SILVER WEDDING PRESENTATION

To Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper at Knox Sunday School Last Sunday Afternoon

Last Sunday afternoon at the Knox Sunday School a presentation to the Superintendent, Mr. Wm. Cooper, and Mrs. Cooper was a pleasing feature on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. At the close of the Sunday School session the Bible Class and Sunday School assembled and Rev. Mr. Stewart took charge of the gathering. He congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Cooper on this silver wedding anniversary and called on Miss Doris McDonald who read the following address:

To Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cooper
Acton, Ontario

Dear Fellow-workers
and Cherished Friends:

We rejoice with you that you have attained to that important and happy epoch in your family history which is so fittingly designated as your Silver Wedding Anniversary. We unite cordially as fellow-workers and members of Knox Sunday School in extending to you our most cordial congratulations upon having arrived at this happy milestone, surrounded by the countless blessings which you now so fully enjoy.

It is pleasant to reflect upon the associations which clustered around the wedding morn twenty-five long years ago. The wedding hour is the happiest time of human life, and breaks upon the young hearts like a gentle spring upon the flowers of earth. It is the hour of bounding joyous expectancy, when the ardent spirit, arming itself with bold hope looks with undaunted mien upon the great adventure now to be taken. It is the hour when thought borrows the livery of goodness, and humanity looking from its tenement across the broad common of life, gladly swings to its shoulders the light burden of love and kindness. This was your happy joint experience; it was full of blissful contemplation, rich promise, and the days of your soul's happy revels.

And now you have completed the full-round of twenty-five years of happy wedded life, with its gladness and its sorrows; its comforts and its toils, through years of usefulness, your family, your church and the community of which you have both been members for all your lives.

It is a great things for two frail natures to live as one for so long a period. Two harps are not easily kept always in tune, and what shall we expect of two harps each of a thousand strings. But, what human will or wisdom can not do, God can do, as you have so well proven. His Providence is uniting ever more intimately those who devoutly try to do the work of life and enjoy its good things together. For them, for you, there is in store a respect and affection; a peace and power all unknown in the hey-day of the young romance of the honey-moon days. Experience intertwines the remembrances and hopes in stronger cords and as you stand at the loom of time—one with the strong warp, the other with the finer woof, the hand of Providence has woven for you a tissue of unfading beauty and imperishable worth.

You have been happy in your family, and its must be great joy to you, as it is to us, to have them engaged in walking the path of righteousness and helpfulness which you yourselves have trod. Again we offer you our congratulations.

Will you kindly accept this gift as a memorial of our love and regard for you both, and may we assure you that our united prayer is that you will both have the great joy of being spared to celebrate at least your golden wedding anniversary and enjoy the fruits of lives well spent, and the maturer joy of well-matured years.

On Behalf of the Sunday School.

Master Jack Graham and Miss Gracie Stewart, at the proper time presented Mr. and Mrs. Cooper with a beautiful silver flower basket filled with twenty-five red and pink carnations. Although taken completely by surprise, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper replied thanking all for their kindly remembrance and beautiful wedding anniversary gift.

Acton and District

Hockey Meeting Monday

A meeting of all those interested in the Hockey Club in Acton will be held in the Council Chamber at the Town Hall on Monday evening, at eight o'clock sharp.

True Blue Lodge Visits Oakville

Last Friday evening a number of the Lady True Blues of Acton motored to Oakville, to the banquet and birthday party of the lodge there. A lovely supper was served; speeches and singing were enjoyed, and a splendid evening was spent by all.

Prize Winning Potato Crops

The results of the Standing Field Crop competition in potatoes has been announced this week. This event is run in conjunction with the Acton Fall Fair each year and the following are the winners in order of prizes won: Leslie & Pearen, Arthur Swackhamer, Peter Hillx, Robert Sims, Robert Kerr, Fred Denny and John Graff. The prize money will be issued as soon as Secretary Akins receives the grant from the Provincial Department.

