BAPTIST RALLY

Young People's Societies of the District Hold Rally at the Baptist Church in Acton

On Monday evening the Annual Spring Rally of the Baptist Young People's Union eastern district was held at the Baptist Church in Acton. Mr. Laird, of Georgetown, presided. The session opened with a short song service and a devotional period led by Rev. Mr. Hamilton, of Acton. The Hillsburg Union's orchestra was in attendance and rendered several numbers. A welcome was extended to the delegates from Brampton, Hillsburg and Georgetown by W. Coles, the President of the local Union. The District Secretary, Mrs. Smith, of Georgetown, read the minutes of the previous rally and meetings of the Executive, which were adopted.

Rev. Newcombe, of Calvary Baptist Church, Toronto, delivered an address, taking as his subject, "The Fact of God, the Fact of Christ, and the Fact of Salvation." The Community Clubs of Pingrove and Humber Summit were received into associate membership.

The new Executive of the district was presented to the gathering by the retiring President. They are:

Miss Barbara Plank, Acton, President.
Mr. E. Root, Hillsburg, Vice-President.
Mr. Stanley Cripps, Acton, Secretary-Treasurer.

Refreshments were served to the visitors at the close of the meeting.

Alt. Ex-Comp. B. G. Arnold paid his official visit to Durham Chapter R. A. M., Durham, on Tuesday evening. He was accompanied by his District Secretary, Ex-Comp. Geo. Brown, and Comp. C. H. Harrison, of Halton Chapter.

Mrs. Wm. Small, of Kilbride, wishes to announce the engagement of her youngest daughter, Marguerite Rosalie, to Kelly C. Sharpe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sharpe, Campbellville; wedding to take place the early part of July.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Gibson, Beardmore Orescent, attended the wedding of their daughter, Kathleen May, to James Fleming Mochrie, at Hamilton on Saturday. Miss Ruth Gibson accompanied them and sang a solo while the register was being signed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sutton, Hillsburg, Ont., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Isabel, to Mr. Daniel A. McDougall, son of Mrs. McDougall and the late Henry McDougall, Orton, Ont., the marriage to take place the latter part of June.

Miss Jessie Young returned from her vacation in Mendota, Ill., with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Meyers and Elaine, who have been visiting at the D. H. Young home, during the past week. Mrs. Meyers will remain during the absence of her father Mr. Young, who is enjoying a trip to Winnipeg and points west. Mr. Meyers will leave shortly for Ann Arbor, Mich., where he will do graduate work at the University of Michigan.

Entered Into Rest

DARIUS McCLURE

The funeral of the late Darius McClure, Brampton, was held on Saturday with a service at the Victoria Hotel, after which the remains were interred at Park Lawn Cemetery, Toronto. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in Brampton, marking the high esteem in which deceased was held. Rev. James Wilson, D. D., conducted the services at his late home, while Isuic Lodge, A. F. and A. M., of which he was a member, assisted at the grave. Rev. J. R. Fallis conducting the burial ritual of the Order. Rev. R. W. Allen, Brampton, assisted at Park Lawn Cemetery. There were nearly 100 automobiles in the cortege from Brampton to the cemetery. Mr. McClure was one of the best-known and highly esteemed residents of Peel County. Most of his life was spent in farming. For the past eight years he conducted the Victoria Hotel, with marked satisfaction. He took a keen interest in municipal and agricultural matters, and held important positions in connection with these activities.

