P. R. station here, and died in Guelph General Hospital the same night. Coroner Dr. H. A. McGill, of Milton, presided.

Public Speaking Awards Miss Charlotte McCulloch carried off two handsome prizes for the annual public speaking competition of Ashgrove Improvement Association last week, winning the mantle clock, donated by the Association, for the third time, and also winning for the first time the silver shield, donated by Georgetown Business Men's Association. Miss Pearl Brownridge won, for the third time, the silver trophy presented by Esqueping Township Council. The clock and the trophy were given for impromptu speaking. W. O. Brownridge presided. Judges were: A. B. Chisholm, J. Bonman, Milton, and A. E. Cordingley, Georgetown. Music was provided by Mrs. Frank Allitt, with Mrs. P. P. Behan at the piano, and recitations by Verna Downs, Milton.

High School Literary Society The regular meeting of the Literary Society of the Acton Continuation School was held on Wednesday, in the Parish Hall. The President, Oral Chalmers, presided over the meeting. The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada." After the chairman's speech, the previous meeting's minutes were read and adopted. The programme was put on by First Form pupils. The first item was a piano duet, by Margaret Arnold and Lela Cripps. Barbara Taylor favored the audience with a recitation. Dorothy Cox then amused the audience by her Highland dancing. John Nicol gave a humorous recitation, which was followed by a piano solo, given by Louise Leatham. A skit, entitled, "Proposing to Polly," was ably assisted by a few members of First Form. Two choruses were then given, "Betty Co-ed," and "Don't be Like That," by a few pupils. Barbara Taylor was called upon for a vocal solo. The critic, Rev. Mr. Poole, was called upon for his criticisms, which were well offered. After a vote of thanks to him, the meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Another $12,000 Fire in Erin On Tuesday evening Mr. Thomas Pines, fifth line, Erin, filled his lantern, to do the evening chores, and when he entered the shed, lighted the lantern and proceeded up the stairs to the barn, when he noticed the lantern acting queer, and when investigating it exploded with terrific force, instantly filling the building with flames, burning his hands, and face and had he not been close to the exit, he would have perished in the flames. Mr. Pines and his man were about to do the chores and fortunately all of the cattle and horses were still about the yard and in the shed, and all were saved except one cow, which failed to get out and perished in the flames. It is thought that Mr. Pines, in filling the lantern, got gasoline, in a mistake for coal oil, as he had cans of each in the shed. The Delco system in the barn was temporarily out of working order, thus the costly error. The barn, 60x85 feet, filled with the season's crop, approximately 400 bushels of grain, 500 bags of potatoes, many implements, and modern equipment, including Delco light, was rapidly consumed in the flames, which were fanned by a high wind and the sparks started many small fires along the fences. Several fires were started in the barn yard of Jas. Leitch, a neighbor, nearly half a mile away, and fear was felt for his property, until the sparks ceased to fly. The loss, which will be in the neighborhood of $12,000, with but a very small insurance, is a hard blow.

A PUZZLE Mr. Swivel was much perturbed to find that the three pounds of meat which he had purchased for dinner had mysteriously disappeared. His wife, adding to the search and noticing what she took to be a guilty look on the face of the family cat, pointed to it and said: "There's the meat." "Why, no," objected Swivel, "that little thing couldn't get away with three pounds of meat. Still, let's weigh her and find out." They did so. The scales registered an even three pounds. "Yes," he admitted in puzzled tones, "there's the meat all right, but where's the fat?"

A Nasty Collision

A nasty collision occurred at the corner of the third line west and No. 27 sidewalk on Saturday evening, when a truck, belonging to the Trough Bread Co., Inglewood, and driven by Lewis Davidson, collided with a car driven by Lantz Tate, Chatham street, with whom his father, David Tate, was riding. Both drivers were rendered dizzy by the impact, the older Tate receiving a cut on the head. The truck and the car were both considerably damaged. Davidson was making the turn into the sidewalk at the time the Tates were passing the corner.

Father, Son Convicted in Drayton Jail Break

Wilfred Mayne, young Drayton man, who last week surrendered to the Chelmsford police two days after breaking from the Drayton jail, was sentenced to 30 days in the Wellington County Jail on a charge of breaking custody. A charge, laid against the prisoner's father, Frank Mayne, of assisting his son in the escape, was withdrawn, but on a charge of obstructing a police officer in the execution of his duty, he acknowledged his guilt and was fined $50 and costs—the costs included damage to the Drayton jail.

The Renowned Passion Play

During the past summer tens of thousands of visitors from all over the world journeyed to Oberammergau, Bavaria, to see the wonderful play representing incidents in the life of Christ on earth. Among those who had the gratifying experience of seeing this renowned play was Miss Martha Brown, one of Acton's daughters, now in professional life in Toronto. Miss Brown has kindly consented to give an illustrated description of the play, under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church in the School Room, tomorrow (Friday) evening. It is expected many members of the congregation and others will embrace this rare opportunity of hearing Miss Brown's interesting description and viewing the pictures to be shown.
