Among the friends from a distance who attended the funeral of the late A. A. Worden yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell, Toronto; Rev. Mr. Frith, Georgetown; Mrs. Peter Smith and Mrs. Gordon Hayward, Toronto. Miss Marjory Davidson, daughter of Mr. J. S. Davidson, underwent an operation for appendicitis last week at Guelph Hospital. She is making favorable progress toward recovery and friends will hope to see her home in a few days.

Acton Defeats Guelph, Burlington

the rink. Although the rink was small, they had a fair gathering of fans. The first period got off to a splendid start as far as New Hamburg were concerned. Harris, the fastest of the team, scored the first goal after 45 seconds of play. He got the puck from the face-off and shot from outside the defence and Byrne never saw it. Right after the goal was scored G. Tyler received a penalty for a minor offence. Acton then held the play until Reid scored from a scramble in front of the Acton net, making the count 2 to 0. Acton boys were game, however, and went right back and scored one, Marzo getting the goal on a pass from Mooney. Marshall and W. Scherer each received penalties for mixing it up. The period ended with the score the same, with Acton having the edge of the play in the last few minutes. The second period started fast, Acton carrying the play, but the boys did not seem able to score. New Hamburg held the visitors' goal average down. "Smoker" Harris then came on the ice and scored, making it 3-1. After the third goal New Hamburg seemed to have the Acton boys dazed and worried. Marshall was the star for Acton, working hard and breaking up play time and time again. It was in this period that Mooney scored on a pass from Marzo, but it was not allowed, being claimed as offside, but looked to be otherwise from our viewpoint. The boys did everything but score in this period, and it ended 5-1 for New Hamburg. B. Gibbons received the only penalty for Acton, while Ernslie and Harris each had penalties for New Hamburg. Marshall started for Acton on the offensive, while Lawson seemed the best man for the defensive. Harris and Reid starred for New Hamburg, the former getting two goals and one assist, the latter getting three goals. A new face was seen on the Acton line-up when "Thos." Gibbons played in E. Marzo's place on the defence. It was "Thos." first junior game and he showed up well. New Hamburg looked like real contenders for the group honors and will be a hard team to beat. Acton showed up well, and with a year's training under their belt will be hard to stop. It was a long trip and a hard game, but the boys kept spirits high, and that is one of the main things. The line-up was as follows: Acton—Goal, Byrne; defence, Tyler, Lawson; centre, Mooney; wings, Gibbons and I. Marzo; subs, T. Gibbons, Lantz, McGeachie and Marshall. New Hamburg—Goal, Platt; defence, Bingham, W. Scherer; centre, Harris; wings, Reid, Ernslie; subs, Hann, Kropf, J. Scherer, Love.

Acton 5-Burlington 0

Acton Intermediate Hockey Team got another game nearer the group honors when they defeated Burlington on Monday night by a 5-0 score. With the locals getting their stride, it begins to look as if they will probably land a playoff berth if they continue the same brand of hockey shown in the last two games. The affair on Monday had a nice juicy ice surface for the performance and did not permit of the best brand of hockey. It was, however, possible to carry the puck and the game gave some lively moments, although Acton held all the way and had the best of a long way of the sixty minutes of play. It is two years since Acton and Burlington met, and the changes in the line-ups have not been great on either team. It was 8.45 when the Band played the National Anthem for the game opening. Just why the late starting seems necessary we can't understand, but it is getting quite usual and the Band is not to blame. Burlington got the first break to Acton goal, but it was ineffective. "Beet" McKay, of Hamilton, the referee, held the game well in check from the opening—an offside by inches could be detected by him. Neither team got through the defence at the start. Huffman got the first counter for Acton with a long shot from inside the Burlington blue-line. It looked like a soft goal and Lee, in goal, didn't handle it too well, but it was travelling, too. Acton put up the better team play and Burlington early showed lack of condition. C. Lee, on defense, hasn't improved his tactics in two years, and drew the first penalty. Acton had a couple of scrambles right on the Burlington goal, and it was from one of these that Arbie lifted in counter number two. Huffman and Arbie were playing their best game of this season. Walters also drew a penalty in this period. During the intermission the boosters of the Midget Hockey League distributed horns among the crowd, and what a noise! The horns were midgets, but boy, oh boy! when they all got going! The second period opened slow. Woods missed a nice shot by inches and Acton was placing plenty of shots well on the goal and outplaying Burlington. Woods was laid out and cartied off the ice. Connolly gave Huffman a dirty cross check with his stick across the neck that put him to the ice. When Huffman came to he attempted to settle the score, and both went to the penalty box. It raised a nasty welt across Huffman's neck and was pretty deliberately given by Connolly.

