On, on, they led me through the storied past; Dreaming, I saw, as in a crystal clear, The glorious pageant of each bygone -Wrom savdge wigwam to the Prontenac, Quest-house of half the world, was but Dimmed not the purchas and death Below the Citadel I watched the gleam, The widening wonder of fit. Lawrence And, as I pictured paddling voyageum, quay; 6wilt as a gulf, lean, slient, grey, An ocean liner steamed to open seal City of age and youth whose hills en-A new world's stronghold Could Champlain see twould seem

Ills dream's fulfilment far outs ion th

Chronicles of Ginger Farm

Written Specially for The Free Press by JUDY O'GRADY days past there has been rain, rain to Thad thought of his spotless serge the left of us, rain to the right of us, suit, and hesitated. man to welcome such tempestuous storms make it a dollar." as there have been in many districts. Much as we needed rain I must confess I was really frightened when the storm started. Is there anything to compare your money." with the elements for proving how in-the force of mature! Storms are bed rinte and bred that rope. Lively !- I there are few who would welcome a very minute." repetition of our recent experience. Strange to say we knew nothing about the earthquake until we saw an account bed and asleep but very much up and the first barrel. out, and for that reason I suppose well falled to notice it, there not being any dishes to rattle outside or furniture to start excursions on its own. We very well remember the last quake in 1925, so we' were not seriously upset at missing this one, and yet, somehow, one feels rather feel that way about a good many things -the war, for instance. I did not enjoy it by any means, and I never want to set another but yet I am glad, if it had I remember a young friend of mine the sill. The rope sling was sent down being gaked about his experiences in the on the fall to Gowen.

even three!" farming. The same brand of misfortune Lane, bobbed a steady stream of um- Pascination held his eyes glued to the from year to year would become mon- brellas. erashoppers and cophers. Here it has us, say if we will-"And yet the menace of the years Pinds, and shall find me, unafraid."

Just at present the "menace of the 'yelled. "Oct a move on!" years" don't worry me half so much as' they all come from, I can't imagine, but fastened the two ends together. there seem to be nests all over the farm. Partner is the most recent sufferer. His shouted Gowen. and gives him a decidedly bibulous and Bure, 'tis square as a brick!" pearance. And the fites, I can't get on They sent the sling down for the aprayed the rooms until the air was affected of the pulley block. thick with fly-poison. After the dead | Gowen hurriedly along the last cask, files were swept up and burnt there was and shouting. "Up with it, boys!" sprang into the eighth-story window. a busing and whirring goes before me down the street. one might imagine I had set up a covey Thad and Terence surged down on of pheasants. straight, out to the hen-house and I and began to fuss over his engine. have tramped it and fed on it until in to the window, was pulling out! The you ever the that kind of a square knot places there was nothing left to cut, now projecting rope ends were already apyou are helping yourselves to the choicest pallingly short. If the cask fell, it meant Job ed -his vocabulary of complimentary lane.

To encourage them I painted the was in his throat. and then proceeded to gather the eggs pull quickly and grasp the rope above which were not all in the hen-house, far the knot. from it. One in a nest in the weeds, one

Did you ever know anything in con- was thrown on Thad. tiave a certain conceit in ourselved to falling barrel.

of leaser falth? IT WORKED ALL RIGHT

whiatle, why didn't you go? The Girl Driver: You whistle so beautifully I just had to stop and listen.

________ SOME CALL

I think we re going to hear it, wo.

Ble: Can't you feel the can of the

The Free Press Short Story

THE CRANNY KNOT

ALHERT W. TOLMAN

from his early luncheon. Black, angry thunderclouds hung over the city, and big drops were already spattering narrow Chancery Lane. Rounding a corner, he came suddenly

-on an-automobile-truck-that-was loaded with lime; it was backed up against And the old "Royal William" at her the rear of a partly completed brick office building. Beside it a short stout, middle-aged man in shirt sleeves was talking excitedly. A broken-brimmed, lopelded straw hat covered his gray hair. and his unshaven face was read and per-

A lime cask lay on its bilge in a rope sling, hooked to a fall running straight up to a block awang below a girder end that projected from the roof, eight stories above. The other end of the fall was held by a bareheaded young man with a heavy shock of black hair. He was staring down from the glassless opening of a window on the fourth floor, When Thad appeared, an expression of relief came to the stout man's face.

