THURRIDAY, JUNE 13, 1929 TWINKLE, TWINKLE, LITTLE STAR Twinkle, twinkle, little star How I wonder what you are! Up above the world so high. Like a diamond in the sky.

When the blazing sun is gone, When he nothing shines upon, Then you show your little light. Twinkle, twinkle, all the night.

In the dark blue sky you keep. And often through my curtains peop! Por you never shut your eye Till the run is in the sky.

And your bright and tiny spark Lights the traveller in the dark, Though I know not what you ar Twinkle, twinkle, little star.

Chronicles of Ginger Farm
