THURSDAY, JUNE 6, 1930

This and that

- June—the sixth month.
- 1930 will soon be half gone.
- June—the month of brides and roses.
- June is arranging for perpetual care in the cemetery.
- Head in your front of news. Early in the week, please.
- The big fishermen's Convention opens in Toronto next week.
- The long summer school holidays are just three weeks away.
- The tourist traffic is now moving in greater volume on the highways.
- Dublin Old Boys gather on July 1. A grand home-coming is planned.
- House 41 American bills are said to be in circulation.
- Classes in the High School commence next week for the examinations.
- St. St. N. 2, in Massawugon, is planning for a re-union of former pupils on June 30.
- Numbers of pupils of Acton schools attended the picnic at Eldorado Park on Tuesday.
- The old boys reunions and garden parties will be graced by the presence of the candidates for aze this summer.
- The roof is now being put on the new building of the Acton Machine Co. The brickwork and walls are all completed.
- The calcium chloride has been put on the streets that are not being repaired and is keeping the dust nuisance well in control.
- The motor traffic is getting heavier as the summer advances. Be your part to keep it free from carelessness and accidents.
- The removal of the fence around the Hydro station in Acton is quite an improvement in beautifying the surroundings.
- Mrs. Susanah Decker, Arkell, celebrated her hundredth birthday on Monday, the 4th inst. at her home, at Acton, for ninety-four years.
- Rev. C. E. Poole, R. D. of Acton, was a member of the Executive Committee at the Conference of the United Church of Canada last week.
- The Pass Paving has a splendid stock and is well equipped to supply the printing and wedding invitations, announcements, etc., for the June bride.
- Appointments of ministers in Guelph Westbury of the United Church included Rev. A. C. W. Foreman, at Acton, and Rev. M. O. Wainman at Eldon Mills.
- The cattle have been claimed. We will not need the advertisement again. Yes, Pass Paving advertisements bring results.
- Messrs. Boardman & Co. are selling a fine example in reforestation. They have set out 25,000 seedling trees, of various varieties, on their farm here this spring.
- The summer days—their pleasure in the pathless woods; their rapture on the lake's smooth shores; their society where a stone intrude, with happy thoughts of days of yore.
- The streets in town are receiving a liberal coating of splendid gravel in the municipal programme of improving and keeping in repair the roadways of the town.
- The Toronto Telegram, in a headline gives the startling information: "Dr. King, They Candidate in Hamilton County." It's early in the election to be getting all balled up like that.
- How the school kiddies do enjoy a holiday! The King's Birthday on Tuesday afforded another excuse for one, but then, you know, Tuesday is a holiday on Saturday this year.
- Three rarities were among the tulip bloom in the garden of Mrs. Wm. Waller. One stem had three blossoms and the other had two flowers; a third bloom was one that was nearly black in color.
- Amateur gardeners have been quite relieved since the dogs were tied up. Flowers and vegetables have a much better chance now. A few owners of the canine tribe are giving their dogs certain liberties which may yet prove costly.
- The Ladies' Aid of the Acton United Church will hold a lawn picnic and sale of baking on the church lawn on Saturday, June 21, afternoon and evening.

Why It Will Pay You to Buy TWEEDLE'S BLOOD-TESTED CHICKS

NEAR HOME

- 1.—You can see breeding stock and chicks at home.
- 2.—Chicks are more certain to live. Long railroad journeys are hard on chicks.
- 3.—All breeders blood-tested for the disease.
- 4.—Every hen headed with 12, 15, 18, 21, 24, 27, 30, 33, 36, 39, 42, 45, 48, 51, 54, 57, 60, 63, 66, 69, 72, 75, 78, 81, 84, 87, 90, 93, 96, 99, 102, 105, 108, 111, 114, 117, 120, 123, 126, 129,
