PRESENTATION AND PARTY

Friends and Members of the Churchill Orchestra Honored Mr. Charles Landsborough Last Week

Last Wednesday evening the members of the Churchill Concert Orchestra and friends gathered at the home of Mr. Chas. Landsborough, Lake Avenue, in the form of a birthday surprise party.
The evening was spent in playing games, contests and music and then followed a bounteous lunch.
During the evening's fun the following address was read by Mr. Harold Swackhamer, and a beautiful bridge lamp was presented.

To Mr. Charles Landsborough
Dear Charlie:

It is with the greatest of pleasure and much to your surprise we hope that we, the Churchill Concert Orchestra and friends, are gathered here to-night to extend to you our best wishes for your birthday, and we hope that you may live to enjoy many more happy ones yet to come.
You, Charlie, have been the ever-faithful leader of our orchestra.
Through thick and thin, you have waded in, ever, always, to win.
Yes, you were our school chum who said "Ouch!" in class when snacked with an elastic band behind the ear by—"a friend."
And so as a token of appreciation and good wishes we ask you to accept this little gift.

May you be long spared to use it—and we shall be very grateful if in any way by its use it shall cause you to remember the friendships of bygone days.
Signed by the C. C. O. and friends: Harold Swackhamer, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Kerr, Marjorie Reid, Roy Johnston, Eiva Pearen, Laura Reid, Leslie Swackhamer, Edna Dyer, Nina Hunt, Chris Swackhamer, Joseph Hunt, Margaret Brown.

The Mission Band of the United Church, are presenting an Easter pageant on Easter Monday evening in the church.
Our road experience around Limehouse this winter and spring has been quite unusual. Never once during the winter was the road blocked by snow, and now while others are deep in mud, our road to the highway is good. Weather, lack of business, and better road making may account for it.

BURLINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. John Henley, of Weston, spent a few hours in town on Tuesday on their way to Rochester, N. Y. Mr. Henley is a former Burlington boy and still has a warm spot in his heart for his old home town.

Annex Camp, of the Gazette staff, received a deep gash on the back of his head at noon on Tuesday, when he was thrown off his bicycle as the result of a collision on Brant Street with a bicycle ridden by Jack Hicklin, Water Street. Camp was thrown over the handle bars onto the pavement, and was stunned from the tumble. Jack Hicklin escaped serious injury.—Gazette.

Back to Land Movement
Between October 1, 1930, and January 31, 1933, the Canadian Government Department of Immigration and Colonization, the Canadian National Railway, and the Canadian Pacific Railway, working together, have been instrumental in placing upon farms in Canada a total of 10,733 families. There were families already resident in Canada. On the basis of five to the family this means 53,665 persons. This family settlement was confined to those who had sufficient capital to establish themselves on the land. In the same period 23,253 single men were placed in farm employment. Adding these to the families, the impressive total of 76,918 persons actually placed on the land is reached. Simultaneously with this movement land settlement activities were being carried on by the Provincial Governments. In one year—1931—the Government of the Province of Quebec placed 5,694 families in farm settlement, and in the three years 1930, 1931 and 1932 the Government of Alberta granted 19,223 homesteads to residents of that province. Similar activities were carried on by other provinces. In addition there was a large landward movement entirely on the initiative of the individual settlers themselves.