JAMES ALBERT MURRAY

One of the oldest native born sons of this community passed away at Guelph General Hospital on Sunday morning, in the person of J. A. Murray, after a brief illness. For some time Mr. Murray had been affected with an ailment of the stomach which gradually grew more serious. He continued his business of a commercial traveller for weeks when he should have been resting. Finally, he was compelled to give up, and after a few days at home decided to go to the hospital for treatment. This eventually proved unavailing and on Sunday morning his spirit took its flight. James Albert Murray was the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, esteemed early settlers of this community, and was born here a little over seventy years ago. He spent nearly all his life in Acton and grew up with the town. He was an industrious, frugal man, and took good care of his earnings, and was successful in numerous business transactions, and for years has been regarded as a citizen of substantial means. He did his share in providing homes for residents when Acton was in need of more dwellings, and owns five houses on Mill Street. Mr. Murray was married to Ellie Smith, daughter of the late William Smith, and sister of W. D. Smith, who resided in Acton until his removal to Toronto a number of years ago. Mrs. Murray survives but is very ill at the present time. They had one daughter, Miss Florence, who, during the fatal illness of her father in the hospital, and the serious illness of her mother at home, had a trying task in spending time between the two of them. One brother, William, of Acton, also survives. The funeral on Tuesday afternoon was conducted by Rev. H. L. Bennie, M. A., assisted by Rev. C. L. Poole, B. D., the service being conducted in Knox Church. Messrs. A. T. Mann, V. B. Rumley, James Smith and Alex. Mann sang a quartette during the service. The pallbearers were Reeve Mason, W. H. Kerney, J. F. R. J. Kerr, A. T. Mann, John H. Kennedy and R. M. McDonald. Interment was made in the family plot in Fairview Cemetery.

MRS. WILLIAM WILES

A well-known and highly respected citizen of Acton was called home when Mrs. William Wiles passed away on Monday evening at the family home on Mill Street, after only a week's illness. Mrs. Wiles was taken ill only the week previous with pneumonia, and in spite of all that loving care and tender solicitude could do, the spirit took its flight. Nancy Barbara Eakin was born at Unionville seventy-two years ago last December and was a daughter of the late Geo. Eakin, who was for over twenty-five years Clerk of York Township. Forty-one years ago she was joined in holy wedlock to William Wiles, who predeceased her eleven years ago. Two children came to bless the home, Harold and Miss Laura, who have always remained at home and ministered with untiring attention to the comforts and wants of their parents, and the mother since the death of the beloved partner. For thirty-six years this family have been among Acton's best citizens, Mr. Wiles occupying a responsible position with the Beardmore Co. until his death. Mrs. Wiles was a bright little woman whose greatest joy was in her family, but she derived great pleasure in meeting friends at the store and formed a wide acquaintanceship. She will be greatly missed by this circle of friends and to Harold and Laura the sympathy of the community goes out in their hour of sadness. Only one brother survives her, Mr. Nelson Eakin, of Toronto. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, with a private service at the home, conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. L. Bennie, M. A., of Knox Church, Acton, of which Mrs. Wiles was a member, and whose services she enjoyed greatly when health permitted her to attend. Interment was made in the family plot in Fairview Cemetery, beside the beloved partner who had gone on before. A wealth of floral tributes testified to the esteem in which Mrs. Wiles was held and was tendered by Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn and family, Beardmore & Co., Mrs. W. D. Anderson and Jessie, Miss Laura Sprowl, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Doble, the Business Men of Acton, Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Rumley, Mr. Norman Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bowman, Lorraine Wilson, Mrs. L. E. Atkinson and girls, Miss Lena Hick, Mr. A. O. T. Beardmore, Mr. and Mrs. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Symon, Miss Bernice Reid, Dr. A. J. Buchanan, the Arrow Coach Line Boys and "the Guelph Boys," Messrs. Cecil Reinhardt, John Wurst, Wilfred Halmel, Ernest Halmel, Walter Dean and Mac Maude. The pallbearers were Messrs. R. M. McDonald, W. M. Cooper, W. K. Graham, Fred. Davidson, W. J. Patterson and J. R. Anderson, and the flower bearers were Messrs. R. Spellvogel, R. P. Watson, Dr. Buchanan, Jas. Mann, Alex. Mann and Wm. Moffat. Among the friends who attended the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Eakin, Mr. Martin Wiles, Mrs. Rae, Mrs. Darling, Mrs. Colombus and Mr. Rhymes, all of Toronto; Mrs. Brown and Mr. Redfern, of Allandale; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schneider, Brampton; Miss Meagher and Mr. Mac Maude, of Guelph.

