Evening Traditions and time honored customs that have prevailed in methods of holding the Warden's annual banquet have been undergoing changes in Halton County these past few years. Last year Warden Blakelock held the event in Oakville. This year Warden Leslie diverted from custom and had the ladies present, and many a comment overheard was to the effect that it was the finest Warden's banquet ever held. The event was held in Milton Town Hall. Needless to say, it was largely attended by County officials and friends. The delicious and appetizing menu Play-offs 28th and 31st. Team finish-
