COMBADESHIP

There is the loneliness of " crumbling friendship; Loneliness in cities where the strange folk go, And in the silence-that once rang with By gn ash-strewn fireside where the embers glow.

But there is friendship in the wind's cool fingers. Pellowship with little things like bees and butterfiles; And there is comradeship in the wi bird's volces. And in the mystery of a dog's deep

There is comradeship with strong trees, Up to the dream-world where Dawns go

And in the solitude and silence of the starlight, Underneath the great vault of the friend-
