have always given complete satisfaction and much pleasure. We feel your removal more keenly at the present time on account of the condition of that section of our chorus, with which you were connected. The tenor section is sadly in need of voices. We shall, no doubt eventually possess these, but it will be uphill work. We are going to tackle this obstacle, however, and overcome it, and when you come to Acton to listen to our first concert we know that you will have to say

"well done." We do not say this with a spirit of boastfulness, but with a spirit which prompts us to make the best use of a knowledge, part of which has been gained through having had you connected with us musically. We wish you and your family the blessing of good health and measure of prospority which will amply supply all your needs, with some to spare, which will allow you to indulge in as much pleasure and recreation as you feel you ought to

This is the season when joy and song should be in the hearts of all and we will now say that old, old wish, "A Merry Christmas and a Happy Now Year," to you and all your people.

Au revoir. We shall meet again, sometime, somewhere, where the skies will be brighter and the thinks which perplex us most here will be made most plain. In the meantime we shall all endeavor to "Play the man and win the fight"
