A Miscellaneous Shower

Last evening, Miss Laura Wilks entertained about twenty-five or thirty of the friends of Miss Lena Buck, when a miscellaneous shower for this bride of next month was held. A varied assortment of gifts were showered on the bride-to-be and a most delightful evening was spent by the friends of Miss Buck at this function planned in her honor.

Occupant Hurt When Car Forced to Brak

In attempting to pass another car on the Centre Road, in Caledon Township, Fred Churchward, of 439 Lansdowne Avenue, Toronto, was forced to ditch his auto to avoid collision with an oncoming vehicle. His son, Gordon, riding in the car, suffered concussion of the brain when the car overturned, and was taken to a Toronto hospital. Mr. Churchward was cut by glass and Mrs. Churchward and Miss Amy Fox, a passenger, suffered bruises. Miss Fox also required several stitches in her side and face.

Three Injured When Scaffold Collapses

About noon Monday, while John Maxted, of Milton, and two assistants, Samuel Kenney, of Milton, and Alexander Wallace, of Nassagaweya, were at work plastering the ceiling of a Milton theatre, the boards on the scaffold on which they were standing gave away, and the three men fell twenty-five feet to the cement floor. Mr. Maxted, who did not regain consciousness for several hours after the accident, suffered serious injuries about his head. Samuel Kenney had his right ankle broken, and Alexander Wallace had his nose and several ribs broken.

Whidden, Chancellor of McMaster University; and Archbishop McNeil are honorary Vice-Presidents of this energetic Association.

Discuss Third Highway for Lower End of County

Construction of a third highway between Dundas and Lakeshore highways was proposed by public officials at a meeting of representatives of the municipalities between Burlington and Toronto at a meeting at Oakville on Tuesday. The Hydro right-of-way secured some time ago was suggested for the highway. There was some controversy to this proposal as some of the delegates thought that the widening of the Toronto-Hamilton Highway would be as beneficial as the building of a new highway. No definite agreement was reached and another meeting was called when it is expected the Government will be asked to support.

Colors Presented to Girl Guides

At the regular meeting of the Duke of Devonshire Chapter of the I. O. D. E. held last week at the home of Mrs. G. W. Masalos, the Regent, Mrs. A. Mason, presented the colors to the First Acton Company of Girl Guides on behalf of the Society. On behalf of the company the colors were graciously accepted by Commissioner Mrs. (Dr.) J. A. McEwen, who very suitably "presented" the first-born son of H. T. LePage, the Hon. Howard Norton, who had won the I. O. D. E. prize for securing the highest marks in Acton at the Entrance examinations, thanked the Society for their thoughtfulness and encouragement in receiving this prize. At the conclusion of the meeting a dainty lunch was served and a social time enjoyed.

Left Without Paying

A trio of young men in a Ford car called at the City Cafe last evening and ordered up a full course meal. When it came time to pay they made their exit while the proprietor, Chew Sing, was absent in the kitchen for a moment. They had parked their car on Church Street, and not being familiar with the town tried to make an exit by way of the Beardsmore Leather Limited plant grounds. They were forced to come up Mill Street, and tore through town without lights on their car and the number so blundered with dirt that it was not legible. They hit the railway crossing on Mill Street and the rattle of the car as it rode the bumps at that speed could be heard for four blocks. The proprietor of the cafe promptly notified Chief McPherson, and he telephoned Chief Marshall in Georgetown to be on the look out for them, and gave chase in his car. They were not seen by the Georgetown Chief however, and made their get-away, and Chew Sing is out the price of three meals from a bunch of young chaps, who will undoubtedly pay dearly at a later date if they continue their lawlessness.

SCHOOL AGAIN

Ding-dong! Mercy, there goes the quarter bell! What a nuisance it is. Wonder where we stowed away those books last June?

—For the next fifteen minutes there is a great deal of hurrying this way and scurrying that—breakfast to be eaten, lunch to get ready; sister wanting her thick braids combed out, and brother turning everything upside down in an effort to find his tie.

Finally, everything being ready, we set out. From every street girls and boys—some skipping with joy, others dragging their feet—are now wending their way to the schoolhouse.

A few minutes before nine we swarm around the school, waiting for the doors to open. What a hubbub of tongues! All seem to be talking at once, and getting nowhere. New pupils, as well as lossions and holidays are discussed.

