EDEN MILLS

On Wednesday evening the Wagner, Mackintosh family held their Thank Offering meeting in the church, while Dr. Heldhoff, of the G. A. C. Guelph, gave a most interesting lecture on Korea.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gibson on the birth of a son on April 10, in the General Hospital, Guelph.

We are pleased to report improvement in the health of little Norman R. Marshall, who was admitted to the hospital last week.

Mrs. H. M. Mansfield is making extensive alterations in her store, which will be of much advantage in the displaying of goods, and more space acquired.

The sick ones in the village are not making progress.

EVERTON

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. McCutcheon, a dear friend of ours, have passed away.

One year ago you left us.

But still we mourn for you.

A loving mother, sadly missed.

We know how much you suffered,

but now you're free from pain;

and now we're with you.

Until we meet again.

Daughter Alice.

ANDERSON—In loving memory of my dear mother, Mrs. Wm. Anderson, who passed away April 17, 1929.

When days are dark and friends are few,

Dear mother, how I long for you;

Friends are few, but you are with us,

but I feel my best friend when I lost you,

fully missed by

MOTHER AND DADDIE.

This and That

—Good Friday—tomorrow.

—The riot of spring is now here in earnest.

—The new cars are making their appearance now.

—The baseball season has opened in the Major Leagues.

—The auction sales lists of the week will be found on Page Three.

—One penny, a penny, hot cross buns, will be the call in the morning.

—All the towns in Halton County have adopted Daylight Saving Time this year.

—The stores will remain open this evening owing to the holiday tomorrow.

—The spring housecleaning activities are of major concern in many households these days.

—The snow fences along the highways are being removed. Spring must have surely come.

—The municipal officers have been doing some good work with the road drags this week.

—Men away or had visitors? Drop a note about it in our letter box or call The Free Press at 174.

—Easter speaks of flowers and of beauty, of life and immortality, of triumph and glorious victory.

—The Easter Sunday services in the churches will abound with the Easter messages. Be there to hear them.

—You'll find many saving prices among the advertisements. They help wonderfully in economical buying.

—Daylight Saving will become effective in Acton on April 27, the same time as all the adjoining towns and cities.

—Mr. and Mrs. Adamson have been busy the past week making ready Sunderland Villa for the opening next Monday.

—Less than two weeks until the trout fishing season opens and then some gardeners will start gardening in real earnest.

—The scarcity of houses to rent in Acton continues to be acute, with a constant enquiry from tenants for houses every day.

—The ladies of Knox Church held a very successful afternoon tea and sale of baking on Saturday afternoon in the store next to the Hydro shop.

—Rev. J. Goforth Hornby, M. A., formerly of Port Hope, was induced into the choir of the First Presbyterian Church at Burlington on Tuesday.

—A hand of Gopals, travelling in the up-to-date method, by automobile, caravan, were down town this week. They camped just at the edge of the town for a night.

—A big Auction Sale.

One of the most successful sales of this year was that of Mr. T. Chisholm, last Thursday. The stock was all in splendid condition and the sale brought $900, the greatest number of inmates in some time. Of these 587 are transients, while 112 were confined in the psychopathic ward.

—The Rev. Mr. Pearson, of Dundas, was home for the weekend.

—A. C. Patterson, of Montreal, is up for a short time.

—Mr. Ross Patterson, of Brantford, was home for the weekend.

—Mrs. George Haynes has so far recovered from her illness as to be able to get out occasionally.

—With the kindness of Mr. J. Prentiss, Guelph, the Royal City Parish, Elora Road, quite a number took advantage of the offer to look through their greenhouses after afternoon tea and the flowers in bloom.
