Acton New in Halton Presbytery At the annual meeting of Hamilton Conterence during the week, in Quelph. the lioundaries Committee, which had ocen considering the re-arrangement of c.c.byteries during the year, presented meir report which was adopted. The new plan arranges for the boundaries so be, as far as possible, the county lines throughout the territory embraced by the conference. Por many years Guelph Discrict has included the Methodist Church at Acton, and Quelph Presbytery included the Presbyterian Church here. Bince the union Acton United Church has seen in Guelph Presbytery. Hereafter Acton will be a part of the new Presbytery of Halton. The churches essociated oy, Ballinafad, Burlington, Churchill-Limehouse, Carlisle, Freelton, Georgetown, Hornby, Lowville, Milton, Millgrove, Norval, Oakville, Plains, Palermo-Bronte, Trainigar, Terra Cotta and Waterdown. The new arrangement will materially change the relationships, and some of the older members will feel
