"Excuse me, sir, but I am sixty-five years of age, and I have never tasted a drop of whiskey."

"Donna worry yourself," said Sandy. "You're no' gain' too start now."

When 'TIS FOLLY TO BE WISE

Young wife—"Oh, I'm so miserable. My husband has been out all evening and I haven't the faintest idea where he is."

Experienced friend—"My dear, you mustn't worry. You'd probably be twice as miserable if you did know."

BITE ON THIS ONE

An amateur fisherman in the State of Maine spent several hours at a lake where large sauger trout were known to be plentiful.

When he arrived at his hotel with an empty creel every one was astonished.

"Just hard luck," he exclaimed. "My float was under water almost all the time, and I could not tell whether I had a bite or not."

Here and There

One thousand men will be employed and over $500,000 expended in the large repairs to Cape Breton and Richmond counties, Nova Scotia, during the coming autumn.

Miss Pauline Garon, Montreal motion-picture queen, formerly of Hollywood, called on the Canadian Pacific liner "Montcalm" recently, to make pictures in England and France.

Salmon taken in 1930 from British Columbia waters totalled close on 37,000,000 weighing more than 216,000,000 pounds.

The New Brunswick Government is preparing to face the problem of unemployment on a practical basis this winter and has instituted a registration system through city and town clerks, who will gather full data as to out-of-work and their families.

Sir Lionel Plotcher, captain of the British rifle team, which competed against Canadian shots at Toronto and Ottawa, following the historic Hiley meeting, was warm in praise of Connaught Rangers, on his return to England.

The Queen's team will compete in Canada next year.

Queen Helene of Roumania and her sister, Princess Irene of Greece, gave British railroad officials a shock recently, by travelling from London to Scotland, third class.

The Queen smilingly declared that she was very comfortable and did not want people to know she was travelling.

The name of Admiral of the Fleet Earl Jellicoe has been added to the long list of distinguished travellers over Canadian Pacific steamship and rail lines.

"Hell-fire Jack," as he is affectionately called, arrived in Montreal on August 22, on the liner "Duchess of York," to open the Canadian National Exhibition, at Toronto.

They expressed themselves delighted with their stay at the Banff Springs Hotel, punctuating a journey from Montreal to the Pacific Coast over Canadian Pacific lines.

H. M. King Prajadhok of Siam, accompanied by Queen Rambal Barni and a numerous suite, with being seeing real western life, with the Banff Springs Hotel as headquarters.

He was recently made a member of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, following a pack-train expedition, and also attended a rodeo staged for him at Mrs. "Bill" Brewster's dude-ranch, at Kawansaskie, Alta.

He has also done considerable time in photography, golf and fishing.

NO STALE NEWS

"Didn't your paper say I was a liar?" "It did not."

"Didn't it say I was a scoundrel?" "It didn't."

"I'm positive some paper said it." "Perhaps it was our competitor in this town," suggested the editor. "Our paper doesn't print stale news."

MODERN STYLE MORE COMFY

Betty was taken to the museum by auntie. They went into the Egyptian room, and there saw a mummy, Betty asked what it was.

"That is some one's mummy, dear," answered auntie.

"Auntie," she confided, "I'm glad my mummy's not like that."

BREAKING THE HOODOO

Farmer—"I've arranged so we not to be caught by any drought this summer."

Friend—"What have you done?" Farmer—"Planted onions and potatoes in alternate rows. The onions will make the potatoes' eyes water and so irrigate the soil."

IDEAL

"You say you have no children, radio or dog. You seem to be the tenant I am looking for."

Prospective Tenant: "I guess I ought to tell you that my fountain pen speaks a bit."

DUBIOUS LUXURY

Visitor—"Well, Joe, how do you like Joe?" "Oh, she's all right, I guess; but there are lots of things we needed worse."

PRACTISED YELL

Padget—"Did you graduate from a barber college. What is your college yell?"

Padget—"Cut his lip, cut his jaw, leave his face, raw, raw, raw!"

SERVICE PLUN

Steno—"Your little girl wants to kiss you over the phone."

Boss—"Take the message. I'll get it from you later."

