ROCKWOOD

On May 6, an interesting, quiet and pretty wedding took place in Guelph, at Norfolk United Church Parsonage, when Miss Mabel Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Richardson, Rockwood, became the bride of Mr. Robert Armstrong Bichan, only son of Mrs. Isabelle Bichan and the late Mr. William Bichan, of Vineland, Rev. F. E. Clydesdale officiating. The bride looked lovely in a smart grey cascade crepe gown, with long puffed sleeves and high neck line. Her hat was of grey basque, shoes and gloves in grey. The bride carried a bouquet of Talsman roses, tied with large white bow and streamers. Miss Evelyn Richardson, sister of the bride, wore a lake blue crepe frock, with matching crepe hat. Her shoes and gloves were of a soft grey tone, and she carried a bouquet of Sunburst roses, tied with blue organza bow. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Wyndham Tea Room, Guelph. The bride's table was decorated with deep red roses, nestled in pink tulle, pink candles in silver candle holders, and centred with the bride's three-story wedding cake. After the reception the happy couple left by motor for Toronto, Montreal and other eastern points, the bride travelling in a tea rose ensemble, with grey accessories. The best wishes of the bride and groom's many friends go with them in their new home at Sunnyholme, Vineland, Ontario.
Last week Mr. Andrew J. Elliott met with a serious accident. When engaged in stretching a fence, some portion of the chain broke, and, flying back, hit him in the leg, inflicting serious injuries.
