

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

Interesting Items Concerning Other Centres and Communities in Which Many of Our Readers are Interested

BALINAFAD

Mrs. Peter Ferguson spent a few days last week at her parental home in Kitchener. Mrs. Alfred Soper visited with friends in Guelph last week. Rev. and Mrs. Atken visited friends at Palermo last week. Mr. Wm. Harding, who had his barn burned a week ago, is busy re-building another one. The Thank-Offering meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held on Tuesday evening, November 18. A splendid address on India was given. The ladies of the Society presented Miss Annie Shortill with a life membership certificate and pin at the meeting. There was a good attendance and a splendid offering. The ladies served lunch at the close of the meeting, and all spent a social half hour together. Mrs. English spent a few days last week with friends in Toronto.

GEORGETOWN

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bennett and son, Harry, of Port Carling, were visitors in town on Sunday. Mrs. Wm. Frampton and Miss Eva Frampton, of Toronto, were visitors in town on Monday. Mr. Edwin Glass and daughter, Jean, of Windsor, were visitors at Dr. Watson's over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hazelwood, of Toronto, spent the week-end with Mrs. J. Hazelwood. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cowles, of Toronto, spent the week-end at Mr. George Wright's. Work on the Park Improvement scheme has been commenced and a number of men are employed. The date for nominating candidates to fill the vacancies in Wards One and Three will be announced after first meeting of Council in January. A most enjoyable time was spent at Credit Lodge A. F. & A. M., last evening, when Worshipful Master Rowden, officers and brethren, of Campbell Lodge, Campbellville, to the number of about 40, paid a fraternal visit to Credit Lodge.—Herald.

OAKVILLE

The many friends of Mrs. W. D. Dewey, who underwent a serious operation in Wellesley Hospital, Toronto, last week, will be glad to know that she is progressing favorably. Rev. A. J. MacGillivray, D. D., of Guelph, who conducted anniversary services in Knox Church on Sunday, when a young man taught school in Trafalgar. Miss M. Scougell, Kincardine, who attended the Lupton-MacLeod wedding on Saturday, is remaining for a few days with Mrs. Harold Stirling, Palmer Avenue. Col. W. P. Eaton's three-year-old thoroughbred, "General Brock," won the Governor-General's cup for the best Canadian-bred three-year-old suitable for military remount, at the Royal Winter Fair. Mrs. John Hill sailed on Saturday for England, where she will visit relatives. Previous to going she was guest of honor at a tea, given by Mrs. Fred Hughes, Brant Street, when she was presented with a travelling rug and purse by friends.—Record. The new members of the Rotary Club had charge of the programme at the Monday evening meeting of the club. The speaker of the evening was Judge Munro. Oakville's handsome new Separate School will be officially opened on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock by Bishop McNally, of Hamilton.—Star.

ROCKWOOD

The afternoon tea and bazaar, held in the Town Hall Saturday afternoon, under the auspices of the Women's Association of the United Church, was well attended, despite the inclement weather. Rev. Mr. Mitchell of Guelph, conducted services in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday, in the absence of Rev. W. H. McCracken. Last week Messrs. George Gordon, Chas. H. Harris and J. A. Little were in the United Churches of Metz and Draco, in the interests of the Maintenance and Mission Fund. Miss Helen Pearson had as a recent week-end guest Miss B. Rorke, of Thornbury. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mutrie, of Meaford, were visitors last week with Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter and Mr. Harris Mutrie. A few week-end visitors: Miss Edna McPearen, of Dundas. Miss Oella Kelly, of Acton. Mr. and Mrs. John Locker, of Speedside. Mr. A. C. Patterson, of Montreal. Mr. Patterson was down east in and around Halifax recently, and also along the highway on the Atlantic seaboard for some 250 miles. A couple of the boys employed at the Woolen Mills had the misfortune to get a finger and thumb broken last week while at their work. The rain of Saturday night and Sunday was welcome, as the water supply in some cisterns was low, due to the long dry spell in the fall. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bolton, of Guelph, are making preparations to move to Rockwood and occupy the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Smith and Mrs. Walker, on Guelph Street. Mrs. Wm. Frank is moving to Toronto to join Mr. Frank and son, Paul. She spent the week-end with her daughter, Miss Veronica, R. N., Guelph.