AUTO JOKES

A good steering wheel is better than a loud horn.

An auto maker advertises the bumpers as one of the "striking features" of a new model.

The automobile has brought former distant places closer and closer together, including our house and the poorhouse.

It takes 1,500 nuts to hold an automobile together but it only takes one to spread it all over the landscape.

The next thing for Ford and the other auto makers to work on is an automobile that will carry its own parking place.

One thing about the days of the horse, a second-hand dobbie was worth just as much, if not more, than a now one.

If these jokes were put in the stove, the fire would roar.

TOO OFTEN TRUE

Patient: "Can this operation be performed safely, Doctor?"

Doctor: "That, my dear sir, is just what we are about to discover."

Recipes for New and Novel Dishes; Household Ideas and Suggestions

(By Betty Barclay)

Dainties from Portugal

The cooks of little Portugal have furnished us with some excellent recipes and can teach us much about the art of seasoning. One of their favorite tricks is to use sugar with vegetables and even eggs to bring out the delicate flavor they desire.

Incidentally, the addition of this sugar adds to the energy value of the dish.

LIBRON EGGS

This combination of soup and eggs makes a delightful enough for the main course at luncheon or supper, or may be used as a beginning for an otherwise rather light dinner.

- 2 cups soup stock
1 onion
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon sugar
2 tablespoons bacon drippings
eggs
bait

Try the sliced onion in the bacon fat. Add the soup stock, vinegar, and sugar. Cook all together until the onion is soft. Have ready one slice of toast for each person to be served. Poach an egg in the boiling soup for each person. Arrange the toast in soup plates. Place a poached egg on each slice. Fill the plates with the soup.

CARROT PUDDING

This is a dessert well liked by those who visit Portugal. It is equally nice served with a pudding sauce or with cream.

- 1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1 cup raw carrots, grated
2 teaspoons lemon peel, grated
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ginger

Cream the butter. Add the sugar and slightly beaten egg. Stir in the carrots and grated lemon peel. Mix and sift the dry ingredients. Add to first mixture. Bake in a buttered pudding pan for one hour. Serve hot.

THE WRONG KIND

As Susan Brown was out calling upon her playmate, Mary Collins, she found the object of her visit very much in sorrow. Susan soon learned that Mary had a bad toothache.

"Try to comfort her, she asked: "Why don't you have your tooth filled?"

"It is filled," answered Mary. "With what kind of filling?" asked Susan.

"Chocolate filling," answered Mary earnestly.

TAKING TIME AND SAVING TIME

Very often we save time by taking time. Some people irritate their friends because they cannot be hurried into a decision. They are deliberate, taking their time to make up their minds about things of importance.

This careful foresight, however, avoids the necessity of beginning again. Taking time to be sure is always a saving of time.

SELF-DISTRUST IS WEAKNESS

Self-distrust is strength, but self-distrust is weakness. The man who shrinks from responsibility, who protests against all hard duties, who says, "I can't" easily, is the victim of something worse than modesty.

Do not cultivate doubt of yourself on the ground that modesty is commendable. So it is, but the distrust of yourself and your powers which paralyzes your efficiency is to be condemned.

NEW STYLE WANTED

Now that automobiles are being built with musical instrument attachments, we'd like to have one built like an accordion, for parking purposes.—Southern Lumberman.

PRACTICAL FATHER

"O'Keeffe—I guess you got a lot of silver for wedding presents. What did your father give you?"

MacNab—"Dad gave us a bottle of acid to test silver with."

TRUSTFUL PASSENGER

"All this talk about back-seat drivers is bunk. I've driven a car for ten years and I've never had a word from behind."

"What sort of car?"

"A hearse."

QUICK GROWER

A little girl who had been left to watch the soap was presently heard to sing out, "Oh, mother, come quick, the soap is getting bigger than the pot."

PROLONGED

"The examination seems to have pleased you, Doctor. I judge from your face that you can save my life."

Dr. Cuttem—"I can hardly promise you that; but I can see several interesting operations ahead."

PATH OF LEAST RESISTANCE

"When I was twenty I made up my mind to get rich."

"But you never became rich."

"No, I decided it was a lot easier to change my mind."