"Hey, lad, hold up a minute, will you?" Thad stopped. "I'm Gowen, the plasterer, and I've contracted to finish some extra partition on that fourth floor. Those cloud botliable to drop out any minute, and I everywhere except o'er head of us, has, "Ah, come on, now! It won't hurt I don't suppose it is in the nature of of a tight place yourself some time. I'll

> A rain flurry aprinkled the lime casks. "We'll see about the money. I'll hook

but an earthquake is worse and I suppose due in at least three other places this Thad was doon on the fourth floor. his sleeves and took hold of the rope retreat from Mons and I heard him say. Four more casks came up rapidly. through it again for two thousand or a little clumsy. It was now almost one measure of his life. o'clock, and the rain was coming down That, too, is my attitude in regard to smartly. Below them, through Chancers up he went-higher, higher, higher, otonous but variety lends a spice of ' As they pulled in the fifth barrel, Thad adventure. From the time we started noticed a badly frayed spot in the fall it was only a yard-two feet-one-a we have sure had lots of variety. In the just above their hands. Terence agreed West we lost crops from drought, hall, that it would be unsafe to hoist the last cask without making repairs. They been drought, hall, floods or backward drew down more rope, and Thad, with seasons. Lots of variety-yet, but its all his knife, out out the short section that never allow that heavy barrel to make attentive and cheerful manner ir. the day's work. We can, each one of was tudly worn. The big drops were street Gowen was dancing up and down excitedly. "What are you about up there?" he Thad thrust his head out the menace of the bumble-bees. Where window and explained, while Terence natural beauty is temporarily marred by As Terence finished his work, he tested barrel off the ground. It was not a Agent of Canadian National Railways. a sting near one eye which has swollen it with a hard pull. "Square knot it is! difficult feat, for they had only to lift with my work for chasing them! Yes- time. Thad watched the knot go up balanced by Thad's weight. terday I mended several holes in the until-it stopped-two, or three inches

If you'll believe me, they are just as thick was, already cranked. The moment the as ever. If I walk into the kitchen such barrel rose clear of the truck he started full, and up came the barrel. An un-Then the hen-house-really, it is most broken string of umbrellas crowded discouraging the different insects we Chancery Lane. Over the low wooden have to contend with. One day last building opposite Thad and Terence week I read in the paper the price of could look down on the main street. eggs would zoon be so high it would be They saw Gowen's motor car whirl into almost out of sight. After dinner I went sight and stop. Out leaped the plasterer had an honest-to-goodness heart to heart. The cask had reached the third story. talk with our feathered friends. "Now when suddenly the rope gave a little. look here," I said, "here is a field of What was the matter? Thad glanced came near being a mighty expensive barley right next to your very door. It is up and uttered a yell of consternation, granny for you and me. Well, I didn't registered, O. A. O. No. 21 seed, yet you The knot, which had come down almost ears in the stooks. Partner has exhaust- death to some one in that thronging terms, so now it is up to you to be good "Pull! Pull!" he screamed to Terence. sports and lay, what may prove to be They gave a mighty wrench and the least I can do. You did me a good turn. the golden egg or eggs as the case may barrel leaped upward, but even as it did and it came near coating you dear. I to the rope yielded again. Thad's heart don't like to think of what would have roosts with coal oil, sprayed the walls. The cask hung just below the sill. The and floor, but nice clean straw in the knot, now almost pulled out, had come boxes and dusted them well with powder in sight. The only thing to do was to

"Once more!" in the reservoir of an old stove in the Down swayed the knob of hemp, close manufacturer packed it in a rough, - and we had to let the waiter bring words. When the shaking moderated, wood-shed, two in the horse stable, one a to Thad's hands. As he caught the fall oblong box and checked it as a corpse, what he liked. We had three or four he began again, pouring forth a stream long way back in the alsike mow, three above it, the sections suddenly fell apart. At the first stop he went ahead to the courses, but it was more like picking of vituperative denunciation enlivened under the old fanning mill and the rest. With a cry of alarm Terence toppled baggage car to see that there was no than eating; there were a small place of with uncomplimentary simile to hogs. strange to say, were in the hen-house, over backward, clinging to the lower trouble lie stood by the box in a dis- ham, some pieces of chicken, a cup of "divils," "sarpents," and other unpleasing piece, and the whole weight of the lime consolate attitude and shaded his eyes coffee and a slice of bread. Then came creatures. When this ceased, the shaknection with farming unattended by He clutched the rope desperately with sympathetic. "A relative?" he asked. those twin harbingers of Pate-"If" and both hands, but the barrel was too heavy | "Yes, it's my brother."

