ASTRAY WITH THE CALENDAR

JOSEPH E. ROOP

MR. Reverend Samuel Russell had been down his park, pushed the breakfast plate away, and looked back with a satisfied air.

He was a small man with a good countenance, and he was looking out of the window. "Mary," he called.

"What's the matter, Mr. Russell?"
she asked. "I'm not feeling well," he replied.

"You're not feeling well?" she asked. "I'm not feeling well," he replied.

"You're not feeling well?" she asked. "I'm not feeling well," he replied.

"You're not feeling well?" she asked. "I'm not feeling well," he replied.

"You're not feeling well?" she asked. "I'm not feeling well," he
replied.

MR. FRANK'S YOUNG CITY WELLS

"What's that the young fellow from the city?" asked Deacon. "That's the young fellow from the city," he replied.

THE NEVELL WAY

"Harriet, what are you doing with all that sewing?" asked Deacon.
"Harriet Nevell lifted her tired eyes...

"Harriet, what are you doing with
all that sewing?" asked Deacon.
