DANIEL AMONG THE LIONS
Golden Text—The angel of Jehovah strengthened Daniel about them that eat him, and delivered them.—Ps. 34: 7.
Lesson—Dan. 6: 1-28.

Little Johnny Johnson playing with matches behind the shed, back of his summer home, didn't know and didn't care anything about the busy business men in the big cities east and west.
Johnny went right ahead and started his fire.

While Johnny was solving out his story to his started mother, a big business executive miles away in the metropolis was placing a memo on his desk pad to call a business associate by long distance morning.

At the same instant the watchmen of the metro were hurrying to the scene of the fire as fast as their feet could carry them. Almost before the fire died down the wires had been applied and communication restored. Long before the stock market opened next morning the business executive had completed his transaction by long distance and a very singing Johnny slept peacefully in his cot.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

From the issue of the Free Press of Thursday, August 12, 1909
The raspberry crop will be finished this week. Berry picking parties have been quite in vogue.

Mr. Tolak, Nelson brought the first load of wheat to the Sibley elevator to-day.
It was a good sample and brought 95c per bushel.

AN INDIAN HEROINE

Capt. John Smith's narrative of his "presidential" escape through the romantic intercession of an Indian princess of Virginia has been made the subject of much incredulous comment, but Miss Francis furnished a similar instance of unquestioned authenticity more than two centuries later. In "Eighty Years in Camp and Field" with Gen. Ethan Allen, Hitchcock, is given her story as it was related to the author by the Indian girl, Milly, herself.

JUST A SCHOOL TEACHER

Still rather new at driving, she piloted the car downtown. On the main stem along the street lights she saw a man confused and shot out into the middle of an intersection on the red.

NEARLY TRUE

With the lecture season in full swing, we are reminded of a certain lecturer who talks about expirations he has made into dangerous lands. Once he held an audience spellbound with the story of a South Sea adventure he told of. "I had in a skirt," he said, "a large and agile python which included a native woman who was in the boat. Another native crew a long knife. "I saw him raise it," said the lecturer. "There was a flash and off fell the python's head. The native had evered it with me blow."
