THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 24, 1929

The mileage basis, that has apparently been an abused privilege, has been done away with by Wellington County Council. Now the fees for Councillors will be $5 per day and actual expenses for sessions and committee work. Formerly 10 cents per mile was allowed for sessions and 15 cents a mile for committee work. If the member furnished his own transporattion, six cents a mile for the distance actually travelled will be furnished. The most sweeping change was the clause providing that no mileage whatever is to be paid for travelling in the county car. Each member must hand in a signed expense sheet to the County Treasurer, and have it certified by the chairman of the committee, and all these are to be audited by the county auditors. The former mileage basis was apparently the means of much abuse by the members and the running up of fairly largely salaries by some Councillors. It's unfairness and the cost to the county has been the subject of much comment by the Fergus News-Record. The success that has accompanied their Minister of National Revenue. The total collections efforts in finally bringing about the change in the for the six months ended September 30 last, were faction of winning an argument. It will be a distinct the same period last year, an increase of $10,048,saving to the people through a decrease in fees. The 272.01, or about 20 per cent. Of the larger centres. Fergus News-Record is to be commended upon the the London district showed the largest percentage in-

If there is any heat to the present election it will undoubtedly be noticeable this week-the final one 351.29; London's total was $5,136,383.40, an increase before the Provincial election. Politicians are weighed by the indelible record that they have created and that has been followed by an intelligent electorate during their tenure of office and not by a snap judgment in the heat of a campaign. Conditions have changed. The change, we believe, in the aspect of the political campaign is but another outcome of the changed conditions and not a lack of interest. And, like all advancement, we believe it will be for the better.

What Will Your Decision Be?

Next Wednesday is Provincial election day. On that day every voter should register his honest judgment on the government of this Province of Ontario and who shall have the holding of the reins of power for the next four years. The who is not so important us what that party or individual stands for. The principles that are included in the platform of your candidate and the ability of that candidate to uphold them are the main considerations. The temperance issue is undoubtedly the main consideration in the present campaign. It is regrettable that it is in politics but the fact remains that it is there and has been placed in this position by the man who now wishes this item kept out of the election. Next week you, as a voter, will have the opportunity to take the under $60,000,000. Will the liquor used during the temperance issue out of politics and place it as a selection not be termed as a sale, is another poser that plebiscite. There is a principle at stake. It is more might be asked and answered at the same time as than a mere contest for political power. All the the exact amount of the year's sale is divulged. issue. Will your vote help to keep the liquor in politics? Will your vote : . ke for greater safety on the highway? Will you have to excuse yourself to your conscience after you vote next Wednesday? Helping the Local Business Man

Recently we had a call from a solicitor who desired us to go into an advertising scheme. He was to solicit the local merchant and by his wonderful appeal to them would induce them to pay about double the advertising rates for this campaign that we were in! the habit of charging. We were assured of the usual sate and he collected sufficient from the merchant to Cover his commission and other costs. The argument failed with us and we refused to go into partnership on the scheme. But just to show how greatly at heart these travelling solicitors have the welfare of the local merchants, just listen to proposition number two that was advanced to us by this same solicitor when the wonderful scheme for the local merchants failed. He then inquired if we would be interested in securing regularly a page of advertising from neighboring city merchants that he would secure and collect his commission on. We weren't interested either scheme and we repent the incident only to town solicitors. There are dozens of them calling every week on the local merchants. They will all stand analyzing. Usually their methods benefit only themselves. They are here to-day and away to-morroww. Their chief ambition is the collection of their commission.

Privileges Are Many

We have not taken out an agency for radios: Neithen is the machine that we use an acquisition lately acquired in the household. But the past week or so has certainly given us some wonderful thrills from this equipment that is becoming more and more part of every household. The sporting classics are always interesting. The remarks of the great inventor, Thomas A. ing and said hopefully: Edison, must be a great incentive to accomplishing greater achievements. His summing up "that if he you?"-Boston Transcript. had inspired others to accomplish greater things, he was satisfied," was truly a great conception of the march of progress. Not the labor lightening and many conveniences that have been, through him, given to mankind, were his chief concern. But the spurring on of others to greater achievements was the hope of this eight-two-year-old inventor. Not the resting on of laurels already gained, but the hope of greater achievements from his foundations already success—if you are a victim of Bladder Weakness and Irritation, causing days laid. Yes, the air has carried some wonderful messages the past week, and we thank our middleman, the radio, for the privileges we have enjoyed.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Supposing the liquor question had not been the issue in this election, just what would have been the outstanding point of argument.

Children will not be allowed to carry beer from the warehouse any more. Is this another election promise? The Liquor Control Act has surely been a terrible institution.

When we are deprived of anything for a long time we usually appreciate it more when we receive it. Guess that was the reason the copious showers of the week have been so generally agreable to everyone.

That some organization will assist the Bund in their endeavor to have a sane Hallowe'en celebration town next week is the wish of everyone. But wishing alone will not make for a successful event on this or any other occasion.

The fine building being exected for Acton's new arena in the Park seems to have the favorable endorsation of everyone. The general construction and the facilities provided in this building have evidently crunkenness. Do you believe it should be continued been the subject of much thought and endeavor by

THE people are tired of false promises as a cloak for reckless spending. They want reduced taxes rather than increased promises.

Only Liberals Can Retrench

They owe nothing to Ferguson's Friends

Ferguson Fails Because:

Debt Increase—90 Millions. Gas Tax Increase to 5c. Liquor Revenues go up. Spending Reaches 58 Millions. Interest Bill is 19 Millions. Ruinous Rural Taxes. School Law Tinkering. No Reforestation Policy. Local Autonomy Restricted. No Retrenchment.
