TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1929

This and That

—August the first.

Civic Holiday on Monday.

Another summer month has gone.

Sunday's showers were indeed welcome.

Just seven weeks until Acton's big Fall Fair.

Plan to celebrate Monday with true civic loyalty.

The Canadian National Exhibition Grandstand stage is 1,000 feet long.

The cost of staging the Canadian National Exhibition annually is $125,000.

The Fall Fair directors are hastening themselves preparing for Acton's annual exhibition.

—Summer's vanity certainly deserves a bumper yield in most all varieties.

And July has come to an end again, verily we are on the toboggan slide toward Christmas.

Peoples generally have been appearing in summer scurries during the dog days of the past week.

Numbers of Sunday picnic parties were caught in the sudden thunderstorm of last Sunday afternoon.

Last week no issue of the Erin Advocate was published as the staff are having the annual holiday.

The Red and White Chain Store of Mr. J. W. Jones is receiving an exterior renovating and painting up.

This is the first of August. Summer is waning. Do you realize that Toronto Exhibition opens in three weeks?

No one has been heard to express a wish for one of those good-old-fashioned hot summers the past week or so.

The showers on Sunday afternoon gave nature hereabouts a much needed drink. The roots especially were benefited.

Over 500 musicians will participate in the Military Tattoo in front of the Grandstand at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto.

A large crew of men have been at work the past few weeks rock ballasting the roadsides of the Canadian National Railways throughout the district.

Mr. W. Cooper has installed a neat new cement and granite sign in the boulevard opposite his store on the Mill and Main Streets corner.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Prodall a picture showing the recent floods in Acton, England, has been exhibited in the window of the Post Office.

Impressions of the Calthampton Parade, exhibited in The Free Press window, and supplied through the courtesy of Mr. W. D. F. Trick, Toronto, have proved very interesting to many of the past week.

At the United Church next Sunday Mr. E. Penny, organist of Jarvis Street Baptist Church, Toronto, will preside at the organ. Mrs. Penny, a soprano soloist in the same church, will contribute solo.

Misses Little and Hazel Mason, of Acton, were members of the Fletcher Laddie Band which fulfilled its engagement at Toronto at the Varsity Stadium, athletic meet, and at Sunnyside Beach on Saturday afternoon and evening.

NASSAGAWAYA

A family reunion was held on Sunday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nightingale of Knatchbull, where all their children but one were home with their wives and husbands and their children. A pleasant time was spent.

Mr. Eddie V. Denton, of Toronto, visited relatives and friends in Nassagawaya over the week-end.

Fall wheat cutting commenced last week in this vicinity. The crop is a fairly good one.

Mr. Neil Patterson of Knatchbull, has quite a number of berry pickers at work on his farm land. The raspberry crop is very good this year.

Mr. George Lamb, of Nassagawaya, town line, near Corwith, is under the doctor's care at present. We hope he may soon be able to be around again.

EVERTON

Mrs. Florence Pearson, of Toronto, is holidaying with her cousin, Mary and Lois Campbell, townswomen.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Robertson, Mrs. C. P. Ross and Mildred motored to Hamilton on Saturday and spent the week-end with friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stewart, of Carmen, Manitoba, called on friends in the village on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hartop, Miss Muriel, Mr. Harry Hartop and Mr. John Pleading motored of Toronto on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Frank and Anna Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. and Mrs. E. Spence, of Toronto; Mrs. T. Atken, Gordon and Helen, of Gaspereau, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McCutcheon. Mrs. Isabel McDougal, of Toronto, is also spending her vacation at the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McKenzie and family and Mr. and Mrs. G. G. of Gaspereau, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Usherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Hunter are spending a few days in Guelph and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stirling with her brother, Mr. Duncan Stirling, at Oakville, who has been ill.

The garden party of last week, under the auspices of the Ladies Junior Institute, was a success and about one hundred and fifteen dollars will be given as a gift to the Keween Cemetery Board for beautifying the same.
