BANNOCKBURN

The Bannockburn Women's Institute and friends of Mrs. William Graff met at the home of Mrs. R. Kerr on Wednesday afternoon, August 26, to present her with a miscellaneous shower. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode, followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. A. Dobbie gave two instrumental numbers, which were much enjoyed. This was followed by community singing, after which the following address was read by Miss Edith Russell:

Dear Betty: This is a very rare, event, in this district. We, therefore, thank Betty for giving us the opportunity of not only meeting, but expressing our good will and wishes, towards their outset in life, that is built up in anticipation, and we all like to see them reach their hearts' desire. We know Betty has been a very quiet and reliable young girl and one good advice we would like to emphasize to her is to join the Institute and help on in the work. However, Betty will need little advice, because in the absence of her mother, she has been well advised and instructed by Mr. and Mrs. R. Kerr, as she has often expressed her appreciation regarding her good

We know Betty will do all she can to make a success of her married life and make a good home for her husband, for a good partner is so valuable to a man in life.

Betty should feel proud this afternoon that so many of her friends have gathered together to show their warm feeling toward her and wish her to accept this shower in the feeling it is given;

Now we hope, as Betty looks over her presents, she may remember her good friends. As an Institute we all take much pleasure in wishing this young couple a long, happy and prosperous married life.