"nerhans"? He that as it may, it doesn't and had gained too much headway to do to get discouraged or to lose faith be stopped. Before Thad could decide ain't in no trunce." in our ability to contend with obstacles, what to do, he was snapped off his feet There is always something fresh cropping and jerked through the open window up, perhaps something to deal with that "Look out below!" he shricked, as he TRAVEL LUXURY SUPREME ON THE BL. Andrews," said I. We have never done before and we must was drawn upward by the weight of the tackle the unknown and then-the With a desperate kick he stabled his harder the battle the greater the victory, too under the top of the window frame Class enclosed Bunroom, through the inth I always love the spirit of the boy who and brought himself to a stop. Ter- splendid Club-Lounge, with its Boda was saked if he could play the violin, once, who had now regained his feet, Pountain and Radio; through the Com-He answered, "I don't know, I've never sprang upon the sill and made a clumsy partment-Drawing Room-Standard Sleep- lesson to you to keep out of such places," breath to protest fried!" Sublime conceit, of course, but grab at Thad's feet; but instead of ing Cars, Dining Cars and Day Coaches, I added. cannot you imagine that boy climbing accurring a hold, he dislodged the toy's the art of the interior decorator has leaving far behind his fellow-competitors. Then Terence thrust his steel hook the new equipment now being operated into the fold at the bottom of Thad's on the "International Limited," between forget the waiter, please," he said. trougers. The sharp point held for a Montreal and Chicago. Equipment and moment only before it ripped out. Thad service that provides the utmost in rebegan to move rapidly up the brick wall. finement, case and gratification in all "Porget yel" he said. "I'll never forget a glimpe of white faces gazing up at Journey.

Traffic Cop: Hey! When I biew my He looked downward and caught just departments continuously throughout the ye til my dyin' day; and what's mair him from under tilted umbrellas in | Whethen business or pleasure makes it Chancery Lane. Gowen had seen the necessary for you to travel to Montreal accident from Main Street, and was or to Chicago, why not try this latest in A Branche.—To have the Oil speaks volumes for its healing efficrunning toward the building. But what travel luxury—the "International Limit- carache is to endure torture. The car is lency. Ever since it was first introduced could be do? What could anyone do? ed" leaves Toronto for Montreal every a delicate organ and few care to deal it has grown steadily in public favor In a flash Thad realized his peril. As morning at 9.00 a. m. (standard time), with it, considering it work for a doctor, owing entirely to its manifold-usefulness the cask approached the ground, he and for Chicago every evening at 6.60 Dr. Thomas Electric Oil offers a simple in relieving and healing sickness. As a truck; now the truck was not there. The tegether we shall cross the floor to him, of 40 pounds per steer per day at the compressed air at a pressure of about on the pavements. That did not care cask would have at least thirty inches and I shall speak the words of presentation, the period, the amount being thirteen pounds to the square inch. This farther to drop before it struck the termination on the Emperor has replied, reduced at the rate of one pound per held the might of the river-bed back, and oil street and took a short cut through ground, and that extra distance would ye I will say your say in English, address- week until the completion of the feeding enabled the four men who worked out inevitably snatch the rope end through ing it to me, and I will repeat it to the period. Lot II.—Eweden were fed at the there to do so in comparative safety. the block. Thad's fingers would be El orer in German. His Majesty will rate of 20 younds per day, reduced by Back of them was another air-chamber drawn into the sheave, crushed, broken, the reply to me in German, and I will ene-half pound per week until the end where other men worked under pressure. stripped from the rope-he would be translate his reply to you." hurled eighty feet straight down to the "Is that all there will be to it? Shan't with swedes at the rate of 15 pounds river-bed and air escaped Dwhen a bad brick pavement of Chancery Lane. All that flitted through Thad's brain with visible disappointment. as he swung rapidly up the red wall. That will be all. And don't offer to potatoes at the rate of 25 pounds per the workers before they can get out. midway between two lines of windows, shake hands. That would be an un- steer per day throughout the feeding One day in March, while Cregan and > an effort to thrust his toe under the palace. Between double lines of guards, some way of stopping that barrel before t reached the ground! keep his grip.

against the rainy, black sky. The creak- with my speech?" mingled with that sound was the noise Emporer had said, "Tell Mr. Clemens completion of the test. stairs; but Thad was rising much faster my library." than Terence could climb.

