BIRDS HOLD UP TRAIN Not long ago a bantam held up a train in a Yorkshire station. It had been strutting up and down the line, defying all efforts to catch it, and when a train came in the bantam disappeared beneath the engine. The train could not proceed until the bantam was dislodged, unhurt from its perch on the axle. A flock of starlings stopped a train in a curious manner. An engine ran into them while they were on the wing, and the impact knocked the vacuum-brake bag from its fastening, thus pulling up the train. Similar incidents are by no means uncommon. An engine-driver was startled by the smashing of his lookout window. He was cut about the face and stopped the train, thinking that a hold-up was being attempted. But the accident had been caused by a wild goose which had flown against the glass.

LIFE SAVING HINTS FOR HUNTERS With the opening of the 1932 hunting season, a list of life saving hints is timely. Hundreds of persons who go hunting are killed or wounded each year, principally through their own carelessness. Many kill or wound themselves or others in the pursuit of game. Common among the causes of fatality and injury are: pulling guns through fences; guns knocked down by dogs; uncased loaded guns in automobiles; accidental firing of guns through bottoms of boats; the hunters drowning with the sinking boat; accidental stopping up of the barrels with dirt; leaving obstructions in barrels, cleaning rags, rods and the like; carelessness in handling guns by letting them explode with barrel ends under water; shooting at movement without seeing clearly; and firing at game without looking beyond it in the line of fire.

LUNCH BOX SUGGESTIONS

Fortunately for the welfare of the nation, each day sees more lunch boxes being packed. More men and women are going to work, and of course the children are now back to school. When preparing sandwiches for the lunch box do not get into the habit of packing the same old sandwich day after day. Vary your fillings so that there will always be at least one surprise sandwich. A delightful filling is made by combining one part orange juice with two parts of cream cheese. Beat this to the consistency of thick cream. Orange juice combines especially well with dried fruits, such as chopped raisins, figs, dates and with chopped nuts to make flavorful fillings. Another delicious filling is made by combining one cup of butter and one cup of cooked shrimp pounded soft. Season with salt and Cayenne to taste, and moisten with ¼ cup lemon juice.

SAVED! The sentry halted as a figure approached out of the darkness. The figure turned out to be the officer of the guard. "Sentry!" he called, "you are smoking. I saw the glow of your pipe." "Me, sir?" returned the sentry. "No, sir!" "I suppose you don't deny having a pipe?" asked the officer. "Why, no sir," replied the sentry. "Here it is." The officer took it and found that it was cold and empty. "H'm!" he muttered, walking off. "I must have been mistaken. I could have sworn you were smoking." When he was out of hearing, the sentry took a still-warm pipe from another pocket. "That sergeant who enlisted me was right when he said that a soldier should have two of everything," he murmured.

THE EDITOR SMILED Dear Editor: My little dog was lost on Monday. On Tuesday I mailed an ad for your Wednesday paper and ten minutes later Rover came home. I can never explain how much faith I now have in your advertising columns.

Did You Ever Stop to Think?

By EDSON R WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

If you want to save when shopping, read the advertising columns of this newspaper.

I read in recent press dispatches that a radical socialist deputy has introduced into the Spanish Parliament a bill prohibiting the use of Kings and Queens in playing cards in Spain. He gives as his reasons that such symbols have no place in a Republican state. This is democracy run riot with a vengeance. Whether the bill will go through is another matter. We cannot imagine even a Spanish Socialist Government sitting in solemn judgment on such a measure, but we can imagine the deputy being condemned to swallow a whole Spanish onion for his frivolity.

There is very little hope in sight for the poor, blundering city that continues to grope around in the dark, not knowing what it needs or what it is seeking.

With the Political see-saw occupying the attention of the reading public, the talk of the actual business conditions of the country seems to have receded considerably into the background.

To the residents of each community, local affairs loom much larger than those that may develop in some foreign country.

It is the get-together, pull-together and work together effort of every citizen that makes a better city.

Some people are born knockers, while others acquire the habit.

You often hear of a city that is considered a live city. Very seldom do you hear of one that has the reputation of being a dead one.
