The monthly meeting of the Duke of Devonshire Chapter of the I. O. O. E. was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) O. L. Poole. All the officers were present at this meeting. A feature of interest was the presentation of the Society's prize to Norman Bralido, who took the highest standing in the Entrance Class of Acton Public School this year.

Three-Months Course for Acton

Mr. A. G. Kirtine, the Agricultural Representative for Acton, was in town this week making further arrangements for the three-months' short course which will be conducted in Acton this fall and winter. It is expected this event will commence in November. Already the event has created a great deal of interest and enrolments for the course are coming into the Agricultural Office in Milton. It is a most complete training for young men and women and all who should not miss this opportunity for self-improvement. The course is open to all, whether residents of the town or country.

A Case of Local Interest

A case of unusual local interest was tried in Milton on Tuesday before Judge Owen in the non-jury sittings. The matter had to do with the payment of guarantors' amounts owing to the estate of the late A. J. Murray, on the mortgage on the plant of the monument works in Acton, which has gone into bankruptcy. Two of the guarantors disputed the right to collect the amount claiming, it appeared, that they had not signed the guarantors' agreement necessary for bringing the Chequer Factory to Acton. Judgment was given against the defendants and the original amount owing of $500, with interest and court costs will have to be met by the defendants in the action. Quite a number from Acton were attendant at the action in the capacity of witnesses and others who were interested in hearing the case.

Important Business Change

Announcement is made this week of the sale of the general store to Acton, Ontario, to Messrs. R. H. and C. H. Elliott, of Comber. Possession has been taken and the store will be re-opened as soon as stock-taking is completed. The store will hereafter go under the firm name of Elliott Bros. Both these young men have had considerable experience in general store work and thoroughly understand the requirements of the public. Mr. Elliott, Sr., has been in business in Comber for many years, and his sons have been assisting him. They will be cordially welcomed to Acton in the conduct of this old established store. The business has only changed hands three times within our recollection. Founded by Christie, Henderson & Co., it was conducted by Henderson & Co. until purchased by Messrs. Conway & McLean, and later by Mr. Malcolm McLean, who conducted the business until his death, only this year. Messrs. Elliott Bros. come to the store with commendation, and in their taking hold of this old established business will undoubtedly maintain its reputation as a leading mercantile establishment in this community.

Canada Burning British Coal

To an unprecedented extent the Canadian household will this winter burn British coal, which is now piling up in huge quantities in Montreal harbor. The increase in imports of British coal is one of the outstanding features of the present navigation season. With average unloading running about 5,000 tons per day, a total of 691,670 tons of British anthracite were received from the opening of navigation in April up until the end of August. This total compares with 471,164 tons during the corresponding period last year. With three months still to go before the close of navigation on the St. Lawrence the imports of British anthracite have practically reached the total for the whole of the 1931 season. The report of the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal gives last year's total imports under the head of British anthracite as 692,012 tons. The figures for imports of British bituminous coal show an even more striking increase than those for anthracite. During the 1931 navigation season 36,688 tons of British bituminous were received whereas up to the end of August the unloading for the current season were 104,452 tons. The latter figure shows an increase over last year to the same date of 94,507 tons. For eight months of the current calendar year imports of British anthracite coal into Canada soared 60 per cent. beyond the mark established for the same period last year. Figures compiled by the Dominion Fuel Board show last year's imports to the end of August as 543,969 tons and for this year to the same date a total of 618,113 tons of British anthracite had been received into Canada. Imports of American anthracite have fallen off by a somewhat larger amount than the increase in the receipts of the British hard coal.

Canada Farm Statistics

The Canadian census reveals that there were 728,684 farms in Canada in 1931 compared with 717,090 in 1921, an increase of 17,574. There is a decrease in the number of farms in all eastern provinces and an increase in all western provinces, but the largest number is still in Ontario, which boasts 192,174 farms. There are 588,299 farms in Canada occupied by owners, 74,382 occupied by tenants, and 67,942 occupied by persons classified as part owner and part tenant. Of the total area of Canada only 11.67 per cent. is as yet occupied as farm land. In 1921 the percentage was 10.1. The most fully occupied province is Prince Edward Island, where 85.21 per cent. of the land is included in farms. At the opposite extreme is British Columbia, where only 1.57 per cent. of the land is included in farms. In the last ten years the size of the average Canadian farm has increased from 98 acres to 224½ acres. The smallest average farms are in Prince Edward Island (92½ acres) and the largest in Saskatchewan (408 acres), although, Alberta, with an average farm of 490 acres, is a close second. In every province the size of farms has increased during the decade. Value of farm property (land and buildings) is placed at $4,048,000,000, of which the value of the land accounts for $2,704,000,000. The greatest aggregate farm value is in Ontario, followed closely by Saskatchewan. The value of occupied farm land for all Canada is placed at $1,664,000,000, the value of improved land is placed at $213,520,000. In all provinces there has been a reduction in land values per acre during the decade.