But what use was it? He was passing between the windows He took off his coat and hat, rolled up of the seventh floor; his last chance had 'Innocents Abroad'.'

Before long the cask had risen above second it seemed that his hands would. The humorist was by this time in which the block awang was not directly he coud only hang there long chough the author was at times almost concealed to good-grade beef steers. for Terence to reach him!

On a sudden his toe came away, and much satisfaction. block, which was equealing flendishly as it devoured the shortening rope. Now matter of inches.

their hold he would never let go. Suddenly, with a little joit, he stop- in travel comfort. "Be sure you tie a square knot!" Chancery Land, eighty feet below, stood monton and Jasper.

> hard enough to take care of that part of the weight of the cask that was not The rest was easy-another rope was Thad felt weak. He collapsed or floor as Gowen and the other man came hurrying up the stairs. "What kind of a knot did you tie. Terence?" demanded the plasterer. . "A square knot, of course." Gowen pulled in more rope, and then ate:

ut off a plece. "Tie me another." Terence began to make a knot, but the plusterer stopped him when he had half "Put that end under the other instead of over it, you blockhead! Square knot. indeed! You've tied a granny! And it for me again, if you want to hold your "I'm sorry, my boy," he said to Thad. "Get yourself fixed up in first-class shape again, and send the bill to me. It's the

just in the nick of time." ONE CONSOLATION with his hand. The baggage man was the thunderbolt I had been waiting for-- ing began again.

"Well, you have one consolation. He

"INTERNATIONAL LIMITED" From the Observation, with its Vitabeen added to the car builder's skill in

MARK TWAIN AND THE EMPEROR

In the latter itmettes Mark Twaln spent some time with his family in the Emperor will know what you intend succulent feed, namely, swede turnips.

shall withdraw."

It seemed frightfully short, for there aged monarch. All three bowed, and per ton over the check lot receiving no vent. His hands were above his head were only a few inches of it dangling Doctor Herdliska spoke the formal words roots. Lot IV. receiving potatoes return- as he went in, and he stuck fast when below his hands. A moment later he of presentation. The Emperor replied | cd a value of $10.52 per ton for the only his feet remained in sight of his rose past the windows of the sixth floor. So far everything had gone according to potatoes so fed, or approximately 32 cents mates. They were at a loss what to do. Beside him the other part of the fall schedule. Mr. Clemens then began his per bushel. was running down. Had it not been speech, but had not repeated more than | Prom the above it would appear that to do so would cost them all their lives. moving so fast, he would have tried to a sentence or two when the Emperor very profitable returns are to be obtained They must get through the air-lock. terms are wearing pretty thin, and are grasp it with one hand, and so bring spoke a few words in German to Doctor for roots or cull potatoes when fed to Luckily, the men in the rear chamber himself and the barrel to-a stop; but he Herdliska, and turning on his heel start- short-keep steers. knew that the sudden wrench that would ed across the floor toward a distant door. It is noticeable that greater returns the door and let them in. Even as it was, he had all he could do to Clemens, who understood German only fed in moderate quantities, and it would through the crumbling river bottom, was

> A shout drew his eyes downward, and Doctor Herdlisks into the Emperor's received 50 pounds per steer per day at. The water there was about forty feet he saw Gowen burst into sight round study, where His Majesty put all formal- the start, this amount being reduced by deep, but Cregan came with such force

> Mr. Clemens regard as his best?" come. Roused to a final mighty effort, "Personally," replied the Emperor, "I managed to hook his toe under the Empress, however, thinks Roughing It potatoes. With our seed potato industry there, and pulled in me arms, and they

the low sill; it hung about three feet be torn from the rope. But he came to a quite a mellow mood; his fear of royalty these, but it would seem from the forefrom the brick wall, and a little to the dead stop. He could just see over the was a thing of the past. The Emperor's going figures that large returns might left of the opening, for the girder from sill of the window on the eighth floor. If cigars were very much to his liking, and be realized from this by-product if fed in thick clouds of smoke.

