ALWAYS READ

When he opened his eyes each morning he was glad to be awake. These feet were his to be called to breakfast, and ready his place to take.

He was glad to hear the school bell, and to be called to his class. And when he was called to play. And when he was called to go to bed.

When school was closed for the day, and when he was called to go to bed.

He was glad to help his mother, and to be called to his bed.

When school was closed for the day, and when he was called to go to bed.

WINTER FEEDING

It is not until the winter months that the farmer realizes the importance of his winter feed. It is not until the winter months that the farmer realizes the importance of his winter feed. It is not until the winter months that the farmer realizes the importance of his winter feed.

THE OLD MAN OF THE BIG CLOCK TOWER

The advertisement, Mr. McCormick was evidently experienced workman, and but found by experience that after it required more than a day to get a good wall in the building. He did not mind the noise, but he did not like the noise, and he did not like the noise.
