LIMEHOUSE

Miss Hazel Smith, of Alma College, spent the week-end at the Parsonage with Miss Lydia Caldwell. Mr. Ankenman, of Toronto, visited his summer home on Saturday, making preparations for winter. Mrs. T. T. George, W. C. T. U. Field Secretary, visited the seventh line and Limehouse schools this week, and gave the children excellent health addresses. Mr. Benton has taken over Mr. Scott's store, and opened this week with a general line of groceries. Mr. Norton is making improvements in his home, having the outside shored. Mr. Bryans has contracted, we are told, with the Hydro officials, for a line to his farm and will soon enjoy the better light and power service. Mrs. Cooke, of Collingwood, while on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Wm. Lane, of Limehouse, was suddenly stricken last week with a serious illness and passed away on Monday. On Tuesday evening a brief service was held at Mr. Lane's home, and on Wednesday the body was taken by motor to Collingwood for services and interment. Rev. Mr. Allen, of Ballinacraig, and Rev. Mr. Poole, of Acton, have been the preachers so far this week at the week-night services, being held in the United Church. Rev. Mr. Gandler, of Eden Mills, has been announced for Friday evening.

OSPREY

Miss Joan Robertson spent the week-end in Guelph with her cousin, Miss Doris Alton. Rev. J. Lindsay, of Whitby, a former pastor here, renewed old acquaintances here on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart motored to Kitchener in Sunday to visit the former's sister, Mrs. B. Towell, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Nell McMillan, Hillsburg, called on Mr. and Miss Kirkwood on Sunday. We are pleased to note that James Martin won the prize in the "Mercury Potato Contest." James is the son of Mr. Wm. Martin, fourth line. Misses Lorna and Reta Peavoy returned to their home in Oshawa last week, after spending some time with their grandmother here. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rodowald and Jean, of Charlton Hills, Ill., spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Robertson. Mr. and Mrs. A. Campbell, Hamilton, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. Wilson. The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. D. G. Robertson on Wednesday afternoon, November 4, with forty ladies in attendance. The roll call was responded to by a "Question Answer." A committee was appointed to buy flannel for to make pyjamas for the Children's Shelter. No delegate was appointed to attend the Provincial convention; funds equal to a delegate's expenses are to be used for relief work. A quilt contest was held, and Miss Ada Currie received the prize. A reading from Edgar Groat was given by Miss Margaret Cooke. A most instructive and entertaining address was given by Dr. Annie Ross, of the O. A. C. staff, on "Palestine." A social time was held at the close.

BALLINAFAD

While out driving with a car on Sunday, Mr. Campbell Glen had the misfortune to have his collar bone broken, also three ribs broken. The large became frightened of a cat and threw Mr. Glen off, and he was badly shaken up. Mr. Duncan Ferguson was on the sick list last week. We are pleased to see he is now able to be around again. Mrs. Moody and children, of Newmarket, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Moody's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harding. Mr. Snow, L. having his house wired for electric lights. Mrs. Elva Cox, of Michigan, was a visitor last week at the home of her uncle, Mr. Peter Cole.

GREENOCK SCHOOL

The following is the report of H. S. No. 8, Erin, for the month of October. Only the names of those who passed on every examination, and made an average of sixty per cent, are included in this report. Sr. IV.—Jean Mann, honors. Sr. III.—Marion Lewis, honors; Tom Forsyth, honors; Helen McCaig, honors; Lawson McCutcheon, Gordon McCowen, Jean Alken, Annie Halcovitch, Donald McNeil. Sr. II.—Irene Alken, Margaret Pascoe, Thelma Morrison. Jr. III.—Eveline McCaig, Eileen Johnston. II.—Wilma West, honors; Cyril West, honors. I.—Margaret McPhail, honors; Evelyn McCowen, Ival McCutcheon. Sr. Pr.—Helen West. Jr. Pr.—Bernard Pascoe. M. E. Crossman, Teacher.

