DIED
GLEAN—On Friday evening, October 2, 1931, Annie Louise Glean, widow of the late William J. Glean, and mother of William Glean, Acton.

This and that
Thanksgiving Day—next Monday.
Give the County teachers a welcome to Acton.
Be not simply good; be good for something.

Entered Into Rest

MRS. E. A. TAYLOR
The death took place on Saturday of Mrs. E. A. Taylor, wife of the late Rev. E. A. Taylor, one time rector of Osgoode East, Waterloo and Osnagh.

DR. THOS. CHISHOLM, Toronto
Dr. Thomas Chisholm, who sat as Conservative member of Parliament for East Huron from 1904 until 1911, and who is widely known in this district, died in Toronto last week.

COMMERCIAL CANNING

Commercially canned products, either fruits or vegetables, have an advantage from the technical standpoint of being canned at perfect maturity and within a few hours of harvesting.

INSTEAD OF MAKING EXCUSES

Few things are worth less than excuses. They are time-wasters, wasters of energy. People who are good at excuses are not good for much else.

HE MUST HAVE DROPPED SOME

The night was dark, the path was rough, and the old fellow was in a state of unattractiveness.

CANADIAN SEED BEST WHEN GROWING PEAS

In view of the rapidly growing importance of both garden and canning peas as a commercial crop, the Dominion Seed Branch urge the economic value in using Canadian grown seed.

Success in growing garden and canning peas depends in large measure upon the quality of the seed used. Disappointing results have at times been experienced with this crop in Canada.

CHILDHOOD'S INNOCENCE

One of the charms of childhood is its innocence. The little child, fortunate in its home, knows nothing of the tragedy and evil of the big world.

ONE WAY TO KEEP DOWN EXPENSES

One way to keep down expenses is to teach your dollars to have more cents.

ADVERTISING HELPS

There's no telling how long Methusalem might have lived if he had had his appendix, teeth and tonsils out, used the right brand of tooth paste and smoked coughless cigarettes.

BASE IMPOSTOR

"Poor Ida, she got cruelly deceived when she married old Goldrox."

THE ONLY WAY TO FIND SUCCESS

The only way to find success without working for it, is to look it up in the dictionary.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK?

Some of the tales we hear nowadays about conditions in some countries read like a cross between a fairy tale and a East Highland.

DO NOT TRUDGE

A senator of the United States in his boyhood, attended a district school a good many miles from his father's farm.