Fined $100 for Wounding

Lionel Winters, Port Credit, was fined $100 and costs in Toronto Township Police Court by Magistrate E. J. Pallett, when guilty of a charge of wounding. The charge was laid by Sidney Belfore, Toronto Township constable, and Provincial Constable Joseph Allen, Cooksville, as a result of the shooting by Winters, of Frank Vottero, Port Credit, on September 14. Winters saw Vottero near his home and fired two shots without warning. The second shot penetrated Vottero's thigh. Crown Attorney A. G. Davis, Brampton, said that, although Vottero's actions on the night in question may have been highly suspicious, Winters was not justified in shooting without warning.

Softball Game Last Saturday

In an exhibition softball game, played in Acton Park on Saturday, between the K. Y. House Champions of 1932, from Toronto, and a pick-up team from Acton, the former won by the score of 11-3. It was a far closer game than the score indicates, as the locals were leading by 1-0 till the sixth, when the Champs got onto Weaver's pitching, and scored all their runs in the last three innings. The local boys did well, considering they had never played together before, and none of the team had played softball for over a month. The following is the team: A. Weaver, pitcher; R. Anderson, catcher; G. Huffman, first base; H. Mooney, second base; C. Spires, third base; F. Holloway, short stop; J. McGeachie, centre field; M. Smith, right field; G. Masales, left field; H. Lambert, left field.

The original demand was made for cheques made payable to the village and endorsed by the former Treasurer, Dr. S. H. Smith and the bank, but never credited to the village account. Cancellation of the account, presented the village by Fred Page Higgins and Co., auditors in charge of the village books since 1927, and refund of $600, fees for the years of 1927 to 1930 inclusive, was moved and carried by Council in an attempt to salvage as much as possible of the losses incurred by the defalcations of Dr. Smith.

Local Commission Objects to Exchange Entered Into Real

Amount of Over $1,300 is Left in Abeyance Until Enquiry is Made—Ontario Commission Made Charge Retroactive

At the meeting of the Public Utilities Commission on Tuesday evening, Commissioners Kerr and King and Reeve E. Thetford were present.

The Commission had examined the painting of the water tower and expressed their delight with the work that had been done by the contractor, Mr. F. Adams, of Norval. The painting of the letters on the side of the tank were a decided asset.

The Commission felt that they should not accept the ruling of the Provincial Hydro Commission that they meet the exchange rates on Hydro bonds, without protest. An account was received and the increased rates were retroactive to the first of the year. The account for exchange up to date this year was $1,330.57 and this amount was not paid, and left in abeyance until the matter could be investigated.

CHURCHILL'S NINETY-FOURTH ANNIVERSARY

Was Fittingly Observed on Sunday and Monday—Congregations Packed the Edifice on Both Days.

The ninety-fourth anniversary of Churchill United Church, on Sunday and Monday, were indeed an occasion of great joy to the congregation and the friends who gathered at this time to celebrate this momentous occasion. Congregations that taxed the capacity of this edifice joined in the services on Sunday morning and evening. Dr. R. G. Agnew, of Chengu Union University, China, was the special speaker at the morning service, and delivered a most inspiring gospel message. In the evening Rev. W. J. Fiddes, Ph.B. of Guelph, was the anniversary minister and gave his hearers a real gospel message. The minister, Rev. H. Caldwell, was present at the morning service. The church choir rendered quartette, of Kitchener, delighted the congregation with the part they took in the service of praise.

On Monday evening the ladies of the Churchill congregation served a chicken supper, and it was complete and so over-satisfying as only the ladies of this congregation know how to make them. It left many of those attending speechless with its over-abundance of good things. Judging by the crowd attending the event, the fame of Churchill for its hospitality was well known. There was a capacity audience.

Following the supper a very interesting programme was given in the auditorium of the church, presided over by the pastor, Rev. H. Caldwell. The Churchill Orchestra gave a splendid programme of musical selection. Rev. C. L. Poole opened the programme with a brief prayer and later addressed the audience. Vocal numbers were given by the church choir, Packer Brothers, Miss Lydia Caldwell, Mrs. W. Gowdy. Instrumental selections were given by the Orchestra, Mrs. Dobble, Mrs. W. Gowdy and the Packer Bros. Literary numbers were contributed by Miss Jessie Young and Mr. Roy Hindley. At the conclusion of this varied and enjoyable programme a resolution of thanks was extended by Messrs. C. B. Swackhamer and Smith Griffin to all who had assisted in making this anniversary occasion so successful.