Passenger Trains Cancelled

Announcement has been made this week of the cancellation of three passenger trains daily on the Canadian National Railways line through here. The trains cancelled are the two westbound at 10.33 a. m. and 5.00 p. m., and one eastbound at 3.47 p. m. The westbound train formerly due at 6.17 will now be due at Acton at six o'clock and will stop regularly. It will now be a mail and express train. The cancellation of the 5.00 will effect the most inconvenience locally of any of the changes. The evening papers and mail from the east will not now reach Acton until after six o'clock.

Royal Winter Fair Next Week

Outstanding interest is being shown by horsemen in the announcement that the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto would introduce five-gaited horse classes at the big Canadian fair next November. Five-gaited horses are claimed to be a special product of Kentucky. Old-time breeders bought Ontario horses of great speed and endurance to cross with American saddle horses. Marguerite Parlee Bayliss is authority for the statement that Peter the Great "traced directly to a Canadian stallion of whom nothing is known except that he was brought south from Ontario. He was also the ancestor of the southern saddle horse breed whose descendants form several strong strains throughout saddle horse history in Tennessee, Kentucky, West Virginia and Missouri." The Royal Fair dates are November 20 to 28.

Monthly Meeting of Women's Institute

The monthly meeting of the Acton branch of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. George Agnew, Mill Street, on Thursday, November 7 last, when twenty-five attended. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode, followed by prayer. In the business part of the programme it was decided to do as in other years, and put a wreath at the Soldiers' Monument and also to send twenty pounds of honey to the Gordon Home, at Milton. The roll call was answered with "Reasons for Thanksgiving." The programme was as follows: Instrumental, Mrs. Blow; paper, entitled "The First Thanksgiving," by Mrs. E. Gamble; solo, Mrs. Gardiner; and Mrs. Mowat gave an interesting talk on her trip to California. All of these were very much appreciated and enjoyed by all. The meeting closed with the Institute anthem, after which a social half hour was spent.

Acton Bulldog Troop

The weekly meeting of Acton Bulldog Troop was held last Thursday. The meeting was opened by the Patrol Leader of the Wolves, Stuart Lantz. Next was inspection and points were given for uniform and attendance. The Patrol competition ends this week and the Kangaroos, with Bing Ramsden as Patrol Leader, have a lead of 17 points, so it looks as if they were sure to be the winners. Following inspection was a lively game, which the boys enjoyed very heartily, and after the game were patrol corners. This was followed by another game which brought the programme to a close. After the meeting a meeting of the Court of Honor was held and the following resolutions were made: (1) The Court of Honor be called Swastika; (2) The Kangaroo Patrol Room be used as headquarters; (3) The Swastikas vote in every Scout; (4) No Scouts are allowed to go to the rink any night except Thursday, without permission from the Scoutmaster, Cubmaster or Girl Guide Leader.

A Toronto Wedding of Local Interest

The marriage took place on Saturday at 12 o'clock at Grace Church-on-the-Hill, Toronto, of Miss Rachel Secord, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. E. M. Secord, of Guelph, and residents of Acton prior to their residence in Guelph, to Frederick Minkler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Minkler, of Woodstock, the Rev. Canon Broughall officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. W. H. Campbell, and wore a frock of beige crepe satin, with a brown velvet hat. She carried a bouquet of Talisman roses. She was attended by Mrs. Hugh Guthrie, who wore a dark green dress, with a hat to match, and a bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. The best man was Mr. Knollin. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Campbell, St. Hilda's Avenue, for the immediate friends and relatives of the bridal party. Later the bride and groom left for New York, the bride travelling in a gray tweed suit, with a Chinese red hat and bag. On their return they will reside in Toronto. Miss Secord is a niece of Mrs. H. B. Holmes, Acton.