CROWSON'S CORNERS

The farmers in district, who have a good average of fall wheat sown, are feeling optimistic over the recent rise in wheat prices. Also the good outlook for fair prices next season, owing to world crop conditions. Coupled with this comes the announcement from the Hardware Journal that harvest tool prices are to be reduced from November 1. Mr. and Mrs. Totten and family were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald's. Special mention is made in the zeal displayed by the returned soldiers fund by Mrs. Macdonald in the sale of poppies during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Pastor, Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. Frank Stevens, Mr. Edwin Brown, Mrs. Dean and Franklin, all of Toronto, have been week-end callers at Mr. Tyler's; also Mr. and Mrs. Page, of Georgetown. One evening this week Mr. Tyler was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Page at Georgetown. Last week, in reporting the fine musical program furnished here at the Sunday service, we inadvertently omitted the name of Mr. Little. We wish to rectify the error. The Guelph Salvation Army Officers were with us last Sunday and their usual good service of song and exposition of the scripture was appreciated by a good-sized audience. Mrs. Parker, of Acton, was organist for the Sunday School service. Rev. C. L. Poole has kindly offered to conduct the service the coming Sunday afternoon.

TERRA COTTA

Our new coal company expect to resume operations here this week and have a number of orders for coal now, and expect to run a double shift in order to keep pace with their orders. Mr. T. Laughlin is the chief promoter of the scheme. We are sorry to report that Mrs. Wm. Damon is on the sick list at present. We hope soon to hear of her complete recovery. Fall plowing seems to be the general order of the day. The Rev. T. J. Wilson, M. A., of Inglewood, will preach in the Terra Cotta United Church on Sunday evening next. The local quarries are still booming. Some new quarries have opened up, namely: Mr. J. L. Orsino is operating the Terra Cotta stone quarries here; Messrs. R. Puckering & Sons have opened a quarry in Mr. Glancy's property on the mountain; Eaves Bros. are conducting a quarry at Inglewood. With the recent rise in the wheat markets, the depression seems to be leaving, and we hope that prosperity is just around the corner. Mr. W. P. Hunter had his collar bone fractured recently. He is now able to be around again. Mr. W. E. Townsend met with what might have been a serious accident last week. While moving some brick machinery, he was struck on the head by a piece of the machine, which rendered him unconscious for a while. He is now able to be around again as usual. Mrs. W. Vance, of Brampton, collided with an apple truck on one of our intersections on Main Street last week. Both car and truck were slightly damaged. No one was injured. Mr. W. J. Stringer is laid up with blood poisoning in his arm. Mr. W. P. Hunter, who had his collar bone fractured recently, is now able to be around again. —Do not dump your woes upon people —Keep the sad story of your life to yourself. —Troubles grow by recounting them. —Send in your items of local news. They are doubly appreciated when received early in the week.

EDEN MILLS

Mr. Wm. Burton, of Duluth, was in Guelph, a few days ago, to see his mother, who is in the General Hospital at the present time. On Sunday, November 8, anniversary services were held in the United Church. Rev. Mr. Lee, of Alma, occupied the pulpit at both morning and evening services. His sermons were practical, and attentively listened to. The service of song was well sustained by a quartette of ladies from Rockwood United Church; also a solo by Mr. Taraswell, of Arkell; and at the evening service a mixed quartette rendered appropriate selections. The church was packed at both services. Mrs. Marjorie Gandler was home from Stratford Normal School over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Goodchild, of Hargill, called on friends on Sunday afternoon.

CAMPBELLVILLE

The Ladies' Aid held their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon in the Sunday School room of the church, with a record attendance of ladies. The meeting took the form of a sewing-bee, and they quilted four quilts to be sent to the needy in the West. These quilts were packed in a bale of other goods, valued at over one hundred dollars. Final arrangements were also made for the bazaar, to be held on November 19. Mrs. Thos. Mitchell has returned after a ten days' visit at study. Mrs. George Harris and Mrs. A. McMillan visited Mrs. (Dr.) McTaggart at Brookville on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Weir, of Hargill, visited their parents here on Sunday. Mrs. W. Elliot and son, Jack, have returned after attending the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Thos. Agnew, in New York State. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Menzies spent Wednesday visiting friends in Guelph. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norrish and Miss Mildred Norrish motored to Guelph on Saturday and Mr. Norrish attended the nomination meeting.

