

The Aton Tree Press

THURSDAY, AUGUST 15, 1929

A SHIP PASSES

July 1 found a little bay. The ship's engine broke at my feet. The moonlight shone on the water. And made my solitude the more complete. And while the sky was filled with morning gold. And while the breeze over sea and shore. Unsmoothly followed slowly handward. And again upon the rocks with wild uproar. And then I knew a mighty ship had passed. Outward on the I might not hear the best. Of throbbing engines, and the ocean vast. Had brought the message surely to my feet. And so, I thought, the mists of life conceal. Creeds of whom mankind has never heard. Yet while we stand in idleness, we feel. A hidden power and are strangely elated.

—H. T. J. Coleman

Menu Hints

Recipes for New and Novel Dishes; Household Ideas and Suggestions

By Betty Barelay

Coffee Hot and Coffee Cold
Almost every one appreciates a good cup of hot coffee. Many, however, do not realize the value of a demijohn of coffee made in the morning and ready to drink in the afternoon when the weather is hot. Coffee is a delicious beverage, highly stimulating and, according to the authorities, is beneficial to the great majority of persons.

DEMI TAZER

Brew the coffee double strength according to your favorite method. Serve in small cups as the first item on the breakfast menu. This is a favorite with many hotels and refined dining cars.

ICED COFFEE

The coffee should be made extra strong and poured while hot into glasses filled with cracked ice. Melting of the ice will decrease the strength of the beverage. Pour cream into the glass to suit the taste. If desired, add whipped cream.

ANOTHER OLD-ACTION FAMILY

I wrote last week about the old village of Moore's farm, and the Moore family, and told about their flour, and the old bake shop, and the threshing and so forth. This week my mind has been revolving about the experiences of another old family, very closely associated with the Moore family, and I have written up a copy of this little volume ever since I knew it had been printed, and I will gladly prize the copy which has come to me.

PEACHES ARE WITH US

Peaches are with us. They are delicious and healthy. Many can pick them from the trees. Others can secure them at slight cost. Here are two novel peach recipes that will bring this peach fruit to you in new form.

PEACH DESSERT

1 package vanilla junket
1 pint milk
1 sliced sweetened peach
Prepare vanilla junket according to directions on package. At serving time garnish ice cold sliced sweetened peaches. A little whipped cream also is very delicious.

PEACH ICE CREAM

4 junket tablets
1 quart milk
1 pint cream
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 sliced, sweetened peach
Warm milk slightly, add sugar and vanilla. Dissolve junket tablets in table-spoon cold water, stir into milk mixture, pour into freezer can and let stand about 20 minutes, until firm. Place can in freezer, pack with ice and salt and freeze to hard consistency. Remove cream, whipped if convenient, and the crushed, sweetened peaches. Finish freezing. Have peaches to serve on top. Strawberries, bananas, pineapple, may be added in this way when making any junket ice cream.

THE SLANG OF THE COUNTRY

The Chinese have so tough a language to speak with at home that it is no wonder they are able to converse in slang and all. While Prince Fu Lan was entertained in New York, the New York Times has a column devoted to a member of his party asked an American what the poorer people here really think of the rich.

THE PRINTER

The printer's calling is a peculiar business in that it is not only a trade but a living. Of course, the first need is to make a living—a most worthy cause, and a more than that is mixed with his trade. There is a spiritual side which elevates the spruened and bedaubed printer to a place among the elect of progress and enlightenment.

SUNDAY VISITORS

How many farm women, I wonder, really enjoy Sunday company in the summer time? Frankly, I believe the number is small. And that is not at all surprising. For, in the busy days of the week, we are so busy that we have no time to visit. In the summer, however, we have a chance to visit. In the summer, however, we have a chance to visit. In the summer, however, we have a chance to visit.

THE MEN OF OLD

I know not that the men of old were better than men now. Of more than kind, of hand more bold. I had not those who pine for force. As if they thus could check the course. Of those appointed days.