BURLINGTON

H. K. and Mrs. Rowson, formerly of Burlington, are spending the Christmas holidays at Waverley Lodge, St. Saviour's Road, St. Jellie's Jersey, Channel Islands. On Thursday night a large sedan was burned on the Guelph line. Owing to the heavy fog, the driver of the car ran into the ditch. The man was able to crawl out, and escaped serious injury. Miss E. B. Modeland, of Youngstown, N. Y., sister of Mrs. Gordon Berry, New Street, was a guest at a conference on "Child's Health and Protection," held at the White House, Washington, D. C., last Wednesday. This (Wednesday) morning, a horse and wagon, driven by Wm. Aber, and a car, driven by Isaac Balmer, collided on New Street, with the result that the radiator on Mr. Balmer's car was damaged by coming in contact with the spring of the wagon. An accident occurred at Aldershot on Sunday afternoon, at 4:30, when a car, driven by Mrs. R. B. Butler, Port Nelson, "lowing down for traffic ahead, was struck in the rear by a car driven by E. G. Hall, 1773 Craighurst Avenue, Toronto. The rear bumper of Mrs. Butler's car, and the front axle and right fender of Mr. Hall's car were damaged slightly.—Gazette.

EMIN

Dr. Hisey, of Buffalo, N. Y., called on friends here on Saturday. Miss Ruby Walker, of Toronto, spent the week-end with her mother, here. Miss Bertha Hamilton, of Toronto, spent the week-end with her parents here. Mr. and Mrs. James Tarzwell returned home last week after spending the summer with their two sons, Roy and James H., at Tarzwell, Ontario. Mr. James Bedard, of Buffalo, called on friends here on Saturday. Mr. Bedard was an employee of Messrs. Eitel & Foster, several years ago. Mrs. Margaret Eagles recently returned home after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Woods, and Mr. Woods, at Collingwood. Mr. H. A. Gies returned last Thursday from the annual deer hunt in Muskoka. His party were in luck, for each member brought home a trophy of the hunt. Friends of Mr. Wm. Long will be sorry to learn that he was removed to the Toronto General Hospital, last Friday, suffering from an attack of pneumonia. We wish him a speedy recovery. Rev. P. J. Wel, rector of St. Paul's Cathedral, Ottawa, was the special preacher at All Saints' Church on Sunday last. Mr. Wel captured the hearts of all who were privileged to hear his inspiring address.—Advocate.

MILTON

Harold Agnew, of Nelson Township, whose car was recently destroyed by fire, purchased a new one on Friday. Ex-Mayor John Maxted, who was seriously injured a few weeks ago, is now able to get out again. J. P. Kiching, who has been organist and choirman of St. Paul's United Church, here, for the past year, has accepted a similar position in Knox Presbyterian Church, St. Thomas, at a salary of $1,500 per year. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Barnford returned on Saturday from a pleasant ten weeks' visit to relatives in England. Mr. Barnford's father returned with them, and will make his home here with his son. Mayor Syer has announced himself as a candidate for the Mayoralty in next January's municipal election here. He has had the honor for the past two years. It is expected that Councillor John M. Mackenzie will be his opponent. The many friends of Provincial High Constable Cookman will be pleased to know that he has been discharged from Christie Street Hospital, Toronto, where he had been seriously ill for several months, as a result of the Great War, and is now on duty at his office in the Farmers' Building, here. The members of the Milton Baseball Team, winners of the Intermediate Championship of the Ontario Baseball Association, and the officials of the Milton and Oakville clubs were banqueted by T. A. Blakelock, M. P., and Mrs. Blakelock, at their home, Church Street, on Wednesday evening last.—Champion. Mrs. A. J. Sloane, of Stratford, spent a few days here with her mother, Mrs. R. White, who is still on the sick list. Mrs. P. Beesoby, of Detroit, formerly of Milton, is visiting friends and relatives in town. At the Royal Winter Fair, Toronto, A. P. Walde, Jas. Morley and J. E. Timbers, Milton, won a number of prizes with their poultry. Hon. G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor for the Dominion, has approved of the grant of $5,000 to Milton for unemployment purposes. People with no stake in the town, but are here for what they can get out of it, dictating to the Town Council as to what they should do, is a sight for the gods. If they don't like the way things are done here, there are three or four roads leading out of town, besides two railway lines, so there is nothing to prevent them getting out of the town any day they may take the notion. The town will probably survive their absence.—Reformer.