The last bell rings, the big doors are swung wide open, the Principal steps out; we form in line. After marching to our room the Principal interviews each pupil and advises as to what subjects to take and how many. Then the teachers come and tell you the books you need for their subjects. We are now dismissed for that day. The next day we settle down to work with high hopes and good resolutions.

People talk of the hard work and drudgery of school life, but we are truly glad when the time comes to begin the new school year. Mildred Watson (age 17) Port Dalhousie, Ontario.

[The above interesting and well-told tale of the re-opening of the schools was written by Miss Mildred Watson, of Port Dalhousie, formerly of Acton. She resides with her abler, Evelyn, at the United Church Parsonage, with Rev. and Mrs. Charles Hackett.—Editor]

NOVEL TRAVELLING DISPLAY AROUSES INTEREST AT FAIRS

Model Preston Steel Truss Barn, Colored "Rib Roll" Roofing and Siding Exhibited by Eastern Steel Products

Particular interest among farmers has been aroused at recent Fall Fairs in this district by the novel travelling display of Eastern Steel Products Limited, of Preston, Ontario.

Makers of products not easily displayed in practical use, this firm has built a model Preston Steel Truss Barn, covered it with their new Colored "Rib Roll" Roofing and Siding, and mounted the entire unit on a truck chassis. In this novel manner they have found a means of exhibiting their products with remarkable facility.

Part from being a "Tom Thumb" model, the Preston Steel Truss display Barn is 7 feet wide, 15 feet long and 8 feet high. The corners are equipped with eave-trough conductor pipe and one end of the barn is easily removable to permit interior inspection.

The use of colored "Rib Roll" roofing and siding has resulted in a most pleasing color combination. The sides of the barn are red, the roof green, the ventilators white, trimmed with green, and the window and door trim white.

There are now two of these travelling units on the road, manned by experienced salesmen and visiting many points at which fairs are held.

From the salesman in charge you can obtain folders, circulars, prices and all particulars of the new Preston Steel Truss Barns and colored "Rib Roll" roofing and siding.

A SONNET WORTHY OF A FRAME

Whistler, the famous artist was a severe and frank critic of art. More than once he succeeded in offending his colleagues by telling them just what he thought of their work. On one occasion his friend and artist Dante Gabriel Rossetti showed him a sketch and asked his opinion of its merits.

"It has its good points, Rossetti," said Whistler; "go ahead with it by all means."

Later Whistler inquired how it was getting along. "All right," said Rossetti, cheerfully. "I've ordered a stunning frame for it."

In due time the canvas appeared at Rossetti's house in Cheyne Walk, Chelsea, beautifully framed.

"You've done nothing to it since I saw it, have you?" said Whistler.

"No-o," replied Rossetti, "but I've written a sonnet on the subject if you'd like to hear it."

He recited some lines of particular tenderness. "Rossetti," said Whistler as the recitation ended, "take out the picture and frame the sonnet."

MOTORISTS be CAREFUL! The season for wet, slippery pavements is here and demands that special care be exercised by all drivers of motor vehicles. DRIVE CAREFULLY... and read carefully every word of this advertisement. THE Highway Safety Committee has been urging motorists during the year to exercise CARE, COURTESY and COMMON SENSE in the operation of their vehicles. The Committee appreciates the whole-hearted support its efforts have received from every source. We have had the best of co-operation from the Advisory Committee, which is composed of some of the leading citizens of the Province; from the press, from motorists and from pedestrians and, as a result, driving conditions have improved. Let us continue to be traffic conscious, and at all times CARE-FUL and COURTEOUS when driving. Severe penalties are provided in our motor vehicle laws for those who are careless or inconsiderate of the rights of other users of the highway. The Financial Responsibility Law which became effective on September 1st provides that the driver's license and all motor vehicle permits of a person convicted of any one of the following offences shall be suspended until proof of financial responsibility in the form of a certificate of an insurance company, a bond or securities is filed with the Registrar of Motor Vehicles. Chauffeurs, operators and owners of motor vehicles are warned that the provisions of this law must be applied in every case. ACCIDENT REPORTING The law now requires every person directly or indirectly involved in a motor vehicle accident, if the accident results in any personal injuries or property damage apparently exceeding fifty dollars, to report such accident to the nearest police officer. A penalty is provided for failure to so report. Remember your Personal Responsibility whenever driving a motor vehicle or you may be required to prove your Financial Responsibility.
