Entered Into Rest

GEORGE DILLAPPO
Acton has a citizen of sterling character, one who was held in highest esteem by all who knew him. When he passed beyond the veil last Sunday, October 7th, he had been in the old home adjoining the old house, which he had so frequently visited.
Robert and his daughter, Mrs. Robert Dillappo, whose son, George Dillappo, was born in 1903, were greatly distressed at the loss of their dear father, whom they had loved and respected. They have offered their sympathy and support to the wife and family of the deceased.

Street Repairs and Graveling of Streets Discussed by the Council—Supplies for the Fire Brigade

At the regular session of Council on Tuesday evening, Mr. Councillor Hansen, Chairman of Standing Committee and Harrison and Shilton were present and Mr. H. L. Davidson, as a representative from the Women's Institute, presented their first plan for the entrance to Fairview Cemetery. There had been drawn by Mr. W. Launder.

Moved by C. H. Harrison, seconded by Mr. Hansen, that the plans for gates and fence for Fairview Cemetery be now submitted to the Mayor, George Dillappo, and to the Women's Institute.

Carried.

Chief McDonald and Secretary replied that the Fire Brigade required supplies two weeks back and a tarpaulin. The brigade was instructed to secure these supplies.

The Council agreed to a street light at Young River and to a street light at Main Street required to be installed by the Fire Brigade.

Mr. H. L. Davidson, as a citizen of Main Street, requested a street light at the corner of Main and Hudson.
The Council agreed to the following conditions: that the street light at Main Street be installed as soon as possible and that the work will be arranged so that it may be completed as early as possible.

Mr. C. H. Harrison moved that the Council repair the main entrance to the Women's Institute.

Dear Neat In Nassagawey

While visiting one of his farms in Nassagawey, Thorold, Mr. W. W. Parker spotted a deer dead. The animal was quite contented, and did not go into the bush when it was sighted.

This deer galloped a short distance back into the farm, which is of two hundred acres, with both land quite plentiful
