DISMAL PROSPECT

A new view of the aeronaut's skill is that given in "A Winter Cruise in Summer Seas." An Irish balloonist once said to the author of the book: "We speak of the measure of his skill. It would be more to the point, I think, to speak of his descent, for those are the real tests."

THE WRONG BOND

There was a dear little baby on the train, and an old gentleman opposite said, "A fine child, maddan. I trust he will grow up an upright and honorable man."

STATIONARY

An inquirer asking Rastus about his native village: "Rastus, how many people live in this town?" "About 4,000 people, suh."

EXCURSION POSTPONED

Andrew Carnegie relates the following: "I once had a colored servant in my employ who had periodical fits of depression in which he always wanted to start at once for the promised land. One day he came to my library and told me that he was going to 'de golden shore' and had come to say goodby. I tried to reason with him, but it was of no use."

SURE OF IT

Caller (at telephone)—"Give me Main 3632. Hello; this is the wife—"

SINFUL PRIDE

Jack—"Dad, what are ancestors?" Dad—"Well, my boy, I'm one of your ancestors. Your grandfather is acquainted with the ancestors of W. J. Barr."

ROSES FOR THE HOME GARDEN

Everyone who has a garden wants roses in it and there is no reason why they should not have some. A rose bush will grow almost anywhere, except in a place where water lies. The roots object to being constantly wet. If the soil was not prepared in the fall, then dig it over well to the depth of eighteen inches and, if it is very poor, bring better soil from the vegetable garden to put around the roots.

There are several classes of roses, but the ones most in favor are Hybrid Teas. These can not be grown very satisfactorily in the coldest sections of this country, but in other parts, by giving some protection in winter, they do well.

Other classes of roses which are rather harder than those mentioned are the Hybrid Perpetuals. These make a great show of bloom in midsummer but have few, if any, blooms later.

Then there are the hardy bush roses which need no protection, such as the rugosa hybrids; Agnes, pale amber; P. J. Grosendorfer and Roseate de l'Hay, red; Belle de Poltevine, pink; Mme. George Brunt and Sir Thomas Lipton, white.

Of the climbing roses the following are recommended: Dorothy Perkins, Dr. W. Van Fleet and Chatham Rambler, pink; Paul's Scarlet and Crimson Rambler, red; Goldfish and Pemberton's White Rambler, white.—Isabella Preston.

IT WAS DUE HERE

Pinchme is a hard-hearted man. The spirit of Christmas never enters his body. His wife is different. Last Christmas she entered the dining-room with a troubled look.

BIBLE CLASS OF KNOX CHURCH HELDS BANQUET

Last evening the Men's Bible Class of Knox Church held an enjoyable banquet when between forty and fifty attended. Rev. Mr. Bennie presided over the programme, which followed the serving of the banquet and the singing of the hymns.

Milton Juniors Get Sweaters

Members of the Milton Junior O. H. A. team were guests at a dance, held in their honor in the Town Hall on Tuesday. The team was presented with sweaters by Mayor MacKenzie, Reeve Ramshaw and H. M. Fasken, President of the Hockey Club.

British Empire Trade Exhibition

The British Empire Trade Exhibition, which was opened at Buenos Aires in the Argentine, last Friday by the Prince of Wales, promises much in the revival of trade with the British Empire, and especially with Canada. The important address of the Prince was broadcasted and numbers of our citizens enjoyed this memorable speech, which they heard with rare distinction over the thousands of miles between here and South America.

Guelph to Get New Industry

Deciding to establish a Canadian mill at Guelph, to care for a steadily growing trade of men's hosiery in the Dominion, John H. Vogt, President of Noida and Hosiery, Inc., one of Reading's leading industries and the third largest hosiery manufacturer in the United States, made plans to move a large portion of the Reading mills to Guelph. The new mill will be known as Westminster Limited of Canada, with the production to be handled by Atlas Limited of Canada.

Aiming at Safety on Streets

A paragraph in the annual report of the Canadian National Safety League says: "Pedestrians should cross streets at crossings, should not Jay Walk nor walk from behind cars without looking for cars approaching in the opposite direction. When it is necessary for pedestrians to walk on the highway they should face on-coming traffic. Parents should educate their children to avoid fire, traffic dangers and should discourage them from playing on congested streets and highways."

Guelph Jobless Demand More Work

Unemployment provided a topic which dominated all the main features of last night's City Council, threatened to run the session into one of considerable length, and provided the main reason for a special session, which is to be called some time during the next week. A delegation representing a crowd of three hundred jobless, who gathered in the main auditorium, presented the case for themselves; the Mayor stated the situation as it is viewed by the civic authorities, and afterwards addressed a somewhat doubtful tempered gathering in the auditorium.

Hungry Guelph Burglar Steals Food and Beer

Guelph's provision burglar was again at work last week. After a lay-off of a week, the intruder turned up at the home of Carlo Volman, 71 Bristol Street, and made off with a large supply of eatables, including $20 worth of meat, eight dozen eggs, a quantity of canned goods and two cases of beer. Entrance to the home was gained through a back door leading to the cellar, as was the case in a couple of visits made to local residences the previous week-end. Two blocks away the Gleeman Brewery was also broken into and 15 cases of 4.4-beer stolen.

Fashions for the Smart Woman

NEW—FORMAL PAJAMAS

If you're a very smart hostess, fond of giving clever parties, you'll want to wear these formal evening pajamas the next time you entertain. Made in flat crepe or faille, in your most becoming colors, they are sumptuous—yet just gay enough to sound the right note for a successful party. This pair is very flattering. The pajamas are fashionably one-piece, with a soft crew neckline, a belt at the waist, and trousers as wide as a skirt at the bottom. And the wrap is positively regal with its fitted lines, its flowing sleeves, its train, and upward-dipping line in front.

CERTIFIED SEED POTATOES

"Whether potatoes are grown for seed purposes or table stock it is essential that high grade seed be used, since good seed is the basis of good crops and profitable markets." This is the premise with which the Dominion Botanist begins his discussion of the production of Canadian certified seed potatoes in Pamphlet No. 120, issued by the Dominion Department of Agriculture.