MRS. JOHN LITTLE, Rockwood

On Monday evening, June 9, there passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Bell, Eramosa Road, Guelph, Susan McFarlane, beloved wife of Rev. John Little, in her seventy-first year. The deceased was of pioneer stock, being one of a family of twelve children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McFarlane, of Puslinch. Fifty-two years ago she was married to John Little, of Corwhin, later moving to Conn. Mr. Little then studied for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church and after his graduation from Knox College in 1893, they resided at Dornoch. Other pastorates where Mrs. Little labored as true helpmate to her husband was Chatsworth, Holstein, North Mornington, St. Helen, Rockwood, Barrie Hill and Conn. Just this month Mr. Little resigned from his charge at Conn and was moving his family to their former home at Rockwood. Mrs. Little, being in poor health, was with her daughter during the change, where she took fatally ill and was unable to be moved to her home. The deceased was of a most cheerful, happy and peace-loving disposition, and was universally beloved and revered by all who knew her. In all the charges where she lived and labored her beautiful Christian character and winsome, happy disposition exemplified the gospel which her husband so faithfully expounded. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her loss, one son, John, of Rockwood, and three daughters, Miss Janet at home; Mrs. J. D. Bell, Guelph; Mrs. R. H. Robinson, Toronto; and three little granddaughters; also three sisters, Mrs. R. Amos, Guelph; Mrs. J. Phillips, Vancouver; Mrs. G. Orr, Galt, Californis; and one brother, Mr. John McFarlane, Sacramento, California. The funeral service was held at the family home, Harris Street, Rockwood, on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock and was one of the largest ever held in that community, there being nearly three hundred cars in the funeral cortege. The service was in charge of Rev. W. J. Taylor, Rockwood, and almost every United Church minister of the Presbytery was present to extend their sympathy to their bereaved brother and his family. Rev. Mr. Dickie of Elora, and Rev. Mr. McDonald, of Wellington Street Church, Mount Forest, also took part in the devotional exercises. Addresses were given by Rev. Bradley, Guelph, Clerk of the Presbytery, and also by Rev. Mr. Lawson, Westminster Church, Mount Forest. Interment took place in the Rockwood Cemetery. The profusion of beautiful flowers bore mute testimony to the deep love and esteem in which the deceased was held and included wreaths from the churches of Conn, Woodland, Barrie Hill and Rockwood, as well as many from individual friends and relatives. These were carried by twelve girls from the Sunday School class of Mrs. J. A. Little. The pallbearers were six nephews, W. A. Little, Guelph; Dr. L. Little, Toronto; J. P. Little, Puslinch, Jas. A. Bradshaw, Conn; Bert McPherson, Galt; and Lindsay McFarlane, Corwhin. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the stricken husband and family in their mourning for the beloved wife and mother who will be so sadly missed by them all.

Designation Service of Miss Anderson

By the Guelph Presbytery in Knox Church, Acton—Missionary to Japan

An unusual and impressive service was held by the Presbytery of Guelph in Knox Church, Acton, on Tuesday evening, when they met to conduct the designation service for Miss Mary E. Anderson, who is to take up work for the Presbyterian Church among the Koreans in Japan. The particular reason for the holding of this service in the Acton church was the fact that Miss Anderson is not only a member of Knox Church, but has been brought up and lived in Acton and its neighborhood till the present time. The service was in the hands of the Moderator of the Presbytery, Rev. P. Mathieson, and the opening exercises were conducted by the minister of the congregation, Rev. H. L. Bennie.