Entered Into Rest

Andrew Wilson, retired farmer, died at the home of his son, Seward Wilson, sixth line, Esqueting Township, on Sunday, in his eighty-first year. Deceased was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church, Milton, and was a Conservative. His wife died about two years ago. Surviving are two sons and one daughter: Seward, of Esqueting Township; Thomas, of Trafalgar Township; and Mrs. Charles McDowell, of Nelson Township. The funeral took place on Tuesday, with interment at Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

ALONZO A. WORDEN

Another life-long resident of Esqueting Township when Alonzo A. Worden passed away, at the family home at lot 32, second line, just a couple of miles north of Acton. Mr. Worden has been in gradually failing health for the past few years and for three months has been confined to his bed. He was seventy-three years of age. Alonzo Worden was a son of the late John and Jeannette Worden and was born on the Worden homestead—the farm upon which he spent his last days. All his life he has spent in this district where he has enjoyed the respect and esteem of everyone. A man of quiet disposition but of sterling integrity, he held honesty and virtue above the external things of this world. His greatest interest was in his church affiliation. He was a Senior Deacon of the Acton Baptist Church. Rarely indeed was he absent from the services of the church, when health permitted, and he was staunch and loyal in the support of all the work connected with the church. His familiar face will indeed be missed from the church home. His brother, Samuel, died in Georgetown just four years ago. One brother, John, in Ferguson, and his sister, Miss Margaret, at home, remain to mourn his loss and revere his memory. To these the sympathy of all is extended. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, with service at the Baptist Church, conducted by a former pastor, Rev. Mr. McAlpine, of Brampton, assisted by Rev. C. L. Poole, E. D. The pallbearers were Messrs. Jas. McIntosh, Wm. Worden, O. W. Murray, R. L. Davidson, C. Linham and John Allen. Interment was made in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

THE TWO GO TOGETHER

When you think of privilege, couple it with responsibility. You are not likely to have either without the other. The young people who join a club for the good times they will enjoy through such membership and have no thought of the debt they will owe, make poor members. Some of you young people have an exalted idea of your privileges as citizens, but your responsibility as citizens hardly enter your minds. Appreciate your privileges. Be grateful for them. When you think of them, however, ask yourself what responsibilities go with them.

Acton Defeats Guelph, Burlington

Banks and Walters also went to the penalty box for mixing it up and it was four men to a side. When Walters came on he placed a shot at Lee that nearly carried everything into the goal. The goal referee said it was in but the examination from the tangle by McKay decided otherwise and it was not allowed. Acton outplayed Burlington on every move in this period. Connolly drew two penalties and Banks one for Burlington, while Terry, Huffman, Walters and Greer, of the Acton team, were penalized. Score still remained 2-0. Greer, for Acton, was serving a penalty when the third period opened. Burlington missed their best chance of the whole game to score when Lee got through the defence and put Holloway down to save a score. Acton did not exert themselves very hard in this period to hold their lead, but kept up the occasional rush on the Burlington goal. Gibbons beat everyone but the goalie on a nice rush but failed to tally. Connolly drew another three-minute penalty for using the butt-end of his stick, and Arbie, of Acton, got a penalty in this period. Shots rained pretty lively on Lee, in Burlington goal, but he handled them nicely and there were no further scores. On night's play the better team won, but the score might easily have gone higher. The line-up was: Burlington—Lee, goal; Lane and Thomas, defence; C. Connolly, centre; P. Banks and H. Harris, wings; R. Banks, L. Tuck, McCallum, C. Lee; subs; Smith, sub goalie. Acton—Holloway, goal; Gibbons and Greer, defence; Terry, centre; Woods and Arbie, wings; Walters, Spooner, Huffman and Anderson, subs. Referee—G. McKay, of Hamilton.

