ROCKWOOD

On Tuesday evening of last week the annual Thanksgiving of the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church was held. Mrs. Wm. Gordon and Mrs. Robt. Williamson were in charge of the programme. A couple of selections by the Ladies' Quartette were appreciated, and a reading by Mrs. Ernest Benham.

The chief item of the evening was an address by Mrs. (Rev.) George Atken, of Ballinafad, who impressed her audience with the importance as well as the joys and responsibilities of missionary work.

"During" the meeting a liberal thank offering was received and at the close a social time enjoyed by all with Rev. and Mrs. George Atken.

On Wednesday evening an interesting three-act drama, entitled "George in a Jam," was presented in the Town Hall by members of St. Patrick's A. Y. P. A., Guelph. Between acts musical numbers were contributed by George Torrance and Fred Meadows, and a recitation, "Man and the Mosquito," by Chas. Lehman.

On Friday evening, under the auspices of the young people of the United Church an interesting travelogue was given by Mr. Collins, conductor of Overseas Tours, Toronto. A good programme by members of the church, with Rev. W. J. Taylor as chairman, was given by the following: Prayer by Rev. W. J. Taylor; piano solo, Miss Margaret Thomas; solo, Dr. Waller; recitation, Miss Marion McCullough; solo, Mrs. Frank Hall; violin duet, Misses Dorothy Taylor and Ruth Peal; recitation, Miss Edna M. Pearen; solo, Mr. Campbell McArthur.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed at the Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. Rev. H. L. Bennie, of Acton, conducted the service. On Friday evening Preparatory Service was held by Rev. Mr. Bennie. During the service a baptismal ceremony was performed, when baptism was administered to the infants of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Weatherston and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnston.

On Sunday evening at the United Church the pageant "Challenge of the Cross," was given by Mrs. J. A. Little's class, before a large congregation. Mrs. Little's class acquitted themselves very creditably, and deserve much credit for their performance.

Rev. John Little is taking Rev. Mr. McLeod's place at Everton for a couple of weeks.

A few who were in the village last week:

Dr. E. F. and Mrs. McCullough and Miss Marion McCullough, of Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. LeVines, of Buffalo.

Miss Edna M. Pearen, of Dundas.

A few new residents have moved into the village lately. The house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Norrish Wilson was soon taken up by a new tenant. Mrs. Milroy's place, formerly the Strange homestead, is now occupied and a tenant in a vacant house on the Valley Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McArthur and family have moved into their new home, which they purchased from Mr. and Mrs. John T. Fitzsimmons, who have moved to Palmerston.

On Saturday evening a pleasant time was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bolton, when neighbors and friends of Mr. John T. Fitzsimmons gathered to bid them farewell. Rev. W. J. Taylor was chairman for a brief programme. During the evening Mr. D. D. Gray read an address and at the proper moment Mr. E. F. McWilliams presented Mr. and Mrs. Fitzsimmons with a clock. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzsimmons will be much missed in the community, where they have lived and been useful citizens. Mrs. Fitzsimmons' home has often been the meeting place for Mission Band meetings, also for the W. C. T. U., Women's Institute and also for the Women's Missionary Society of the United Church. Their many friends wish them success and prosperity in their new surroundings.

On Friday evening, Mr. Cyril Anderson, local sectionman on the C. N. R. during the past seven years, in company with his brother, Matthew, of Brampton, left for their home in Cavan, Ireland, to visit their mother. Their many friends wish them a safe journey and a happy Christmas in their old home, and will miss them back to Canada in March.