After the Moderator had stated the purpose of the meeting, he called upon the Clerk, who in the absence of Dr. Cunnawyin, narrated Miss Anderson's record. The Clerk stated that Miss Anderson had received her early schooling in Acton Public School and Continuation School, then proceeded to Guelph Collegiate and Faculty of Education. After a short period of time she taught school in Acton for about eight years. After the death of a beloved mother, who had survived her husband for five years, Miss Anderson, with her natural instinct to help, felt that she could carry out the restrained desire of her heart to serve in the missionary enterprise of the Church of Jesus Christ. She then took up training in the Presbyterian Missionary and Deaconess Training Home in Toronto, under the principalship of Miss W. Ferguson, and there graduated last April, and having offered herself for the foreign mission work of the church, she was appointed by the Women's Missionary Society to work among the Koreans in Japan, and was now ready to be designated by the Presbytery for that work.

After this statement the Moderator called upon the missionary designate to come forward and put to her the prescribed questions; then, after Dr. A. J. McGillivray had offered up the designation prayer, the Moderator, in the name of the Presbytery, committed her to the work. He then called upon representatives of the Presbytery and the Women's Missionary Society to give the right hand of fellowship. Then Mrs. D. Strachan, President of the Women's Society Council, addressed the newly designated missionary, and presented her with a Scofield Bible, on behalf of the Council. The Moderator then asked Rev. A. C. Stewart, former minister of the congregation, and a friend of Miss Anderson, to address her on behalf of the Presbytery. Mr. Stewart first of all congratulated the congregation in that they had one of their own representatives in the foreign work of the church, and he congratulated Miss Anderson upon her courage and enterprise in this connection. He reminded her that perhaps all unknown, God had been fitting her for this service and that loyalty to home ties was the indication that now she could go and follow the Master's service and find Him not only a guide but a companion. After this the Moderator called upon the following to speak on behalf of the various sections of the church and congregation life and make their presentations. On behalf of the Presbytery Rev. M. H. Davidson spoke and presented Miss Anderson with a beautiful wardrobe suitcase. On behalf of the Guelph Presbyterial, the Vice-President, Mrs. Burnett, spoke and presented a portable typewriter.

On behalf of the Young Women's Auxiliary Miss A. Collier and Mrs. J. Doble voiced their appreciation of Miss Anderson and presented her with a Women's Missionary Society Life Membership Pin.

Then on behalf of the congregation the minister, Rev. H. L. Bennie, spoke, amid the tie that binds," and presented Miss Anderson with a beautiful Jaeger rug and fountain pen set from the session and congregation.

The service was then concluded with a hymn and benediction by the Moderator and afterwards the Women's Missionary Society of the congregation served a dainty lunch to the visiting members of Presbytery and their friends.

Miss Anderson, who is well known and beloved in Acton goes to Japan in the month of August to take up her life work there. She will be under the care of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Luther L. Young in Japan and will work amongst the Koreans who live in that country. She will have as her companion to the field another young missionary in Miss Gladys Murphy from the Maritimes. When she arrives in Japan she will labor together with Miss Jean McLean of Almonte and Miss Ethel Macdonald also from the Maritimes.

Decoration Day and Church Parade

Of Acton Lodge I. O. O. F. Held Last Sunday—Service in the Baptist Church

Sunday was the annual Decoration Day service of Acton Lodge I. O. O. F., No. 204, and Church Service. At three o'clock the Acton Citizens' Band led the Oddfellows in parade to Fairview Cemetery, and among the older members in the line were Mr. William Williams, who has belonged to the order for over fifty years.

When the parade arrived at the home of Mr. P. A. Smith it was halted, and while the Band played a number, two of the Oddfellows called on Mr. Smith, who has been ill for several months, and left a bouquet of cut flowers, and made a little fraternal call with him. Mr. Smith is a member of Bracebridge Lodge, but has always been interested in the activities of the Order wherever he was resident, and is an Oddfellow of about fifty years standing.

