BORN

COLE—On Saturday, May 17, 1930, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cole, Sixth line, Esquesing, a son (William Gordon Thompson) stillborn.

DIED

COLE—At the family home, lot 31, Seventh line, Halliniafad, on Friday, May 16, 1930, Gladys Margaret, beloved daughter of Peter and Margaret Cole, aged 30 years.

BULLARD—On Friday, May 16, 1930, at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Frank, William Morris (Pat), eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bullard, Burlington.

CRAWFORD—At the home, 49 Dehl Street, Guelph, on Wednesday morning, May 21, 1930, Sarah Henderson, beloved wife of Alex. Crawford, in her 54th year.

The funeral will be held with service at the home on Friday afternoon at three o'clock. Interment at Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

IN MEMORIAM

MASON—In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Wm. Mason, who died May 19, 1927.

THE MASON FAMILY.

BRELVOGEL—In loving memory of dear little Ralph, who died May 26, 1928.

There was a little band in heaven,
That was not quite complete,
So God took our darling Ralphie
To fill the vacant seat.

GRANDMA—Without sin

BRELVOGEL—In loving memory of our dear little grandson, Ralph, who passed away May 26, 1928.

You left behind our aching hearts,
Which loved you most sincere,
That never did, nor never will
Forget you, Ralph dear.

MR. and MRS. P. BRELVOGEL.

LANTZ—In loving remembrance of Doris M. Lantz, who passed away May 25, 1928.

Things we prize are first to vanish,
Hearts we love to pass away,
And a dear one lent in girlhood
Grieves the heart from day to day.
Not till the loom is silent,
And the shuttles cease to fly,
Shall God roll back the curtain
And reveal the reason why.

PARENTS, BRETHREN and BROTHER.

BRELVOGEL—In loving memory of our dear wee son, Ralph, who passed away May 26, 1928, aged 14 months; also Baby Marie, who passed away June 5, 1926.

At eventide the Master came
And walked amongst the flowers,
He touched the lilies one by one,
And took these ones of ours.
We wanted so to keep them,
For they to us were given,
But Jesus planned it otherwise,
And took them into heaven.

Sadly missed by
THEIR MOTHER and FATHER.

THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1930

This and that

—Empire Day—to-morrow.

—Victoria Day—Saturday.

—The showers of the past week have been most copious.

—The opening league ball game on Victoria Day in the Park.

—A garage at Mount Forest was robbed of $2,000 worth of accessories this week.

—The lawn mower has to be pushed these days to keep ahead of the growth of grass.

—Lilacs, lilies of the valley, apple blossoms have been popular during the week.

—Reeve Mason attended the session of the County Council at Milton on Tuesday.

—Much amateur gardening may now begin to be spelled with five letters—w-e-e-d-s.

—Owing to the unsuitable weather the band concert, arranged for Sunday evening, was withdrawn.

—Three additional rooms are planned to be added to Rockwood School, at an estimated cost of $18,500.

—Judging from the crowds at the Park these evenings, athletic sports are having a real innings this summer.

—A crew of Hydro men are at work building the new Hydro line along the highway from Crewsons Corners to Acton.

—The ball season will be opened on Saturday, locally, with all the opening ceremonies and a contest, between Acton and Oakville.

—A run through the country these days of profuse blossoms, rich foliage, fragrant perfumes, and attractive landscape views is a real joy.

—The Wednesday half holiday was not observed this week, owing to the holiday on Saturday, when the stores will be closed all day.

—Good work is being done on the second line, between Acton and Milton, with the tractor and road leveller. The roadway has already been greatly improved.

—A neat little booklet, with names, committees, etc., of Dublin Old Boys' Association, has been mailed this week to the old scholars of this school. The re-union is scheduled for July 1.

—The "Queen's Birthday" will be celebrated on Saturday. The pupils of the schools will have no opportunity this year of using the old-time refrain: "The twenty-fourth of May, the Queen's birthday, if you don't give us a holiday, we'll all run away."

—To decide who is the best local swimmer, Andy Buchanan and L. Cornelier have arranged a matched swimming race, to be held in Fairy Lake on June 3. The course will be from the east end of the pond, at the dam, up to the bridge where the C. N. R. electric line crosses the body of water.

