

THE LAST FIRST OF APRIL

BY MARY KYRIE DALIAH

Two important things had been decided on the first of April...

Meanwhile the Rev. Martin Tillinghast had decided that Margaret should be a minister...

The year passed slowly. In May Day, Mr. Tillinghast's health improved...

They never had a quarrel, and when she died he had the comfort which long suffering with much patience must give...

He did not say exactly what he "wondered," but he neither read who books...

And as he glanced at the calendar for the day of the month, a happy idea occurred to him...

Ugh! I have just looked out of the window and it is blowing and storming...

Drive! As the day of the month, a happy idea occurred to him...

JUVENILE KING MAJESTY

King Alfonso of Spain had the extraordinary experience of being a king from the very moment of his birth...

"How is that?" demanded the youthful king. "Oh, I'm going to London," was the reply...

UNFORGIVEN. The pot of the household kept as usual to say his prayers at his mother's side...

ONLY AN ANTIQUE. Leonia, a colored maid, had a taste for lofty ideas and high-sounding words...

A HARD LOOK TO FROK! The late John Gerlman, a member of the late John Gerlman, a member of the late John Gerlman...
