EDEN MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Boles and family have moved to Guelph, where they are taking up business.

On Wednesday afternoon the Women's home with a good attendance. After the usual opening exercises were concluded, correspondence and matters relating to last month's meeting were given attention. The Cemetery Committee asked for financial assistance in making some new flower plots around the 22 at the Guelph General Hospital, grounds, which was granted. It was agreed that the members would donate fruit, vegetables or anything that would be a benefit to the Children's Shelter, Guelph. Mrs. N. S. Marshall was appointed delegate to the Women's Institute annual meeting in Toronto in November. It was moved, second, and carried, that the Institute hold a euchre and dance in the Town Hall on Hallowe'en night, in aid of beautifying the cemetery grounds. Other business was discussed, agreed to and a committee member of the Church of Christ, Disbers engaged in community songs. Miss on Tuesday afternoon from his late A Tuck gave a recitation, "You Can Do It if You Try." Mrs. J. Marshall gave bors and friends gathered to pay their a talk on "The All Round Woman," and she concluded her remarks with Solomon's praise and properties of a virtuout wife. A contest essay was held, viz: "My Life's Ambition," in -100 words. Seven ladies entered the contest, Mrs. Marshall winning first prize; Mrs. W. Gilbertson, second. A copper contest was held, Miss A. Tuck and Mrs. J. Barden winning. The usual social half hour concluded a good meeting.

On Sunday anniversary services were McCutcheon, Everton, and three daughheld in the United Church. Rev. Car- ters, Mrs. Duncan T. McDougall, Torman Dyer, of Inglewood, occupied the onto; Mrs. A. J. Spence, Toronto; and pulpit, both morning and evening. In Mrs. Thos. Aitken, at home.