Splendid Programmes by Chautauqua

Artists of Ability Put on Events Which Were a Delight to All Who Attended

The visit of Chautauqua to Acton this year was hailed with the usual misgivings that meet all undertakings under present conditions, but the concerts provided have left everyone in a delighted frame of mind and the guarantors who backed the event with only a small amount to make up to meet the expenses. The Sunday afternoon concert, given voluntarily by the artists who returned from St. Catharines, gave a fund of $32, which is being divided between the Poppy Fund for Acton and district of the local Legion, and the relief funds of Acton.

As we stated last week, the opening play, "New Brooms" was an outstanding presentation, and the programmes which followed were of the same high calibre. Vierra's Hawallans gave a musical evening which will long be remembered. A travelogue and musical programme in the afternoon, and a programme, with very suitable scenery and lighting effects in the evening made this presentation most enjoyable.

On Friday afternoon and evening Miss Dorothy L. Slison, bird warbler and whistler, Mr. Cavigny, crayon artist, and Hugo Brandt, follet pianist, provided features which were unusual and made a splendid programme. Judge Alden was a speaker with a message that will long be remembered by those who heard him on Friday and Sunday.

His personality is warm, quick, magnetic. He is big of heart, of brain and of vision. "Altitudes and Visibilities" his lecture was crammed full of rich human experience. It proved to be a valuable, happy, optimistic and helpful contribution. In reality, this lecture was a compound of exuberating humor and side-splitting stories, interspersed with strokes of pure logic and refreshing wisdom. In "Altitudes and Visibilities" the audience was taken to heights where the vision is sufficiently clear to see things as they really are. It was indeed refreshing to meet a man like Judge Alden, who, though ripe with the wisdom of years, has yet the boundless enthusiasm of youth.

On Saturday afternoon Sue Hastings' Marionettes were a delight to the children and to many grown-ups. The childhood stories illustrated and the sketches of delight and enjoyment of the children with the antics of the Marionettes, told of the appreciation of this audience.

"The Mender," the three-act play which was presented on Saturday evening, was just another of the same high standard of presentations. Luther Bradley, a crafty and greedy old man, has broken many lives. Only his daughter, an invalid, remains dear to him. He is about to crush his oldest friend, who from broken ties and pans to broken lives and hearts returns to his home which he left many years previous. The changes he brings about and the things that happen to him are many. Through his love affair with a wheel chair turns into a coach, an invalid girl becomes a princess—in fact, by the end of the play, everyone like a good clock is "ticking right," and all ends happily. The moral and the lesson behind the whole play was very noble and worthy of emulation and the players were artists of ability.

Following the last programmes on Saturday evening the local Chautauqua committee entertained the artists and a few citizens who had assisted and the members of the committee at a little informal banquet. The ladies provided a delightful menu. Following the banquet, with Rev. Mr. Poole as master of ceremonies, words of appreciation for the 1932 Chautauqua in Acton were spoken. On Sunday the artists of Friday evening came back to Acton and gave their services free for a sacred concert in the Town Hall that afternoon. It was another delightful event. Rev. C. L. Poole was the chairman and Miss Dods the local superintendent expressed—the pleasure it gave the artists to be of assistance in this effort to raise a fund for local relief work. Mr. Cavigny, the crayon artist illustrated several sacred songs which were rendered by Miss Ruth Gibson, Hugo Brandt, the follet pianist, gave some splendid piano selections with his usual pleasing style. Judge Alden again gave a splendid address, his subject being "The Health of a Nation."

It was a most forceful and learned exposition and the audience which packed the hall were tendered another treat. Several well-known hymns were sung and the presentation closed with prayer and the National Anthem. From everyone the Chautauqua visit of this year seems to be commended for the type of programme and the good entertainment they gave in Acton.

"Have you ever driven a car?" the lady applicant for a license was asked. "One hundred and twenty thousand miles," put in her husband, who was standing near by, "and never had a hand on the wheel."

Popular Couple Removing

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Salmon regret their removal to Bracebridge this week. Mrs. Salmon was a member of the Lakeside Chapter of the I. O. O. E., and always willingly took her place in community work. All regret their removal but wish them every success in their new surroundings and future undertakings.

With a splendid exhibit in all classes and an exceptionally fine showing of heavy horses, the annual fair of Esqueping Agricultural Society was held at Georgetown on Tuesday and Wednesday.
