the holiday there.

Her first exploit as a cheque artist was when she went to Mr. V. King and purchased a used Chrysler car for $500. In payment she gave her cheque for $300 on the Hastings Street Branch of the Dominion Bank at Vancouver.

At Georgetown on Monday she went to the manageress of the Carroll Store, told a heart-rending story of her brother being the victim of a serious motor accident at Guelph, and had a cheque for $100 cashed, so that she might get him out of the hospital.

People began to compare notes and as a result Chief Constable Marshall was besieged. He laid a charge of charges before Police Magistrate Moore, Acton, and a warrant was issued for the cheque artist's arrest.