Splendid Address by Dr. A. E. Lavell

The opening meeting for the season of the Men's Club of the United Church on Tuesday evening was a gathering which every man who attended appreciated. The organization was fortunate in securing the services of Dr. A. E. Lavell, Commissioner of the Ontario Parole Board, to address them on this occasion. In his subject: "The Attempt to Salvage Criminals," Dr. Lavell gave to many a new conception of the work that is being carried on by this body in reclaiming human beings who have gone astray and committed crime. Dr. Lavell is a splendid speaker and knows his subject as no other man anywhere. His argument and reason for the work being undertaken; his logical conclusion and methods of dealing with men branded as criminals and his explanation of the work being carried on by Ontario at its reformatories, made a subject which held the interest of the men right through. The banquet which followed the address was unique. The menu was oyster soup, crackers and cheese and pumpkin pie with whipped cream. It was served by the men, but the particular work of cooking the oysters was delegated to a committee of ladies and all adjudged them done to a turn. The group singing of the men was a feature which was entered into heartily and enjoyed.

Acton Remembered on Armistice Day

Splendid Gathering, Assembled and Do Honor to Those Whose Name Liveth Forevermore

With commendible loyalty the citizens of Acton and the surrounding countryside were not deterred by the disagreeable weather prevailing on Monday morning from attending the Thanksgiving-Armistice service in larger numbers than before. The Town Hall was filled to overflowing with the gathering that assembled to do honor to the memory of those who fell in the Great War.

The parade to the Hall was headed by Acton Citizens' Band, and followed by the Veterans, the Girl Guides and Boy Scouts, and a detachment from the Halton Rifles, under command of Sergt. J. Alger.

The service at the Hall was opened by Reeve A. Mason, who expressed his gratification at such a splendid gathering and appreciation of those who had arranged the service each year. Rev. A. C. Stewart was in charge of the proceedings. Rev. C. L. Poole led in prayer and the scripture lesson was read by Rev. P. A. Hawyer.

The committee were fortunate in having on this occasion for the speaker Rev. Dr. T. Albert Moore, a native son of Acton, who had just returned from attending peace conferences in Europe. In the brief time at his disposal Dr. Moore gave a stirring address, outlining the many overtures and plans now under way to insure a lasting peace among all nations. From his wide experiences and first-hand knowledge in visiting the battlefields of Europe, and taking part in peace negotiations, as representing the church, Dr. Moore was able to give an address full of information and convincing to his hearers, and impressing the fact that world peace is getting nearer.

The announcements concerning the balance of the service and parade were made by Mr. J. P. Scarrow. The parade reformed again in the same order and members of both orders of the I. O. D. E. and citizens took part in the march to the Soldiers' Monument. Here the Halton Rifles presented arms; wreaths were placed on the monument by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kennedy and family; the Junior I. O. D. E.; Senior I. O. D. E.; Girl Guides; Boy Scouts; St. Joseph's Church; the Acton Branch of the Women's Institute; and the G. W. V. A. Corporal J. J. Cooney, D. C. M., read the roll of honor, the two minutes of silence was observed, and Pastor A. Forsyth led in prayer.

The parade then proceeded to Fairview Cemetery, and gathered at the Veterans' plot and monument there. The Band played several sacred selections, while the Junior I. O. D. E., assisted by Rev. C. L. Poole and Pastor Forsyth, decorated each soldier's grave with a silken Union Jack. The hymn was sung; Acton detachment, D Company, Halton Rifles fired a salute of three volleys; the Last Post was sounded and the benediction pronounced by Rev. Dr. Moore.

THE EVENING MEAL DIGESTER

The Governor of the State was inspecting some of its institutions. Whenhe reached one of the insane hospitals he received a message to call his office on an important matter. Not getting as quick service as he thought he should, he barked at the operator, "I guess you don't know who I am?"

"No," replied the operator, "but I know where you are."

The small daughter of a tire salesman was playing on the lawn of their home when her attention was attracted, for the first time, by triplets. She ran excitedly into the house crying, "Mother, mother, I just saw twins and a spare."