GEORGETOWN

A number of the members of Georgetown Fire Brigade attended the church parade of Humbercrest Fire Brigade at Toronto last Sunday. This has been a wonderful fall. On Friday last Mr. Bert Heaman, when out in the country, picked a bouquet of beautiful six-eyed dahlias. Mrs. Galloway and children, of Burlington, are visiting at Mrs. Laugan's. Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Roberts, of Royal Oak, Mich., and Mrs. White, of Drayton, Ontario, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. Blockford on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Long attended the dinner dance of the Central Ontario Bus Lines, held at Old Spain Hall, in Toronto on Monday night. When returning from his farm at Stewartstown on Tuesday evening of last week, Mr. B. H. McMillan had his right arm fractured when the car in which he was riding collided with a hay rack. Mr. McMillan suffered considerable pain from the fracture, but hopes soon to be around again as usual. The Ernest Warren concert in the Baptist Church on Wednesday night was even bigger and better than was proclaimed. In quality, variety, arrangement and generosity the programme was highly gratifying. Each of the six artists was a specialist. Mr. Ernie Warren, a great favorite in Georgetown, was the sweet melodious tenor, figuring in quartettes and solos.—Herald.

MILTON

Eldney Dick, John MacKenzie, John Blaney and Margaret Paiken were officiating at the Milton High School Literary Society on Wednesday evening. Mr. Justice Garrow was presented with white gloves by Sheriff Brown when Halton County fall assizes opened Monday. There were no criminal cases and one civil non-jury action. Mr. Chas. Bowring, who has been working on Hornby section of the C. P. R. for a number of years, has been transferred to Guelph Junction as section foreman there. He and his family moved there yesterday. One of our reporters paid a visit on Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Alf Hemstreet, who formerly lived in Milton. They live in a fine brick home that has lately all been renovated and the location is most desirable, being at the curve of the Acton and Guelph highway, and is a valuable property. Mr. Hemstreet has a fine farm of 60 acres, and an orchard that produces the very best in apples and other fruits. They have hosts of friends in Milton who will be glad to hear of their success in their new home town.—Reformer. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett and family, of Detroit, have moved to Milton, where in future they will reside. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Simpson attended the funeral of their cousin, the late Mrs. Emery, at Oakville, on Tuesday. Dr. J. T. Akins has returned to Montreal, after a three weeks' vacation here. Upon reporting for duty he was sent to England, for a short time. Mrs. Akins will remain with her parents here until his return. The eighty-first anniversary of Grace Church was strikingly observed on Sunday last by special services, recalling to mind the many changes that have taken place since the days when Canon Tremayne first organized the parish of Grace Church, with Hornby and Omagh attached and succeeded with much voluntary labor to rear as a House of God the frame structure now in use as a Sunday school.—Champion.

The Ladies' Aid of Church Hill are holding a Panacea Social at Mr. and Mrs. John Graft's on Wednesday, November 25. Everybody welcome.

IN THE AUTUMN DAY

"September is the month that makes me think of the old days," "Peace and Plenty." The year's race enough along so a farmer can reckon his increase pretty close; and it seems to me a man that can see orchards hangin' full, and crops coverin' the ground, and not be kind of glad and thankful, ain't much of a farmer, and not a great sight of a man either."—Caleb Peaslee.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JOHNSONS

Calabash was seated in his office when the phone rang. "Hello, is this Mr. Calabash?" came the voice over the wire. "Yes," replied Mr. Calabash. "Who is this?" "This is Johnson, Johnson, Johnson & Johnson, lawyers." "Oh, good morning, good morning, good morning, good morning."
