In 1011 he was called up higher. Theirs was a happy home. It was a Godly home, where the name of the Lord was revered, where the children were early taught that the "fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." It was a home where the minister had a cordial welcome, and where friends and neighbors were always assured a happy time. The Brick Church, just a lot away, was to this home a real House of God, and it had their, regular attendance and generous support. The passing of the husband and father of the home, nineteen years ago, left a and blank for the devoted wife. Shortly thereafter she came to reside in the comfortable brick residence prepared for her on Knox Avenue, and had for her companion her daughter, Miss Melissa.