With his left hand still keeping its running like mad up the stairs a flight Emperor did a most unusual thing: he believe that the amount fed should be from almost every possible source. They to be, that I was alive and old enough grip, Terence reached out a hook with or so below, shouled in reply. But extended his hand to Mr. Clemens, who at least 25 pounds per day,—B. P. Tinto be, that I was alive and old enough grip, Terence reached out a hook with to take part in it and realize its meaning. his right and drew the barrel in over to take part in it and realize its meaning. his right and drew the barrel in over weight of the cask was drawging him Herdlicks and his companion reached. Charlottetown P. F. I. Herdlisks and his companion reached Charlottetown, P. E. L. skyward, and he knew that he could not the latter's hotel, they found the Emhold his position ten seconds longer. He peror had done another unusual thing: Terence did the lion's share of the hoist- cast his eyes upward. Those few feet he had sent a servant to the author's thousand dollars but. I wouldn't go ing. He was strong and willing, although of hemp below the block were the apartment with a dozen boxes of the cigars that had given the humorist so

> PERMIT THE OFFICERS OF "THE CONFEDERATION" TO BE

YOUR HOSTS Thad shut his eyes and locked his. The tried and true personnel of "The warrant and a pair of handcuffs seems | nits the ropes to alide through the fir.gers round the hard rope in an agony Confederation" take pride and pleasure to have little need for the exercise of pulleys, but instantly clamps all of them of horror. Come what might, he would in over serving its guests in a courteous, social policy. Nevertheless, an anecdote, if one breaks or if a knot slips. This him unclench his hands; they might be Master railway car constructors have work is in the poor quarters of a great which automatically locks itself after pelting down steadily now, and in the dragged into the sheave, crushed, broken, but their all into the equipment of "The city, shows what unexpected resources depping a few feet. The third part is a but while they had the strength to retain Confederation" . . . even to the latest in of tact are occasionally displayed even on steel anchorage for hanging the scaffold radio receiving sets, make for the ideal, "the force."

ped. What had happened? He opened "The Confederation" leaves Toronto home of a poor woman whose good-forhis eyes and saw that his locked hands for Vancouver daily at 0.00 p. m. nothing husband, although amiable were less than two inches from the iron (standard time), serving en route Win- enough when sober, was abusive when wheel. He looked down, and there in nipeg, Brandon, Regina, Saskatoon, Ed- | drunk. There was now sickness in the Gowen and another man, holding the! Information reservations etc., from any

AULD SCOTLAND ABBOAD

A native Scotchman who enters a res. again, screen-doors and then sprayed and more, and it would have jammed in the bent on below, the cask was unslung and laurant far from his hills and heather; The clergyman's pity for the woman they then lowered Thad a few feet, until is almost sure to be an amusing fellow. was mingled with anxiety for the sick Terence could grasp him and draw him : Andra Kirkaldy, the professional golf child. The wife had never complained player, who has passed fifty years of his of her worthless husband, and the minlife on the famous links at St. Andrews, ister knew she would not do so then; Scotland, once had to spend a few hours he wasted no words, but on leaving went in London in company with three other himself to the police station and related Scots. The one thing that bothered the case. them, we learn from his book, Pifty Years The burly patrolman to whom he spoke

Pointing to a bright, attractive-looking good woman, and deserved better luck. restaurant. Ben Sayers, who was one of Tim deserved-well, Tim deserved more the party, said, "Let us go in there." than he would get. There was the usual in that braw place," I said. there. Waiters came and helped us off indignation and leave matters to him. ship you for an able scaman, but don't band was playing fancy music on a plat- emphatically. "Widout tact he'd only form; and finely-dressed women and men be shiftered up and make maters worse were chatting and eating and drinking. than iver I know 'Tim."

are a sicht like that in St. Andrews. It right, promised discretion, and they dozzles my verra een. Them's bonnie proceeded to the house. Tun still sat women, but the men look poor things," glowering in the croner. 'The tactful "They'll make us pay for coming here," | policeman strode across the room and happened if I hadn't caught that barrel; I said. "It'll cost us a honnie penny seized him by the collar.

afore we get out." In fact I wanted to go out there and said, jerking the culprit violently backthen but the others stopped me; we had ward and forward. "What do ye mane, a limit of struggle, but at last we all abusin' the good wife lilvin gave yo you settled down. The bill of fare was ondesarvin', outrageous, intoxicatin' ould To avoid chartering a special car to printed in a language none of us could rapscallion?" He paused to shake him ship 200 pounds of Limburger cheese, a read,-a daftlike thing it seemed to me, with a vigor which did not permit further > 7s. Gd. cach! "All on one bill?" asked the waiter. "Yes, that'll do," Sayers replied. It amounted to thirty shillings. "Just ashamed," he began, but was cut short about the cost of the single journey to at once.