At Fairview Cemetery the ceremonies of Decoration Day were conducted by Bro. H. L. Ritchie, Past D. D. G. M., who outlined the duties of Oddfellows and the purpose of this annual event. The following graves were decorated by the brethren:

Bros. Geo. Hepham, Jos. Hansen, Hid. Cumbm, P. G., Thos. McClure, Robt. Garvin, A. McTavish, W. James, T. Shepherd, R. E. Nelson, Jos. Speight, Jas. McLam, P. G., H. Johnston, Sister Mrs. Jas. McLam, Bros. R. Bennett, R. Creech, D. Keith, R. Crane, A. E. Nicklin, H. Worden, P. G., Dr. J. M. Bell, B. McLaan, Chas. Akins.

During the ceremony at the graves the Band played several sacred selections. After the ceremony was performed the parade formed again and dispersed at the Lodge Hall.

On Sunday morning graves of brethren in other cemeteries were visited and decorated: Bro. Brown's grave at Prospect Cemetery; Bro. H. Maasks at Chirchill Cemetery; Bro. R. Somerville's grave at Limehouse; and Bro. J. Ross' grave at Georgetown.

In the evening the Band again led the parade of Oddfellows for their church service in the Baptist Church. The evening was warm and in a brief, pointed address Rev. Mr. Hamilton, the pastor, delivered a splendid address to the Order and the congregation assembled.

Mr. Hamilton's text was from the 7th verse of the second chapter of Hebrews: "What is man that Thou are mindful of him." The speaker's subject was: "Man's Relationship to God." He likened this relationship to seven links and pointed out how man was connected or related to God.

During the service a trio, composed of Mrs. Hamilton, Miss Graham and Mr. W. Coles, and a duett number, by Miss M. Locker and Miss Barbara Plank were appreciated offerings in the service of song. The parade was taken back to the Oddfellows' Hall on Willow Street after the service. Mr. W. J. Gould was marshall of the afternoon parade, and Mr. N. P. McLam of the church parade in the evening.

Chicken Thieves Busy Again

Last Friday night chicken thieves broke into the hen house of Mr. John Brown, who lives at Crawsons Corners, about two miles west of Acton, and stole forty hens. The culprits not only stole the hens but broke down fences and allowed Mr. Brown's cattle to get on the highway. Windows in the hen house were also broken and a general ruin made about the property.

The Women's Missionary Society of Knox Church

The members of the Women's Missionary Society of Knox Church held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon of last week, which was of unusual interest. It being the first meeting to have their new Honorary President, Mrs. H. L. Bennie, present, Mrs. Cooper, the President of the Society, spoke words of welcome to the new President to the speaker, Mrs. J. C. Wilson, of Toronto, and other visitors present. The most important part of the meeting was a paper on prayer which was very appropriate, on Pentecostal Week, given by Mrs. Wilson, wife of a former pastor, the late Rev. J. C. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson's talk was an inspiration to all who heard her, and will always be a green spot in the memory of the Society. A large number of the congregation, both from town and country, were present to hear Mrs. Wilson. Another feature of the meeting was a beautiful duett, "Peace, Peace, Wonderful Peace," sweetly rendered by Mrs. Armstrong and Miss Graham. Mrs. A. McTavish of Seaforth, a former President, Mrs. McLean, a former Treasurer, were present and added to the joy of the meeting. In the absence of their pianist, Mrs. F. S. Blow, Miss L. M. Gray ably filled her place at the piano. After the singing of their parting hymn Mrs. McTavish closed the meeting with prayer. The ladies of the social committee had everything in readiness to serve all with a cup of tea and appetizing lunch, which everyone enjoyed before separating for their homes, feeling they had a pleasant and profitable afternoon.

THE EVENING MEAL DIGESTER

Prodigal: Father, I've a notion to settle down and go in for raising chickens.
Father: Better try owls. Their hours would suit you better.
