IN MEMORIAM
CLARENCE—In loving memory of A. A. Clarke, who departed this life June 10, 1920.

God knew that she was suffering,
And the hills were all a-shake,
So he closed her weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."

This and that

Just two weeks until Acton's Big Celebration.
The June Hydro accounts have been a pleasant index to settle.
The rain of yesterday will give vegetation an added impetus.
In just two weeks the celebration will be getting into full swing.
The brick work of the new building of the Hallon Glove Co. is well advanced.
This is circus day in town. And more than the small kiddies are enjoying the time.
The countryside is getting adorned these days with the message of Acton's three big days.
Many of the store fronts and business places have received a brightening up with a new coat of paint.
A number of the Acton Lady True Blues attended the church parade at Glenwilliams Sunday evening.
Tenders for the new skating and curling rink for Acton are being called for and will close on June 27.
The garage of Edward A. Hipkins at Oakville was destroyed by fire of an unknown origin last Saturday afternoon.
The new sign at the C. N. R. advertising Acton's Celebration is a work of artistic sign writing and very attractive.
Send a copy of the special issue of next week's Free Press to your friends. It is the best invitation you can mail them.

The church choir orchestra gave several selections. Short addresses were given by Mrs. Charlotte Hill, Mrs. E. Cree, Mrs. E. Cree, and others, showing the high esteem in which Betty has been held in the Institute and neighborhood. At the close of the programme Miss Lewis was called forward and the following address was given by Miss Edna Russell:
Dear Betty,
It is with mixed feelings that we gather here to-night—growing in that you are leaving your connection with the Bannockburn Women's Institute, and you are entering a new sphere of life, in which you have been associated with us you have spared neither time nor effort to make our work a success, and to uphold the aims of the Institute. We will miss your hearty co-operation but we must not be too selfish and not remember that old adage, "Our loss will be another's gain."
Also we have known your character to be one of sterling worth. The feelings which we entertain for you demand utterance in a most laudable mode of expression than that of mere empty words. We ask you to accept this set of transmitters in appreciation of your good work in the Institute. We hope that you will return to visit this neighborhood frequently and that our pleasant associations may not altogether cease.
Signed on behalf of the Bannockburn Women's Institute,
Mrs. Robert Kerr.