Your supper." 'No," said Davie, "I'll gie ye a shill- whisked his victim from his acat, shook Hugh said the same thing to me, and him very hard in a huddled heap, too;

As the waiter was helping Davie on linger on Mary Ann Mahoney again-I with his coat he noticed that there were promise ye that, sort" said the policeno tips for him on-the table. "Don't man with satisfaction, as they walked Davie turned on him with the most was a little tact!" I'll never forgie ye."

STEER FEEDING AT CHARLOTTE-

TOWN For acycrat seasons past the ateer feed- Jersey City, had an experience which has Vienna. Dr. Charles Vincent Herditska, ing experiments at the Charlottetown probably never been duplicated by any, who was secretary of the United States | Experimental Station have, in general, other man since time began. He was embassy there, gives an interesting ac- consisted of a study of the comparative blown out of the "alriock" in the front count of how he presented Mr. Clemens freeing value of rutabaga, or swede of the tunnel in which he was working. turnips, and cult potatoes. The extensive up through the mud and gravel through Mr. Clemens was a good deal worried aced-potato industry within the province which he had been digging, through about what he should say to the Em- makes available each year large duan- navigable river on which steamers were peror. He told Doctor Herkliska that he titles of cull pointors suitable for feeding running, and some distance into the air, feared he might be so overcome as to purposes, and it seemed desirable to from which he fell back again into the compare the value of these with what river, to be picked up apparently un-"Never mind," replied the secretary, has been for many years the standard harmed. to say. You have to send your speech | In 1927, twenty-eight steers were fed struction under the East River, to con-

to the palace several days before you are for a period of 122 days; in 1928 twenty nect New York and Brooklyn. Prom the But at the lower presented. Then if Itis Majesty doesn't pleers were fed for 76 days, and in 1929 Brooklyn side the workmen had prodigh, insurance clerk with end of the fall had occurred a change like what you are, going to say, he need twenty-four steem were fed for a period gressed about two hundred feet from that might mean to him the difference not receive you. We shall find the of 107 days. The following pens were the dock. They were boring through between life and death.

Emperorestanding in the centre of the comparable during the three seasons:

mud with an immense tube or shield. The lime had been hooked on in the large Yeception hall in the palace, and Lot I.—Bwedes were fed at the rate The open end of this was filled with of the feeding period. Lot III was fed Sometimes "faults" developed in the we have any visit?" asked the humorist, per day per steer throughout the dura- leak develops, the air is apt to escape tion of the test. Lot IV. received cull with a rush and the mud to overwhelm Dragging his shoes along the bricks, pardonable breach of court etiquette. As period. Lot V. was used as a check pen three others were in the advance chamhe tried to catch his toes between the soon as we have exchanged greetings we and received neither roots nor potatoes. ber,-literally in a "bubble" at the end The hay and meal ration in every case of the counci,-they heard the crackle As he rose past the fifth-floor windows, On the appointed day Mr. Clemens was at a uniform rate for all pens, the of escaping air. Gregan turned quickly he flung himself violently to the left, in and Doctor Herdlicka appeared at the roots or potatoes being the only variable, and saw a bud break developing. Estriking an average of the figures ob- "Quick, boys! The bags!" he called frame; but he missed it by the fraction the two Americans were ushered through tained for the three years' test, swede and picking up a sack of hay from a of an inch. Exclamations of harror room after room of the palace until they turnips as fed to Lot I. gave a return pile kept for the purpose, attempted & rose from below. The umbrellas were reached the threshold of the audience value of $6.26 per ton, basing hay and block the blowout with it. meal at local market cost prices. Lot II. Before the others could understand The door of the reception hall awung for the same period returned a value of what was happening the blast of outopen, and humorist and secretary ad- $9.25 per ton for the amount of roots rushing air had caught Cregan and Thad ching mechanically to the rope, vanced toward the colltary figure of the fed. Lot III, gave a return of $10.60 driven him head first up through the Overhead, the girder end and its sus- ing, "Hold on, doctor.' . This isn't accord- amount given uniformly throughout the which slid past him with the escaping pended pulley loomed larger and larger ing to your instructional Shall I go on feeding period is superior to approxim- air. He retained his wits, and knowing it volleyed and thundered. For that your clothes any, and it won't raise a lng of the block grew ever louder, and Doctor Herdlicks explained that the gradually decreasing amounts until the thead, the way the air was rushing, he that Torence made, as shouting wildly, he need not finish his speech. I have This point is supported by additional able to give the necessary aid to free he clattered up the short flights of fire already read it. Both of you come into tests in 1927, in which one lot received himself, and just as his breath was 30 pounds per steer per day during the leaving him he felt himself shoot up Much relieved, Mr. Clemens followed entire feeding pariod, while a second lot through the river and out into the air.