—Miss Jean Lindsay, of Toronto, sister of Mr. J. G. Lindsay, Acton, was successful in securing her Bachelor of Arts degree at the recent University examinations. Miss Lindsay made exceptional standing, securing first class honors in all the subjects upon which she wrote. We join with her Acton friends in extending heartiest congratulations on her splendid success.

Entered Into Rest

GLADYS MARGARET COLE

After an illness of some length Gladys Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cole, passed away at her home at Ballinafad last Friday, in her thirty-first year. Born at Ballinafad, and having lived there all her life, she was beloved by all who knew her and her passing at such an age when life was full of promise is greatly regretted by the community. Her bereaved parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cole, her brother, John, and her sisters, Mrs. J. D. Smith, and Misses Mary and Bessie, at home, have the sympathy of all in their bereavement. She was a member of the United Church, Ballinafad, and the funeral on Monday was conducted by Rev. Mr. Aikins and Rev. Mr. Gandier. It was largely attended and interment was made in Fairview Cemetery. Among those friends who attended from a distance were: Misses Elva and Minnth Cole, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. D. Moyer, Pickering; Mrs. Yemen, Guelph; Miss L. Yemen, Toronto; Rev. and Mrs. Gandier, Eden Mills; Mr. Ross, Misses Winnie and Mazel Almes, Freeman; Mr. and Mrs. H. Knight, Oshawa; Miss Mary Glendenning, Toronto; Mr. Gordon Borthwick, Hespeler; and also numerous relatives and friends from Acton, Georgetown and district.

General Interest News

Moved Summer Cottage by Truck

Messrs. Donald Calaron and Bill Robertson, of Iroquois, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Lindsay this week. The young men had just completed the moving by truck of a summer cottage from Iroquois to Bronte, and called here prior to making the return trip of over 300 miles back to Iroquois. The truck used was a large six ton capacity machine.

Entertaining Lady Willingdon

Mrs. J. W. Hewetson, of Brampton, will entertain the Brampton, Orangeville and Port Credit Chapters of the I. O. D. E., at a garden party at their beautiful home in that town to-day. Lady Willingdon will be the guest of honor and will address this gathering. Mrs. P. E. McCleary and Mrs. A. Mason, of Acton, have been invited to attend from the Duke of Devonshire Chapter, and will have the pleasure of meeting Lady Willingdon.

Noah's Ark at Wonderland

Noah's Ark has been heralded as a super-production, has been ages in the making, and thousands of people appear in it. The story is fundamentally a modern one, with its theme derived from the Bible. It is historical, allegorical, symbolical, etc., but the Biblical sequence does not disappoint, as the sets and scenics are so massive and so realistically impressive that we have decided to be on the safe side when the world is destroyed again. This remarkable picture will be shown at Wonderland Theatre, Acton, on Friday and Saturday of this week.

David Tarswell Wins Fiddlers' Contest

In a Fiddlers' Contest at Aberfoyle this week, David Tarswell, of Arkell, formerly, of Acton, was declared the winner. There were four fiddlers in the competition and the judges, Reeve Brantley Day, of Guelph Township, and Dr. Meldrum, of Weston, had considerable difficulty in deciding the winners. It was finally agreed to give David Tarswell first place, Mr. Tarswell being especially commended for his rendition of the very difficult selection, the McDonald Reel. John Gilchrist, winner of the second award, was but a few points behind Mr. Tarswell. Hector McCaig and Isaac Hobson were tied for third position.

Expensive Wilful Damage by Boys

A sitting of the Juvenile Court was held by Judge Moore at Bronte on Saturday for the trial of three boys, eight, nine and ten years of age, who were charged with breaking into four houses of summer residents at the lake shore, and creating havoc with the interior and contents. Dressers and cupboards were ransacked and linens and bedding scattered about the floors. Ink was spilled over these and then the wilfully mischievous lads tramped over them. In one instance where the floors had been painted a few hours previously, flour was scattered and then tramped in. The lads frankly admitted their work. Crown Attorney Dick pointed out for the offence the Judge could send the boys to prison for two years. Considering the fact that the parents of the boys had done everything they could to make restitution by cleaning houses and having the soiled linen laundered, the Judge took a more lenient view of the matter. The lads were each placed upon probation for a year and required to report to the Township Constable weekly; to attend day school and Sunday School regularly and to work during the school holidays to earn money to repay their parents for the costs of the court and of effecting restoration.