—Dublin School Christmas Concert on December 18. 22-3

CAMPBELLVILLE

The annual church service of the Campbell Lodge, A. F. & A. M., was held Sunday evening to St. David's Church. Mr. Ross Carbert was home for the week-end. The weekly prayer meeting of St. David's Church was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Agnew. Mr. Robert Early will soon have his new garage completed. The monthly meeting of the Campbell Lodge, A. F. & A. M., was held, Tuesday evening. The play that was given last Thursday evening, in aid of the Roman Catholic Church, at Freeport, was a decided success. The regular meeting of the Young People's Society of St. David's Church was held on Monday evening.

NASHAGAWAYA

The Ladies Aid and the Women's Missionary Societies of the Ebenezer United Church held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. T. J. Diamond, on Tuesday afternoon, and elected their officers for another year. They are: Ladies Aid, Mrs. Sheldon Trousdale, President; Mrs. J. P. Kitching, Vice-President; Mrs. W. P. Darby, Secretary; and Mrs. C. Hamshaw, Treasurer. The Women's Missionary Society: Mrs. G. Lamb, President; Mrs. J. Marshall, Vice-President; Mrs. J. Moffat, Secretary; Mrs. N. Lillycrop, Treasurer. Messrs. J. P. Kitching and Arthur Diamond took the Boys' Bible Class of the Ebenezer Sunday School to visit the York Bible Class at Massey Hall, Toronto, last Sunday afternoon. The Public Schools are preparing for their annual Christmas concerts. Miss Mildred Wilson, of Knatchbull, visited her sister, Mrs. Win. J. Morley, of Milton, last week. Municipal election candidates are being talked of at the present time. There is likely to be a keen contest at New Year's for municipal honors.

LIMEHOUSE

Miss Elsie Davis, of Islington, spent the week-end at her home here. Mrs. J. Noble and Jack, of Acton, were week-end visitors with Mrs. C. Meredith. Mr. P. McDowell, of Acton, had a very exciting experience on Saturday at the third line crossing of the radial. His truck, loaded with a horse and some produce, was completely wrecked, but the horse was able to start for home after the accident, and Mr. McDowell escaped with slight injuries. Mr. Richard Marshall visited in Toronto last week. Mrs. Norton and Mrs. Mitchell represented the Women's Institute at the Royal York banquet in Toronto last Wednesday. A very pleasant birthday party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Millers, Sr., in honor of their daughter, Miss Gladys, on Friday evening. She was given many tokens of esteem, accompanied with hosts of good wishes. The programme given by Dr. and Mrs. Agnew and friends, of Toronto, on Monday evening, in the United Church, was much enjoyed. The Chinese market scene, with its fine Oriental robes and coloring and strange bargaining, was much enjoyed by old and young. The musical and literary part of the programme, contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Walker, of Islington; Mrs. Roden, Miss Johns, Mr. Johns and Dr. Agnew, of Toronto, was of a high order. The Sunday School of the United Church in practicing their Christmas entertainment.

An old Scottish woman, who had never been known to say an ill word about anybody, was one day taken to task by her husband. "Janet," he said impatiently, "I do believe you'd say a good word for the de'il himself." "Ah, weel," was the reply "he may na be sae gude as he might be, but he's a very industrious body."

We Have Been Asked CAN GLASSES BE SOLD AT $4.00 AND $8.00?

Yes, they can, and for less, depending on the Quality. We have some very nice Shell Glasses at $4.00, but we recommend a Higher Quality.

Tait Optical Co. 110 Wyndham Street GUELPH - ONTARIO

Capitol Theatre 3 SHOWS DAILY—12:30—7:00—9:30 GUELPH, ONTARIO D. McMULLEN, Manager

Thursday and Friday DECEMBER 4 and 5 "HEADS UP"

With Charles Rogers. Heads up on an evening of fast fun and tender love.

Saturday and Monday DECEMBER 6 and 8 "SANTA FE TRAIL"

With Richard Arlen and Mito Green. Bringing to life the characters of the Saturday evening Post story.

Tuesday and Wednesday DECEMBER 9 and 10 "SINGER OF SEVILLE"

With Ramon Naverra. A story with a lavish setting. "A Melange of Merriment."