amounts of foods were fed.

Together they swayed down on the frame. At the same moment he cleriched in better.

Tope that ran over the single sheave of the rope with all the strength in his "Tell him," returned Mr. Clemens, quantities of small and cull potatoes that ye can't kill an Irishman."

They can have their choice. I wrote available each year, that have little if any market value. Growers are oftentimes at a loss as to the disposal of

He shouled, and Terence, who was As the interview came to an end, the of potatoes per steer per day, leads us to A test in 1929 feeding only 15 pounds

HE RELIED ON TACT

house; a child was dangerously ill. When the clergyman called he found the troubled and exhausted mother with a bruised and blackened eye, while her sodden husband glowered sulkily in the corner, sunk in a tipsy stupor, which of Golf, was the price of the supper they shared his feelings. It was outrageous of Tim, he declared. Mrs. Mahoney was a "They'll make ye pay through the nose difficulty; punishment of the husband would also be punishment of the wife. But Ben Sayers and Hugh were so Nevertheless, something must be done. enthusiastic over the restaurant that they Tim must be at least remonstrated with. offered to pay half of what the supper But interference in domestic troubles is might cost Dayle Grant and me. Since always a delicate task, and the policethat seemed fair we agreed to risk eating man warned the clergyman to repress his with our hals and overcoats; a string "It's tact that's needed!" he declared.

"Andra," Davie said to me, "ye dinna The Clergyman admitted that he was

In a momentary full the clergyman put in a mild word. "Timothy, you really ought to be

"Citve me three ahillings, Davie," him," whispered his friend the patrol-Bayers said to Grant, "and I'll pay for man, in a hasty aside; and he resumed his gentle admonitions. At the end he him in the air like a rat, and dropped.

"It'll be mony a day before he lays away together. "All that was needed

Its Quality Setts It.-The fact that so many thousands of intelligent people

The secretary started to follow; but Mr. per ton were obtained from swedes when Cregan, suddenly driven head first imperfectly, clutching his arm, whisper- seem in this respect that a moderate battered and bruised by the public which of his books," asked the Em- return of $5.80, while those fed decreas- once put out and picked him up. he lot fed uniformly made a peared to be a geyser. A rowboat at As if Thad could do anything elsel peror, through Doctor Herdlisks, "does ing amounts returned only $5.05 per ton "An' what was ye thinkin' about, for the roots fed. In neither case was Dick?" asked a friend, later in the day. "Tell His Majesty that I believe it is the return so high as when smaller "I wasn't thinking," said he. "I was with Terence, who was already holsting he flung himself to the left, and just like 'Ruckleberry Pinn' the best. The test is the return value received for cull stretched out me legs, and they was might at any moment break into wrath

"Tim Mahoney, ye great baste!" he

"Ah, don't sor! Ye'll only irritate

A STRANGE ADVENTURE

Hichard Cregan, a tunnel-worker of

They could not pull Cregan back, and . . | felt the reduction in pressure, opened ty aside and entertained the two Amer- 2 remain per work would the south or the trace of account antice that are the south of the south pasting that mud. But when I landed at its present magnitude there are large was all there. I begun thinking then

SAFETY SCAFFOLD FOR PAINTERS

many stories above the street, the invention of Rolph J. Lackner, is said to up of the platform itself. The devise, developed after fourteen years of experiment, is in three parts. The first is a kind of trolley to which the men are attached by a torsion grip. This trolley Tact is indispensable to the hostess, is suspended between the ropes of the the politician, the ciertyman and the scaffold and secured independently to lawyer; useful, indeed, in almost every the building. The men can move about walk of life. If any one could dispense | freely, yet they are automatically attachwith it successful one would suppose ed to the trolley if the ropes should break that it would be a policeman, since a or if the men should slip. The second is man who can back his requests with a an automatic gravity clamp, which perrecently related by a minister whose to done by the falling scaffold itself. from the roof. The safety devises have The minister had often visited the teen approved by trade unions of painters and others, and in some States have already been made compulsory by law.