HOCKEY NOTES

If Acton plays Burlington to-morrow night at Burlington or some place else, Percy Leuser, of Hamilton, is billed to be the referee. If Guelph Juniors and Acton play in Acton to-morrow night, D. Brush, of Milton, is to be the referee for the game. Monday night's game rather mixed up Group No. 6. Milton and Georgetown are fairly close for first place. Guelph and Burlington slipped badly as a result of their losses on Monday night. The Royal City entry is practically out of the running. Milton defeated the Georgetown-Brampton combines by 3-1 on Monday, and Oakville won from Guelph by 7-1. Seven seems to be a popular figure for Oakville.

IT WORKS BOTH WAYS

Young people who sometimes feel resentfully that their elders are over-particular about their conduct, should remember that they are just as particular about the conduct of their elders. The boy who is careless in regard to his own language, feels a sensation of angry disgust when he hears his father swear. A young woman who smokes cigarettes necessarily protested indignantly when her mother announced her intention of taking up smoking. This is as it should be. Sons and daughters have a right to respect their parents, and to ask them to conduct themselves in a way that will make respect inevitable. It is a most unpleasant feeling to be ashamed of your parents. It is also a most unpleasant feeling to be ashamed of your children. You have a right to expect your father and mother to live in such a way as to command your love and respect. Although this may be a new idea to some of you, they have the exactly the same right to expect you to conduct yourselves in such a way that their love and pride will be amply justified.

Watch for Bladder Weakness

"Have you had a hard cold, gripe or flu this winter? Then by all means watch and guard your kidneys and bladder for they are apt to be left weakened, clogged and sluggish from your illness." says Dr. Southworth, prominent practicing physician. Many chronic and serious kidney and bladder ailments start this way, and it is best to "nip" them at the start, before they get dangerous and hard to overcome. Watch for weakness or stiffness and pain in your side, back or loins, scanty or highly colored urine with sediment like brick dust, frequent desire, night rising, pain or pressure, inflammation or pricking, scalding sensation. If you have any of these symptoms, your bladder needs help at once, and you should ask your druggist for Dr. Southworth's special—Uratabs prescription which for many years has been giving quick, sure relief in just such conditions to thousands of people living in this section. One package—lasting ten days—can generally be depended on to get you functioning naturally again, and even the most stubborn cases find relief in nearly every case. This has been so often and thoroughly proved that Dr. Southworth tells every druggist to refund the price of the first package to any purchaser who is not completely satisfied with results.

ANOTHER BID

The auctioneer held up a hand for silence. "Gentlemen," he said, "I wish to announce that yesterday a certain gentleman had the misfortune to lose his wallet containing $1,000. A reward of $250 will be given to anyone returning the same." After a short silence, a gentleman with a plaid tam-o-shanter was heard to murmur: "Twa hoondred an' feefty-five." Christian Observer.

WITH THE MIDGETS

Fans Turnout to Support New Group—Some Likely Looking Hockey Prospects Show Up in Game—Double Header Good Feature

