

BORN
BOOT—At Hillsburg, on Wednesday, May 24, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. John Root, a son.

DIED
LINEAM—At her late residence, lot 23, third line, Esquimaux Township, on Monday, May 29, 1933, Beatrice Thomas, beloved wife of Robert W. Linham, in her 51st year.

IN MEMORIAM
MULLIN—In loving memory of Mrs. William R. Mullin, who died May 30, 1931.
'Deep in our hearts, you are fondly remembered. Sweet happy memories cling round your name.'

HUSBAND AND FAMILY.

This and that
—June, the month of roses and brides, is now here.

—Saturday is the King's Birthday, and a bank holiday.

—Almonte Council has struck the rate for the year at 65 mills.

—The lilac bloom has been particularly fragrant the past week.

—The cool weather of the past few nights almost bordered on a frost.

—Mr. Jack Barber is repainting the exterior of the home on Mill Street.

—Some have and some haven't adopted daylight saving time in Acton.

—The frequent rains are certainly bringing along a bumper crop of hay.

—The garden party season is now on and already several have been announced.

—Mr. Wm. R. Kenney is re-shingling the verandah at his residence on Church Street.

—Oakville tax rate has been cut by five and a half mills and set at 43 mills for this year.

—The steady and consistent advertiser is the one who builds and maintains a regular flow of trade.

—Some of the finest blooms of tulips this season were in the flower garden of ex-Councillor John Nicol.

—The political meeting drew many from about the countryside for miles to hear the issues discussed.

—The growing weather for the past few weeks has been exceptionally fine and all vegetation is well advanced.

—Alterations are being made in the store in the Kennedy Block, on Main Street, to accommodate a new tenant.

—Quite a number now avail themselves of the privileges of Acton Lawn Bowling and Tennis Club, these evenings.

—Burlington will revise and consolidate the town by-laws. The last revision was in 1899. Acton's were last consolidated in 1893.

—Mr. R. N. Brown sold fourteen Yorkshire hogs last week and they graded ten select. These were shipped by F. E. Holmes, the local drover.

—Do not put the ad. in the paper again, as the house is rented," so reads a note from a user of The Free Press ads. They bring results.

—New illustrations for FREE PRESS advertisements to brighten the summer messages are now available. Ask for these helps in planning your ads.

—The cedar hedge surrounding the property of Mrs. Annie Johnson and Miss Bella Stephenson, at the corner of Willow and River Streets, has been removed.

—Acton Citizens' Band has been booked to take part on two garden party programmes this month. This musical organization is apparently a popular feature of these events.

—The FREE PRESS appreciates very much the splendid co-operation of all in assisting last week in having copy in early and getting the issue out promptly following the holiday on Wednesday.

Acton Wins From Oakville, 19-3

from Oakville without the help of some Toronto players?

"Two home runs in the first game wasn't so bad, either. Hopkins might have been averted if the sun hadn't been directly in the right field's eyes, but we give him credit for a nice blow."

Carmichael was labelled a circuit clown from the minute it left his bat, and he almost repeated in the same inning, with the bases loaded, but the right fielder got between the ball and the fence just in time.

"Minute," Walters and Bill Holloway also looked to have at least triples, but the ball was caught about a foot from the fence.

Bob Anderson's triple, with the bases loaded, pleased everybody.

Altogether Acton had 32 men on bases, 19 scored and 13 were left stranded.

Oakville looked out of place without the "Peerless Peary" Allen, to carry them on to victory as he has done all winter.

WHEN SHOULD CANADIAN POTATOES BE PLANTED

When is the best time to plant potatoes if the largest yields are desired?

This hardy annual once more is arousing discussion, many experts contending that in certain districts the planting is too late to ensure large crops.

The results of extensive experiments of the Experimental Farms, Dominion Department of Agriculture, of various Canadian Agriculture Colleges, and the experience of many growers go to show that earlier planting than has been the general custom would be desirable in the prairie provinces, that is, if large crops are desired.

For that purpose, also, on the south-eastern coast of Vancouver Island it is necessary to plant during the latter part of March or early in April to get the best results owing to the drought in summer.

In the valley of the upper country in British Columbia the early planting is very desirable when autumn frosts come early, whereas in the warmer valleys where there is irrigation and the frost late, the time of planting is not so important.

Perhaps, in no part of Canada has the potato crop suffered more from not planting at the best time than in the province of Ontario, where it is customary for most farmers to plant about the last week of May or early June.

Earlier planting, it is contended by many farmers, does not seem to be desirable owing to the importance of planting other crops early and from the fact that a fine crop of potatoes can be obtained by planting late.

Evidence, however, is strongly in favor of planting potatoes for maximum crops not later than May 15 in Ontario, except in the northern part where the time of planting has to be governed by the time the land is in condition.

In the Maritime Provinces, owing to the lateness of the spring and the coldness of the soil, planting during the first two weeks of June gives the best results.

The late spring is compensated by a long autumn without frost, ensuring the development of tubers, at a time when the plants are dead in other parts of Canada.

The lower St. Lawrence region of the Province of Quebec has climatic conditions somewhat like those in the Maritime Provinces and June planting gives the best results.

In parts of Quebec where the spring is relatively early but where late frosts occur, early planting is desirable. In northern Quebec it will doubtless be found desirable to plant as late as possible, so as to have the crop well advanced before the autumn frosts.

Epitomized, the planting stands thus: British Columbia, April 1 to May 15; Ontario, May 1 to May 15; Manitoba, May 10 to 15; Saskatchewan and Alberta, May 10 to 24; Quebec, May 15 to June 15; Prince Edward Island, June 1 to 7; Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, June 1 to 15.

TO-DAY

A little truth that needs to be reiterated and enforced is this: We are making to-morrow's character to-day. What we do or fail to do now becomes part of us for the rest of our lives.

We can never escape from to-day. We may be able to perceive at this time its relation to character, but some day, perhaps twenty-five years hence, there will come to us an experience the issue of which depends upon this day's contribution to character.

Faithfulness to-day is the only way to insure success in some distant to-morrow.

GOING FORWARD

We turn and look upon the valley of the past year. There below are the spots stained by our evil and our fear. But as we look, a glow of sunlight breaks upon the past, and in the sunshine is a soft rain falling from heaven. It washes away the stain, and from the purity of the upper sky a voice seems to descend and enter our sobered hearts: "My child, go forward, abiding in faith, hope and love, for 'lo, I am with you always.'"

EASILY SEEN

Mrs.—How do you know that woman is cruel to her husband? You didn't even glance at her.

Mr.—Didn't have to—I glanced at him.

FOOLISH QUESTION

"Would you still love me, Donald, without my bit sillier?"

"The ye lost it?" demanded Donald.

"No," replied Jean.

"Then donna ask ally questions."

WONT

"You seem angry, Mr. Smith."

"I am. The Inspector of Weights and Measures has just been in."

"Ha, ha! He caught you giving 16 ounces to the pound did he?"

"Worse than that. He said I'd been giving 17."

If we build a wall of bad habits, the difficulty we shall have to face will be how to climb out.

STRENGTH

What is incomprehensible is not necessarily wise. Ambiguity is no mark of ability. Simplicity is a sign of strength.

The teacher or preacher who takes unctious to his soul because his words are above his hearers' heads, and who flatters himself that he needs a superior audience to be appreciated, is only betraying his own weakness.

It was of John Eliot, the Apostle to the Indians, that it was first said that his sermons were of such a character that lambs could wade in them and elephants swim in them.

We are not speaking the truth well unless we make it so clear that the common people hear it gladly.