> EARN 6.00 TO 10.00 A DAY Learn and Earn part time Motor Mechanics, liattery, Welding, Vulcanizing, House Wiring, Brickleying, Plastering, Barbaring, Besuty Culture Work, Good positions open. Write or call, free instructive book. DOMINION CHARTERED SCHOOLS Pres employment Service Coast to Coast

Here's Stomach-joy For You. Light, Flavory, Easily Digested

With all the bran of the whole wheat

When fussy appetites are hard to please, these crisp, oven baked, flavory shreds of whole wheat give zest to the meal and energy for work or play. Delicious with whole milk and

ENJOY LABOR DAY

Get That New Set Of

FEECSEONE

Gum-Dipped Tires NOW!

Y ABOR Day-the last three-day week-end for the season—enjoy it to the ut. : on Firestone Gum-Dipped tires. Firestone tires will take you there and bring you back. Manufacturing features such as the patented Gum-Dipping process by which every fibre is insulated with rubber to eliminate internal friction, mean-complete freedom from tire troubles. Before the holiday rush starts, drive around to your nearest Firestone Dealer and have him equip your car with a new set of Firestones. You, like thousands of others, will find that they give the utmost in

"The Voice of Firestone" mileage, safety and livery Monday Night, 7 p.m.

42 Stations-NBC Network Made in Hamilton, Canada, by

FIRESTONE TIRE & RUBBER COMPANY OF CANADA, LTD MOST MILES PER DOLLAR FEE CONTRACTOR ONLY

eum-dipped Tires Firestone Tires Are Sold in Acton by Norton Motors, Main Street

OLIVES

Selected Queen

39°

15-th package French's Salad Cream Mustard.

Special-DeLuxe

JELLIES

6 pkga

25°

Special-Itarboe

PEACHES

Choice Quality

Na. 1 tia

19°

Amorted Flavors

Salada Tea, brown label

))-8. sin Bassa Bandess Chicken,

I large jare

For thirty-six years CARROLL'S stores have been saving people money. Always these savings have then supported by QUALITY, which is the better part of value. A guarantee accompanies every article purchased at our stores, but the amount of merchandise refunded is exceedingly small. We succeed in satisfying. Our prices will stand any test of comparison, as will be seen by this list

Specials for the Week-end August 22 - 25

10 hars 49c

Special-Finest Pure New Pack JAM Raspherry 40-02. 29° SPECIALI Careall's Finest Creamery Butter, Ib. SPECIAL! Surprise Laundry Soap SPECIALI Pearl White Naphtha Soap

of values.

10 bars 35c SPECIAL! Finest Pure Clover Honey, No. 5 pail Special-The Universal Health Food Grape Nuts Zpkg. 29 Pastry Flour, Sheaf Brand, 24-lb. bag

Finest Pure Land, freshly rendered, 3-lb. pail Rich Old Cheese, ripe and mellow, per pound Loaf Chrese, Chateau or Velveeta, 1/4-lb. pkg. Special-Fray Bentos Cooked Corned Beef No. 1 20°

New Ceylon Black Tea, extra value, per lb. Carroll's Freshly-Ground College, Ila * :f. 50c, 60c Maxwell House Colleg, 1-lb, tin Imperial Dey Ginger Ale, contents of 6 bottles Special-Aylmer Jumbo Sweet PEAS Vary Vander 2 No. 2 29°

Summer Sausge, sweet and tarry, per pound

"Where Quality is as High as Prices Are Low" Acton, Ontario

ped read?

Would be nearing the top. Before the p. m. (standard time).

Ped read?

He (sighting motor cop): Yeel:—and accident the knot had almost touched. Pull information and reservations from lint or modicated cotion and placed in our inflammatory pains its record in the block: now his hands were where any Canadian National Railways Agent. the car will do much in reliaving pain, beyond represent.

NECTARS The processables raisin 2 pkgs. 27c