Monday: Jonah's Flight Jonah 1: 1-3 .- Jonah was one of the artiest prophets, and lived in Galiles in Gath-hepher, not far from Nazareth. The Lord told him to go to the wicked city of Nineven, the capital of Assyria one of the largest cities the world has k:. wn and preach against it. But Jon.:h ran away in the other direction, taking ship from Jeppa to go to Tarshish (Tarisus) in the south of Spain. He may have been afraid. More likely he did ic want to extend to a heather land the offer of God's pardon and favor, -which he thought his own land had the monopoly.

Tuesday: The Storm Jonah 1: 4-2:10,-The Lord pursued Ionah with a mighty tempest, and the thip he was in was in danger of immediate destruction. .. The Phoenician satiors, thinking the storm was sent to punish . some one on board, cast lots and the lot fell on Jonah. At Jonah's own request, for his conscience was tormenting him, they cast him into the s; a, which at once became calm. The Lord had created ("prepared") a "great 11sh" (not a whale) which swallowed Jonah and carried him for three days back to Jopph.
