This and that

—The auction sale lists will be found on Page Three this week.

—Knox Church anniversary services will be held on October 20.

—The finals in the baseball season are now on in the work's series.

—The new slogan, "Make your high ways dryways," is growing in popularity.

—Frederick Street is being gravelled this week following the regrading last week.

—The temperature dropped low enough on Tuesday night to put a coating of ice on Fairy Lake.

—There have been 102 acceptances by the Old Age Pension Board for Acton, and 23 refusals.

—The interior of the Superior Store is being repainted in attractive tints of green and white.

—A few days of good rainy weather would be really appreciated by most everyone just now.

—The Public School pupils are enjoying a couple of days' holiday during the Teachers' Convention this week.

—The erection of the frame on the new arena in the Park outlines the building as an imposing structure.

—This week has been a busy one with auction sales. There was one scheduled in the district for nearly every day of the week.

—Some of the young folks of this district have gathered a surprising number of liquor bottles off the sides of the highways. One had reports about fifty secured on one concession of a nearby siders.

ORGANIZATION MEETING
 Of the New Union Proletary Youth Club at Palace on Tuesday Evening

On Tuesday evening, October 8, about one hundred representatives of the executives of the young people of the Proletary met down in a splendid supper prepared by the young people of Acton. Following the supper, they prepared resolutions and a preliminary programme for the general rally of young people at eight o'clock, when about three hundred assembled from all parts of the Proletary.

Rev. W. J. Akers, of Milton, presided, and Rev. Dr. Robertson, of Toronto, gave a very fine and inspiring address upon young people's work.

A unanimous standing vote the large gathering adopted the following resolutions:

"This Young People's Union of Acton Proletary convention assembled, at Acton, October 8, representing all parts of the Proletary, desires to place on record our hearty endorsement of the platform of the Ontario Proletary Union in the coming election, and would urge all our young people to do all in their power to make that platform effective in our County and Province."

The following officers were elected and installed:

Honorary President—Rev. P. O. Parry, H. D. Brant.
 President—Norman Gilbert, Brant.
 1st Vice-President, Christian Fellowship Department—Edna Lawrence, Trafalgar.
 2nd Vice-President, Missionary Department—Miss Lydia Caldwell, Limestone.
 3rd Vice-President, Literary and Social Department—Louise Spence, Lowville.
 4th Vice-President, Citizenship Department—Jack McArthur, Milton.
 Secretary—Miss Jessie McKay, R. R. No. 2, Georgetown.
 Treasurer—Bert Allen, Burlington.

J. L. Clark, lot 14, 6th line, West Chingonway, will hold an Auction Sale of Horses, Dairy Animals, and Pigs on Friday, October 10, at one o'clock.

R. J. KERRIE'S LIST OF SALES
 Monday, October 14—Santa Margherita, lot 9, Concession 1, Township of Clough, Farm Stock, Implements and Grain.
 Wednesday, October 16—J. M. Thompson, Scotch Block, Clearing Sale of Farm Stock and Implements.
 Thursday, October 24—Stock Sale at the Ontario Agricultural College.

The United Church anniversary services will be held on Sunday, November 3, Rev. H. W. Avison, M. A., a former pastor, will be the special speaker for the day.

On Saturday night a bush fire got started in the bush on the Beardsmore & Co. farm, near Acton. A section of the fence was destroyed before the blaze was extinguished.

Mr. C. B. Swackhamer has purchased from Mr. E. J. Hazard the lots and buildings on Mill Street, now occupied by McLean's barber shop and the Public Utilities Commission. Mr. Hazard recently purchased from Mr. J. C. Matthews.

Cars Collided at Rockwood
 Motor cars driven by W. J. Hanna, Harris Street, Rockwood, and C. B. Gamble, New York City, collided in Rockwood on Sunday night, badly damaging both machines. No one was injured, but running boards and fenders of both cars were smashed. Appearing in Police Court the following morning in Clough, Hanna was convicted on a charge of reckless driving and was fined $10 and costs. In addition, his license was suspended for three months.

Drunk and Disorderly
 Three young men came before Police Magistrate Moore last evening, charged by Chief McPherson with being intoxicated and with disorderly conduct. Two of them pleaded guilty to being drunk and the three of them to disorderly conduct. They came to Acton in a car from Clough. One of the men, who was charged and drove. They were discovered at midnight in cruising the streets in town and stopping at the curb to address young women who were passing. Two of the young fellows had liquor permits. They declared in court that when their mothers heard of the bad conduct charges against them, they took the permits and burned them. It cost the three $71.50 for their "fun."

Joint Nominations of Milton
 The political field in Milton county during the next 150,000 voters, who are eligible on the 15th of the month, will be greatly benefited by the nomination of the candidates in the county. They are George Hillier, John B. Hillier, and Thomas Blake, Mayor of the city, who are standing for the Liberal Progressive Party of the county. The Liberal Progressive Party will hold the Provincial election in Milton, Harry M. Duff, of Freeman, who is the Progressive candidate in the last election in 1925, was defeated by George Hillier. (Continued) was nominated but withdrew and asked that Mr. Hillier's nomination be made immediate.