On Thursday, January 12, the Acton Midget Hockey League played the first two of a series of twelve games. The various teams were selected at the meeting on Tuesday evening. Considering the fact that none of the teams had any practice together prior to the games, there were two very fine games. For the duration of the regular schedule at least, the games will be limited to one hour. Each game will be composed of three periods of fifteen minutes duration, with five minute rests between periods. The first game, Barr's Parkviews vs. Bayliss' Crescents, was a good fast game. The final score was 1-1. Incidentally, there will be no overtime in the regularly scheduled games of this league. There was quite a bit of stage fright among the players during the first period. The boys were not used to the large ice and it was the first time most of the boys had played before a crowd. The equipment was not all it might have been, but the boys made out very well with what they had. One of the goal keepers could have wished for a better stick, but he managed very well with a substitute. There was not much action at first, but, as the period progressed, the boys warmed up to their job and played real hockey. About half way through the first period, P. Cross scored on a pass from J. Jones. It was a nice play, deserving of a goal. This finished the scoring for the first period. In the second period, play was fast, but the checking was effective on both sides and there were but few shots on the nets. There were no goals scored in this period. The third period began with the Parkview boys at last finding the positions for which they are best suited. The Parkviews carried the play for nearly eighty per cent. of this period. They had innumerable shots on the goal, and it was only the effectiveness of Footitt, in goal, that saved the Crescents. After about five minutes of play, Marshall, of the Parkviews, tied the score with a long, hard shot from just inside the blue line, which the Crescents' goalie failed to see or to stop. There was plenty of good, fast, clean play after this, but this ended the scoring. The line-up was as follows: Parkviews—Searrow, goal; Nicol and Hassard, defence; Marshall, centre; Switzer and Lambert, wings; J. Smith, G. Molozze, T. Hansen, H. Skilling, H. Price, J. Graham, subs. Crescents—Footitt, goal; Bayliss and Woods, defence; J. Jones, centre; E. Footitt and Cross, wings; L. Marzo, G. Tyler, R. Footitt, F. Jones, E. Buchanan, subs. The second game was between King's Three Stars and Talbot's Majestics. The Quasline Kids beat the Radio Boys 1-0. This game, although not quite as fast as the first, was productive of some good clean hockey. After the boys got their sea legs under them, they were going at a good clip. But, as one of the boys said, "When I stepped out on the ice, I couldn't think, I couldn't move, I couldn't even breathe." Perhaps that well expresses the feelings of all the boys when they first stepped out on the ice and saw the crowd. The boys are interested in the game and some real hockey players will be forthcoming from among them. A little more than half way through the first period, McGill, of the Three Stars, scored the only goal of the game, on a lone rush, slipping the puck past Atkinson, the Radio goalie. It was a nice play, and deserving of the goal, but it was hard luck for Atkinson, and spoiled an otherwise perfect game in the nets. In the second and third periods the boys were going much better than in the first, but they still need lots of practice around the net. Some good rushes were made by the boys, but neither team was able to score because of lack of finish around the goal. Possibly the most effective line on the ice during this game was that of Leishman, Ryder and Beattie, and even these need lots of practice before they will be material for our larger teams. One of the boys played a fairly good game, but he was slowed down considerably by a super-abundance of pads. He looked nearly as wide as he was long, and could hardly get started. He should play a good game with about half the baggage. The following were the line-ups: Three Stars—Brown, goal; Collins and McGill, defence; H. Cook, centre; Anderson and Nikolak, wings; Pappilon, F. Brown, Lasby, McEachern, Beebe, James, Joque, subs. Majestics—Atkinson, goal; Lazibny and Davidson, defence; R. Ryder, centre; Beattie and Leishman; wings; Latham, D. Ryder, C. Close, Holmes, Hall and Patrick, subs. So much for the games. Now for the boys on each of the four teams are too prone to emulate some of their elders on the two O. H. A. teams and tend too much to "hog the puck," to the future detriment of themselves and the teams on which they may play. It would be well for all the boys to try their hardest to overcome this defect. Now is the time to do it. Another objectionable feature, as had as the first or worse, and one the boys should try hard to beat, is the tendency to rough it up. Too many of the boys are inclined toward unnecessary roughness. Games cannot be won in the penalty box and a penalty is the punishment for rough stuff. Check up hard on this boys. Tonight there will be two games: King's Three Stars vs. Bayliss' Crescents, and Talbot's Majestics vs. Barr's

CUTTING

After a young lawyer had talked nearly five hours to a jury that felt like lynching him, his opponent in the case, a grizzled old veteran of the legal cockpit, rose, smiled sweetly at the judge and jury, and said: "Your Honor, I will follow the example of my young friend who has just concluded, and will submit the case without argument."—Montreal Star.

The city, which does not seek something better than it now has is going to lose out.

DESIRABLE KNOWLEDGE

Recently three leading men spoke at a meeting on the subject, "Things I Wish I Had Known Before I Was Twenty-one." Here they are. Every word is worth reading. I wish I had known: What I was going to do for a living—what my life would be. That my health after 30 depended in a large degree on what I put into my stomach before I was twenty-one. How to take care of my money. The commercial asset of being neatly and sensibly dressed. The expensive habits are mighty hard to change after he is twenty-one. That things worth while require time, patience, and work. That you can't get something for nothing. That the world would give me just about what I deserved.

THE WINNING SIDE

It is natural to want to be on the winning side, and that means the right side. You young people who are ready to trample your principles underfoot in order to attain success, have a mistaken idea. In the long run, no one becomes successful by disregarding his conscience; no cause succeeds that violates the principles of righteousness. If you want to be on the winning side, find the right side and stick to it through thick and thin.