MENEMONICS

For reasons of economy, says a contributor to Punch, we get all our supplies from Mogridge's stores. We have no telephone at home, so I ring up Mogridge's when I arrive at my office, and order what we want; the boys there remember. Unfortunately I usually forget. Consequently, it generally ends in a letter to Mogridge's from the office.

ANOTHER OLD-ACTION FAMILY

I wrote last week about the old village of Moore's farm, and the Moore family, and told about their flour, and the old bake shop, and the threshing and so forth. This week my mind has been revolving about the experiences of another old family, very closely associated with the Moore family, and I have written up a copy of this little volume ever since I knew it had been printed, and I will gladly prize the copy which has come to me.

HOW TO KEEP FROM GROWING OLD

Always drive fast out of alleys. Always take with you a bottle of toothbrush. Always keep your car in service. Always lock your brakes when skidding. Always demand half the road—the whole half. Always speed. It shows people you are a man of pep even though an amateur driver. Never stop, look or listen at railroad crossings. It consumes time. Dive confidently, just as though there were not eighteen million cars in service. Always lock your brakes when skidding. Always pass cars on hills. It shows you have more power; and you can turn out if you meet a car at the top. In sloppy weather drive close to pedestrians. Dry cleaners appreciate it. Never look around when you back up. There is never anything behind you.

AN EASY VICTIM

Mr. Mundell lowered his newspaper when he saw the boy. "I have contributed to your fresh-air fund, five dollars, five dollars and five dollars," he said. "I have contributed to your fresh-air fund, five dollars, five dollars and five dollars," he said. "I have contributed to your fresh-air fund, five dollars, five dollars and five dollars," he said.

MYSTERY OF SLEEK

Human beings are said by a physician to be divided into two classes: those who sleep like logs, and those who sleep like cats. The former are the easy victims, and the latter are the sleek. The sleek are the ones who are able to sleep through the most trying circumstances. They are the ones who are able to sleep through the most trying circumstances. They are the ones who are able to sleep through the most trying circumstances.

Fashions for the Smart Woman

Those who love the youthful charm of the bertha collar welcome its triumphant reentry into the fashionable world. For it has returned, to the accompaniment of flattering and dignified designs. In this frock the bertha collar is given a modern interpretation in a downward slanting V-point. This gives a pleasant contrast to the long, slender lines of the bodice, derived from the princess silhouette. That the princess lines are not too severe, the bodice ends in a hop-skip-charming touch. This and the collar keep the frock definitely slenderizing. The skirt is given a modern interpretation in a downward slanting V-point. This gives a pleasant contrast to the long, slender lines of the bodice, derived from the princess silhouette.

PARTY FROCK

Those who love the youthful charm of the bertha collar welcome its triumphant reentry into the fashionable world. For it has returned, to the accompaniment of flattering and dignified designs. In this frock the bertha collar is given a modern interpretation in a downward slanting V-point. This gives a pleasant contrast to the long, slender lines of the bodice, derived from the princess silhouette. That the princess lines are not too severe, the bodice ends in a hop-skip-charming touch. This and the collar keep the frock definitely slenderizing. The skirt is given a modern interpretation in a downward slanting V-point. This gives a pleasant contrast to the long, slender lines of the bodice, derived from the princess silhouette.

THE ROAD TO RUIN

An Englishman on holiday in a small Scottish village was filling in a wet afternoon by chattering to Johnnie, the postman, about the local storekeeper. It transpired that the village was connected with one of the big London stores, and Johnnie showed considerable interest in the proposition. "So you're in want of the big London shops," he inquired. "Yes," said the Englishman. "You'll pardon me asking," said Johnnie, "but what kind of profits can you make on the big London shops?" "Oh," the visitor replied, "profits are made on the big London shops. On some articles ten per cent, on others twenty per cent, and on others twenty-five per cent. Man's it's a war!" "Why, don't you get that here?" "Now," exclaimed Johnnie, "I can get a man to buy a thing for a shilling and sell it for only two when Ah pair it!"

