

Births, Marriages and Deaths are only entered for at the following rates: Births, $1. Marriages, $1. Deaths, $1. Memorial Cards, $1. per line extra for poems.

DIED
MURRAY—At the General Hospital, Guelph, Ontario, June 15, 1920; James Albert Murray, husband of Elsie Smith in his 71st year.

WILLIAMS—At the family home, Mill Street, Acton, on Tuesday evening, June 10, 1920; Martha Eakin, widow of the late William Williams in her 73rd year.

MEMORIAL
OLIVER—In loving memory of Adolf Alfred Clark, who passed away June 10, 1920.

Sweet memories will linger for ever, These cannot change them, that's true, Yet that must never, never sever, Loving remembrance of you.

Heavily inscribed by HUGH AND PAMPHYL.

The Action Free Press

THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1920

Odds and ends

—Canada's sixty-third birthday on Dominion Day.

—Dominion Day at Dublin is just a week from next Tuesday.

—The new Hydro power line through town is almost completed.

—Have the energy that goes into worry and put it to work.

—Dominion Day means Dublin School reunion for this community.

—Actor plays at Georgetown in the return game there on Saturday.

—Just one week more until school out for the long summer vacation.

—The examinations of the High School have been in progress this week.

—The value of the week have been a great help to the crops and gardens.

—As 'tis with the sun 'tis with the stock market—it thrives on the sun.

—The High School Entrance examinations will be held on June 26 and 27.

—The municipal officers have repaired the depressions in the Mill Street roadway this week.

—Dublin re-united will be a great gathering of the former scholars and teachers on July 1.

—Some drastic tree trimming has been done along the highway to make room for the Hydro power line.

—New nailings have been erected this week at St. J. W. Jones' Hotel and White store, and Hazard's drug store.

—Be sure to see that your name is on the voters' list for the coming election, so that you may exercise your franchise.

—A great executive is one who hires able men and then goes fishing instead of sitting around to have them do the work.

—Invitations have been issued for the Old Boys' and Girls' of H. B. No. 3, Nassauway, to renew friendships at the old school on June 30.

—Tuesday was "Halton's day at the Ontario Agricultural College and quite a number from this district visited the institution on that day."

—The reunion of H. B. No. 3, Nassauway, will be a definite hit that will attract many back to "the scenes of former days" on June 30.

—Mr. J. G. Lindsay, of the Superior Store, was successful in winning one of the prizes in the Aylmer week contest for the best decorated window.

—It's the good old summer time. Moonlight nights, turned-out lights, cars parked on hill, sun with blue, what a must! Father pays the bill.

—Local towns were not made by men afraid to go, someone else got ahead. Everybody worked and everybody labored, and they raised their town from the dead.

—Acton Citizens' Band has been engaged to play for the L. O. V. Parade at Milton on June 29, and the Royal Canadian Legion Day Celebration in the Quinton Town Hall on June 30.

—An amateur hurried over town on Tuesday evening, evidently looking for a suitable place to land, but the Park was crowded with people and three or four games were in progress there.

—The girl in bloom in the garden at Mrs. D. C. Russell's, on Mill Street, has been making the past week. Mrs. Russell especially collects flowers, and the flower and the bloom has been prolific.

—The roof is on and the exterior of the new addition to the Acton Machine Co. is completed, and the door of the stock room, still. It is anticipated that part of the stock will be transferred to the new building this week.

—Acton Citizens' Band gave another solo performance on Sunday. They were assisted by Mr. Jas. Algie, solo cornetist; the solo trombonist; and the solo clarinet player of the Brampton Band, which is now the Peel and Dufferin Regimental Band.

PUBLIC UTILITIES MEETING

Transfer of $1,000 from Waterworks Account—Other Municipal Business Transacted.

The regular session of the Public Utilities Commission was held on Tuesday afternoon. Steve Brown, Commissioner, Mr. L. O. King and Chairman Kerr were present.

Accounts were ordered to be paid, as follows:

Hydro Account
Bell Telephone Co., $4.00
Geo. Lantz, heating contractor, $4.00
H. A. Cox, repair, .25
Jas. Symons, supplies, 1.00
P. McEachron, lumber, 1.00
The Old Mill, Ltd., supplies, $4.00
Standard Underground Cable Co., wire, 50.00
Mason Co., supplies, 11.07
$135.77

Waterworks Account
Acton Tanning Co., packing material, $1.00
Hydro Department, May operations, 83.69
$83.49

The Secretary was instructed to inform Mr. Woodcock that he would supply all material and labor to complete the main at Mill Street, if they would supply water under the usual conditions.

The public liability insurance as outlined at previous meetings was not to be undertaken at this time.

Moved by L. O. King, seconded by R. J. Stewart, that Steve Brown be a member of the commission to consider the construction of the Hydro Municipalities at Biggar Inn in July.

The Secretary was instructed to inform Mr. Woodcock that he would supply all material and labor to complete the main at Mill Street, if they would supply water under the usual conditions.

The public liability insurance as outlined at previous meetings was not to be undertaken at this time.

Moved by A. Mason, seconded by L. O. King, that $1,000 be transferred from the waterworks account to the general account of the town—Carried.

BASEBALL

Performance of Local Nine

HALTON LEAGUE

ANOTHER GAME LOOT

On Saturday, Acton and Georgetown met for the first time in the Halton League fixture. It was a glorious day where weather was excellent, and two teams were there even to a good crowd of fans and a hard ball score of 16-4 was run up. It was not a good game to create much excitement, but the visitors had a series of off-pitch hits, while Acton had a few periods off. Challengers had a decided off day and it only took one hitings to score a run, but the visitors were the ones that scored a half dozen runs.

Nell Gibbons shouldered the pitching for the locals, and the visitors had a few more runs, but the game was relieved by Walkers, Hall, for Georgetown, turned in seven innings, and thus Cole went in to relieve him of the last two periods.

Both teams had five errors while the locals are charged with not a one.

The damage was where the damage was done, and the visitors turned the game around maintained a safe lead all through the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone and son, Paul, of Toronto, had over some of our friends from Halton here.

Miss L. Ker, of Toronto Public School Miss, spent the weekend at the Parsonsage.

For many friends are glad to know

Mr. Louis Miller is now recovering from his long and serious illness.

Miss E. Hill has resigned as teacher of French at the Pleasanton School, and Miss M. Campbell, at present teacher No. 1, Kelt, has been engaged to fill her place.

Mr. and Mrs. Halliday and sons visited the Georgefford Inn Tuesday.

The Georgfford Inn, G. T. U. held its monthly meeting at Linchmere Parcours on Friday and completed plans for the County Convention to be held in the hall there on June 26.

Linchmere Mission Stand planned on Sunday and had a good time, with Excellent services were given by Rev.

Dr. Young at the anniversary services on Sunday, and splendid congregations.

The Chatsworth guarantees for

Georgetown and vicinity are organizing for the territory.

AUGUSTA

ACTON

GEORGEFFORD

HOLLOWAY

WALTERS

KELLY

LOWE

LEATHAM

OBIDSON

OBIDSON

TOTAL

GEORGEFFORD

HOLLOWAY

WALTERS

KELLY

LOWE

LEATHAM

OBIDSON

TOTAL

GEORGEFFORD

HOLLOWAY

WALTERS

&lt;p