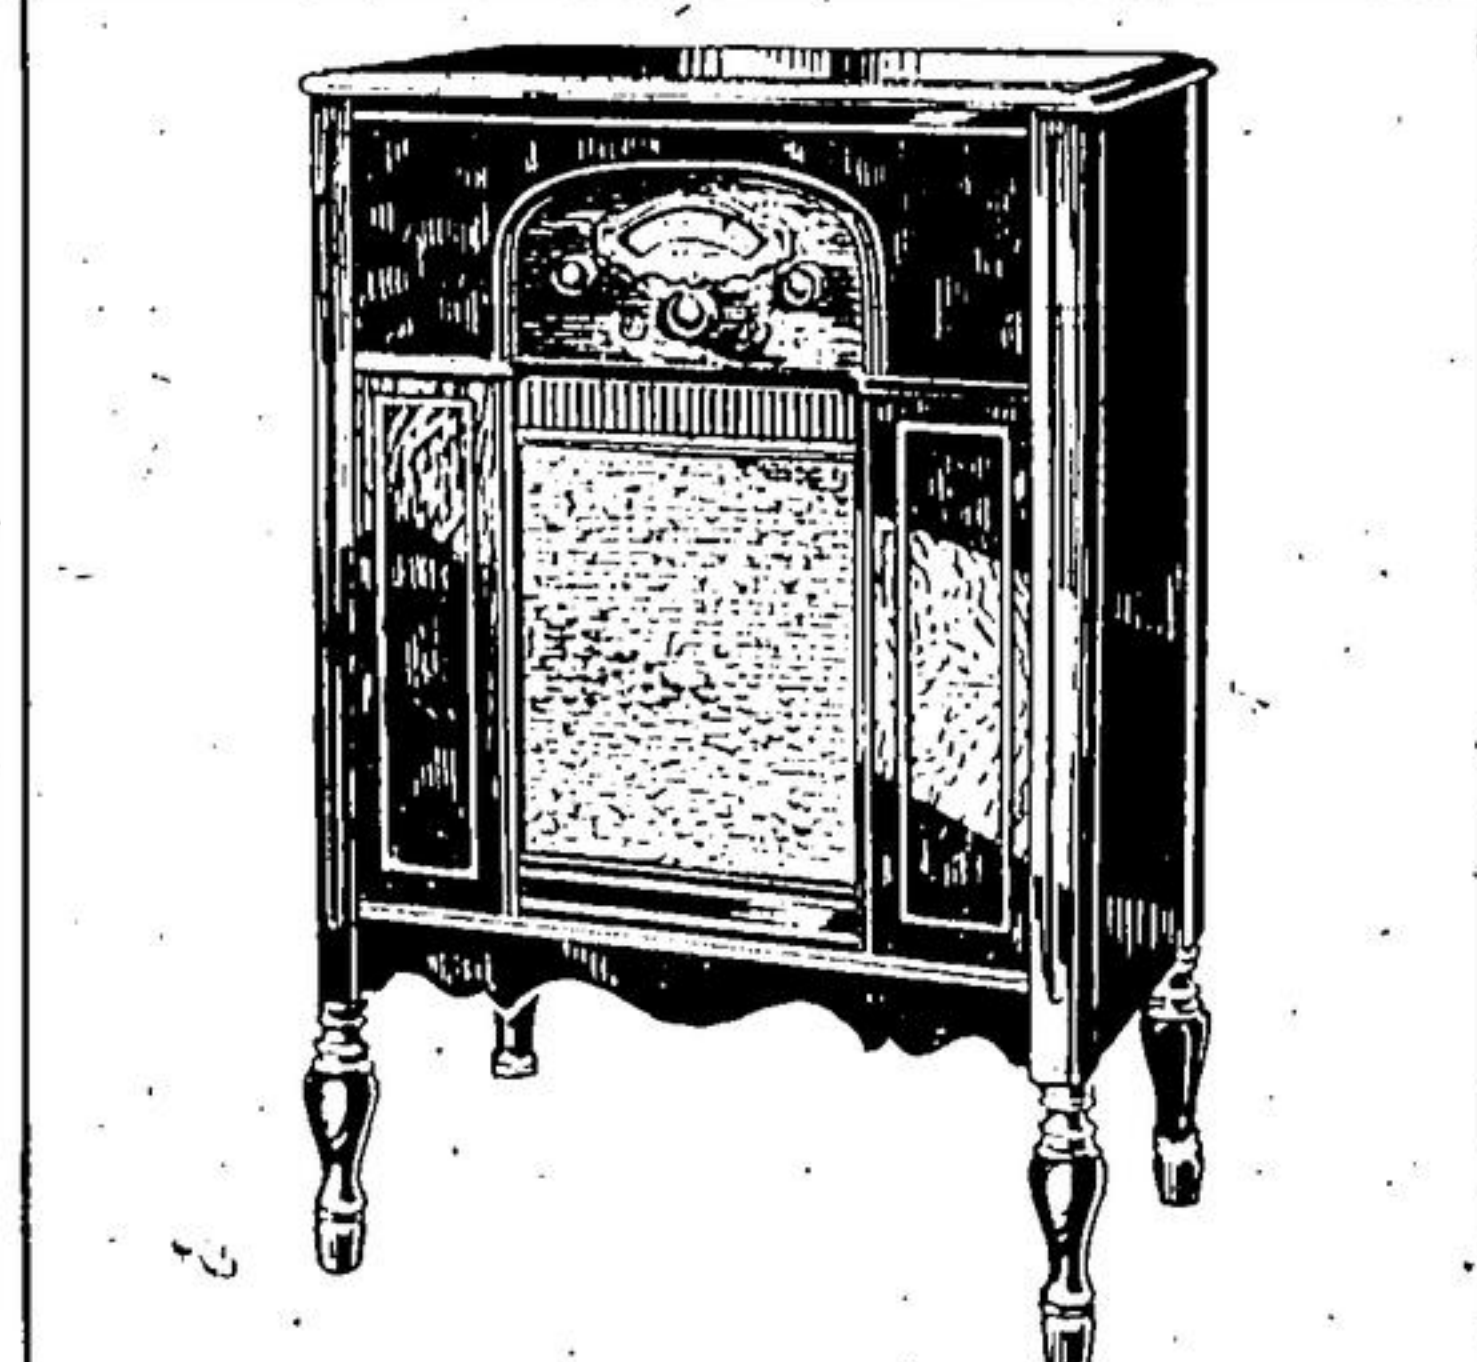

Thursday and Friday DECEMBER 11 and 12 "ANYBODY'S WOMAN"

With Ruth Chatterton. Married to a man who had never seen her in daylight. To a man who did not even know she was his wife. Romance—"In High."

Study Economy in Your Heating BURN NUT COKE AND PEA COAL

In Quebec Heaters, Ranges and Furnaces. You get more heat units with this combination and save four dollars per ton. Price delivered, per ton, $11.50. We handle Hamilton Coke—an all-Canadian product. If cash is paid with the order, 6% discount will be given.

J. B. MACKENZIE & SON N. McLEOD, MANAGER. PHONE 48

ATWATER KENT RADIO

YOU HAVE THE SATISFACTION OF KNOWING WHEN YOU OWN AN ATWATER KENT RADIO THAT NO ONE CAN OWN A BETTER RADIO

A Few Reasons Why—3,000,000 Satisfied Users—A Factory Covering 32 Acres—8 Years of Leadership

A. T. Brown ACTON, ONTARIO

Church Services

United Church of Canada ACTON

Minister—Rev. C. L. Poole, B. D. Parsonage—Willow Street

11:00 a. m.—The Minister. Subject: "The Product of the Church." 12:00 noon—Sunday School and Bible Class.

7:00 p. m.—Rev. J. Ure Stewart, B. A., of Paisley Memorial Church, Guelph, assisted by the Choir of Paisley Memorial Church. EVERYBODY WELCOME

Presbyterian KNOX CHURCH, ACTON

REV. H. L. BENNIE, M. A., Minister Parsonage—Willow Street

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7th 11:00 a. m.—Public Worship. 2:30 p. m.—Sabbath School. Bible Classes.

7:00 p. m.—The Minister. Subject: "Faith and Superstition." Third in a series of four sermons on "Common Conquests."

Note—The Christmas Entertainment and Tree, in the Town Hall on Monday evening, December 15, at 7:30 p. m. Musical Operetta, "The Christmas Toys Wake Up." Admission 25c. "ALWAYS WELCOME"

Acton Baptist Church

Rev. W. J. Hamilton, Pastor Parsonage—Mill Street

11:00 a. m.—The Minister. Sunday School and Bible Class—12:15 P. M.