BE CAREFUL OF FIRE

All campers use fire, but unfortunately do not, at all times, remember that it is a good servant but a bad master. The camp fire that tries your morning bacon, giving the air a tang that makes the mouth water, and the evening meal, prepares the mid-day, both your coffee, or your tea, and your evening meal, and it is capable also of destroying your camp and possibly many thousands of dollars worth of timber and pulpwood. It will do this unless it is controlled and guarded with meticulous care. Not only will it destroy your personal effects and tree and plant life, but the bird, game and fish life, which provide the postman with the objective of his gun and tackle, are imperiled. Put out that fire with water before you leave your camp for even a few moments, and watch it when you return. It is a "burning" thing, and it will burn you. Department of Lands and Forests, Ontario.

Good Health So Cheap And So Pleasant To Take

SHREDDED WHEAT

With all the bran of the whole wheat

Two biscuits with whole milk and some fruit, give energy for the hot days and are so easily digested and so full of real nutriment—for breakfast or lunch.

EMPIRE YEAR

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION

TORONTO

August 23 to September 7, 1929

ARRANGE your vacation for the last week in August and the first week in September. Come to Toronto and take part in the spectacular Empire Year celebration of the Canadian National Exhibition. Enjoy a distinctly different, never-to-be-forgotten holiday combining education and recreation at the world's largest annual exhibition—a diversified 14-day program of agriculture, industry, science, music, art, sport, pageantry, entertainment—a vivid, colorful expression of Canadian, Empire and international progress and prosperity.

Reduced railroad, steamship and air fares. Perfect highways. Ample accommodation.

THOMAS BRADSHAW, President

H. W. WATERS, General Manager

WESTERN FAIR

LONDON ONTARIO

Sept. 9th-14th Inclusive, 1929

The Mecca of Western Ontario this year presents a greater exhibition than ever before.

A bigger opportunity for every exhibitor. Greater crowds! Better attractions! An exhibit at the Western Fair builds prestige and carries your name into the hearts of thousands of people.

Special railroad fares to London and return.

Special Light House Show—Sept. 9 to 12 in the New Arena.

Entrance closed August 29th. For further information write: J. H. BAUNCE, President London, Ontario W. D. JACKSON, Secretary

GET OUR PRICES BEFORE YOU BUY TIRES

Tire Costs Reduced!

HERE'S great, big value in new Goodyear tires. This new mileage than ever before. And at extremely low prices. The cost per mile is only a fraction of what you paid a few years ago. Now is the time to buy Goodyears. If your size and type isn't listed here, ask our price.

30x3 1/2 Tires from $6.65 to $10.30

All Firsts

20x4.0 Tires from $9.00 to $11.50

29x4.75 Tires at $14.50

31x5.00 Tires at $16.00

H. A. COXE

Chrysler, De Soto, Plymouth Cars

PHONE 66 ACTON, ONTARIO

A child can see the difference between Superiors—and ordinary cars

WEIGH THE EVIDENCE

BEFORE you buy any car, be sure you have all the evidence. Check and weigh any car in the low-priced field against the value you know you can get in the Outstanding Chevrolet.

A smooth, powerful six-cylinder, valve-in-head engine, capable of amazing performance in all gears, instantly responsive to acceleration, unsurpassed in economy and dependability.

A sturdy chassis, built for endurance with heavy, channel-steel frame, complete high-pressure lubrication, long semi-elliptic shock-absorber springs, silent four-wheel braking system with independent emergency brakes.

Bodies by Fisher that reflect the latest Vogue in style and coloring; luxurious in finish and appointments; interiors carefully hand-crafted; some panelled instrument board, indirectly lighted.

Prices so low, they are within reach of all. See Chevrolet. Drive it. Make it your standard of comparison.

Ask about the GMAC Deferred Payment Plan

The Outstanding CHEVROLET

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS OF CANADA, LIMITED

J. N. O'NEIL & SON

ACTON GEORGETOWN MILTON

THE WESTERN FAIR AND ITS CANADIAN