The Value of Canada's Manufactures

The importance of the manufacturing industries of this country of ours is not generally realized by the average reader. It is therefore highly interesting to be officially informed that the 23,370 manufacturing industries of Canada in 1928 produced goods to the value of $3,769,850,364...

Another Year of Outstanding Success

Acton may well feel proud of its Public School and staff and its pupils. The High School Entrance Examination results, published last week, and the information given this week that among the highest standing taken by pupils in Halton County, the two leading ones were both pupils of Miss M. Z. Bennett, Principal of Acton School...

The Merchants' Won

The importance of the business men to a community was realized in Brampton when a petition from seventy-six of them had the parking law on the Main Street repealed and single parking on Queen Street, without any limit restriction was granted...

Murder in the U. S. A.

Since 1900, in 31 American cities with an aggregate population of 40,000,000, the homicide rate has doubled. Thirty years ago deaths from violence in these cities numbered five per 100,000 of population. Last year the rate was ten. The figures ranged from 86 for Memphis and 51 for Birmingham and Atlanta to 8.4 for Philadelphia, 7.1 for New York, and 12.7 for Chicago.

Keeping at It

Success in advertising, as in anything else, is a matter of keeping overlastingly at it. A business man should no more think of sporadic advertising than he would think of hiring sporadic clerks...
