BORN
RYDER—At St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on Saturday, April 1, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ryder, a son, Edward Ronald.

GREYSON—To Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Greyson, of Erin, on Tuesday, March 28, 1933, a daughter.

DIED
WALTERS—In Brampton, on Monday, April 3, 1933, John Walters, formerly of Acton, in his 85th year.

NICOLS—In the Toronto Jewish Hospital, on Wednesday, April 5, 1933, Mrs. H. Nicols, in her 75th year.

This and that

—This is the last week of Lent.
 —Good Friday—a week from to-morrow.
 —Send to THE FREE PRESS a list of your visitors.
 —Now guess who No. 3 in the series is and what his weight is.
 —The farmers are now marketing this year's crop of maple syrup.
 —April has lived up to standard in the matter of spring showers.
 —The crocuses and snowdrops will soon be putting forth their bloom.
 —The sunshine and bright days make it appear that spring has come at last.
 —The back concessions are scarcely passable these days with the deep mud.

—There was many an ear glued to the radio long after midnight on Monday night.

—If you would shop to the best advantage consult the ads. before you purchase.

—The third Sketch appears this week in THE FREE PRESS Contest. Who is he? What does he weigh?

—New styles, best prices and where to secure them are told about each week in the advertisements.

—Somebody has suggested that for the next Local Sketch Contest we use drawings of the ladies of the town.

—Read the special announcement on Page Seven regarding the Local Sketch Contest. You can get in on the fun yet.

—Hog prices are advancing steadily. It looks as if the farmer will soon be enjoying conditions of a little improvement.

—The streets about town will require some attention with the grader and road drag as soon as the surplus water gets away.

—Jig saw puzzles may be amusing but they don't provide the prize that are also a feature of THE FREE PRESS Local Contest.

—A lot of folks are getting splendid results in selling farm and household articles through THE FREE PRESS small advertisements. The cost is small.

—Hockey fans in no centre other than Toronto received almost three hockey games for the price of one admission. Now we know why they call Toronto Hogtown.

—The monthly meeting of the Duke of Devonshire Chapter of the I. O. D. E. was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. (Rev.) H. L. Bennie. There was a good attendance.

A SMILE WILL DO IT

A judge who is famous for settling legal cases out of court says that if you can get two opponents to smile at each other, they are all ready to laugh. If once they laugh, the rest is easy.

Most of you undervalue the importance of a sense of humor in keeping matters on an amiable footing. If there were more laughter in your home, there would be fewer quarrels, fewer injured feelings. How many times on an average do you laugh before ten o'clock? That explains why you take it so to heart if the breakfast bacon is underdone. When you feel out of sorts at some member of the family or a schoolmate, try a smile.

POOR PUSSY

"What are the passengers leaning out of the windows for, conductor," asked the nervous old lady. "That chap at the other end of the room who had both legs amputated last week, gave me an example of it to-day. I stopped by his cot this morning and said, 'How are you feeling, Mike?' 'Well, doctor,' replied the Irishman, with a dry grin, 'to tell the truth, sir, I can't kick.'"

OUR NEWSPAPER

The expression, "Our Newspaper," is familiar. "We hear it," says the Fiction Gazette, "from folk on all manner of occasions by every manner of people." "Our newspaper told about it." "Our newspaper would like to publish it," and the greatest light comes over the face of a "pilgrim and stranger" when he comes across the old home paper in some distant place. A great many town residents would miss the local paper almost as much as they would the absence of a dear relation. The commercial life of the town would be almost paralyzed without this medium of conveying the home and store news. "I have visited a town or two who have lost their paper," writes an expert in business. "Each of these towns seemed like a cemetery." After all is said and done, and experts have studied long and hard on those things pertaining to advertising, it is the consensus of opinion that the home newspaper is the best advertising medium in the world.

HE COULDN'T KICK

"For genuine wit under the most adverse circumstances the Irish can't be surpassed," said the surgeon, as he closed his box of instruments. "That chap at the other end of the room who had both legs amputated last week, gave me an example of it to-day. I stopped by his cot this morning and said, 'How are you feeling, Mike?' 'Well, doctor,' replied the Irishman, with a dry grin, 'to tell the truth, sir, I can't kick.'"

ONLY HALF THE TRUTH

Many of you think of religion as comfort for the sad, strength for the feeble, a light for those entering the Valley of the Shadow. All this is true, of course, but it is less than half of fact; otherwise religion would be precious only to the sick, the sorrowful, and those whose early life is almost at an end. Religion is comfort for the sad, but it is also joy to those who are light of heart. It is strength for the weak, but it doubles the strength of the hearty. It is a light for those at the end of life, but for those at life's beginning it is a beckoning hand. Religion is a high adventure. It is a challenge to vigor and enthusiasm. It is as necessary to youth as to age, to ambition as to resignation. Do not think of religion as something important to you by and by. It is important now.