7:00 p. m.—The Minister. Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—Prayer and Praise Service. ALL ARE WELCOME

UNCLASSIFIED Small Advertisements

Advertisements in this column 2 cents per word. Minimum charge, 50c per insertion. FOR SALE Three Holstein Cows, young, due at once. Right in every way. Apply ALVIN FISHER, Lot 8, Fourth Line Acton, R. R. No. 2. FOR SALE OR RENT Sunderland House, immediate possession. For terms, etc., apply J. CLARKE, 17-1f 89 Oakmount Road, Toronto. FOR SALE Slightly used Warm Air Furnace in first-class condition. Cheap for quick sale. Will arrange for installation if desired. 10-1f W. P. MOONEY. LOST Between Eden Mills and Rockwood, Tarpaulin for truck. Reward if returned to GEORGE RAMSLEY, R. R. No. 1, Campbellville. 21-2 AUCTION SALE Mrs. Mary McCeechill will hold a Clearing Sale of her Furniture and Household Effects on Saturday, December 6, at her residence, Main Street, Eglw. ROY HINDLEY, Auctioneer, Phone 1678, Erin. GROW MUSHROOMS Earn money weekly, growing mushrooms for us all winter in waste cellars, spaces. Light, pleasant work for either sex. Illustrated booklet free. CANADIAN MUSHROOM COMPANY, Toronto, Ontario. AUCTION SALE Walter J. Kentner will hold an Auction Sale of Household Effects at his residence, Church Street, Acton, on Saturday, November 29, at two o'clock. Electric Range, Two Radios, and Victrola included. R. J. KERR, Auctioneer. 21-2 AUCTION SALE Jas. Dujubar will hold a sale of his Driving Quilt, consisting of: Black Carriage Golding, a real good third horse for a farm; Duggy; Cutters; Harness; Ties; Blankets, etc., on Monday, December 8, at three o'clock. Hefferan's Corners, Everton, Ontario. ROY HINDLEY, Auctioneer.

Debts Collected

Our rates are less than those of other responsible firms handling collections exclusively; our experience is greater. NO COLLECTION—NO CHARGE KELLY & AIKEN The Collection Specialists Guelph ORANGEVILLE Owen Sound

Sale of Reconditioned Used Cars!

- Every Car Listed Here is a Real Bargain 1928 Whippet Four Sedan. Just like new. This car has very small mileage and has been privately owned. 1927 Star Six Coupe. A Bargain. 1929 Whippet Four Coach. 1928 Whippet Six Coach. 1930 Ford Coupe, only run five hundred miles. 1929 Ford Coach, small mileage. 1928 Essex Sedan. 1928 Essex Coach. 1928 Essex Coach, $150.00—a real bargain. Ford Chevrolet, $25.00, up.

J. H. McNally Norfolk Street Guelph Phone 1308

OLETT FURNITURE FOR... Everyone

It is indeed a problem as Christmas again comes around, to select what you think Father, Mother, Sister or Brother would like most for their gift. We have tried hard to buy and are listing below a wonderful assortment of Gifts that we feel sure will be appreciated by the entire family.

- Bridge or Junior Lamps, with walnut or metal standards, and a lovely assortment of shades, from $3.00 to $16.00. And we all know that "Mother" just loves a nice cushion. We have a wonderful variety of shapes and colors to choose from. And for "Brother," we have a lovely range of "Smokers," in the newest styles. Priced to suit any purse. And for the "Boys and Girls," Doll Carriages, Tricycles, Kiddy Cars, Tables and Chairs, High Chairs, Rocking Chairs, Aeroplanes, Automobiles, Blackboards, etc. A Few Suggestions: Cedar Chests, Walnut Chests lined with cedar, Hall Mirrors, in the new Venetian style, Buffet Mirrors, Chesterfield Tables, Foot Stools, Axminster and Wilton Mats, Inner-spring Mattresses.

"WE INVITE YOU TO VISIT OUR STORE" Johnstone & Rumley FURNITURE AND FUNERAL SERVICE ACTON, ONT. PHONE 30

Subscriptions for All Magazines Taken at The Free Press Office